Executors' Notice. Having qualified as executors of the estate of Mitchell Curran, deceased, before the clerk of the Superior Court of Granville county, notices hereby given to all persons indebted to said estate to come forward and settle same at once with the undersigned, claims against the estate to be presented to us for payment by the 7th day of December, 1907, after which date we will present in bar of their recovery.

More Light Without Extra Charge. To house-keepers and merchants: We have just unloaded our second car load of the celebrated Imperial Oil. It is the best oil on the market. No smoke, no odor, burns all the oil, giving brilliant light. Try it once, you will continue it. dec. 2. EDWARDS & WINSTON.

THE BAZAAR.

A Good Round Sum Realized--More Entertainments Ahead. The Ladies Aid Society of the Episcopal church has afforded Oxford one of the events of the season, and at the same time increased its bank balance by some three hundred and odd dollars. This sum is to be equally divided between the regular parish work and the building fund, but as the parish does not need so much as half of the money, the new church building will get half and more.

The Bazaar, as was noticed in last week's PUBLIC LEDGER, was opened in the Armory, Tuesday, November 30th. It came to a most successful close on the evening of Friday, December 3d.

The general management of the affair was in the hands of Misses Mary E. Horner and Ruth Ferree. While it would be hard to add to the reputation of Miss Horner as a successful executive officer in church and social affairs, the unusual success of the Bazaar has come as near to being a miracle as any social affair while less experienced in such matters, proved to be no novice, and shares with her fellow committee-woman the honors won on this occasion.

Upon entering the gaily decorated and brilliantly lighted hall in which the Bazaar was held a cozy reception room in the corner to the right of the door had a tendency to give an at-home feeling. At the head of the reception committee were Miss Elizabeth Hilliard, the other ladies in this department being Mesdames Henry Hunt, E. W. Lassiter, J. S. Hunt, and Misses May Francis and Mary Belle Gregory.

Going toward the reception room one was confronted by the sign, "This Weigh to the Anthropometry Booth." As one of ladies told the PUBLIC LEDGER that the Bazaar was managed by the LADIES, no man is responsible for this pun. In the anthropometry booth one could get his weight, his height, and have the capacity of his lungs tested, all for 5 cents, to say nothing of receiving an appreciative smile from one or more of the young ladies in charge. The latter were Misses Dorothea Coggeshall and Alice Graham, who were co-chairmen, and Misses Nellie Curran and Carrie Hobgood.

Passing on toward the right the art booth came next under observation. This was supervised by a committee of ladies composed of Mrs. G. T. Patton, chairman, Mrs. H. M. Lanier and Mrs. H. G. Cooper. Miss Fannie Skinner, as chairman of the stationary committee, was ably assisted in the management of her booth by Misses Nina Horner, M. E. Gregory, Susan Graham, and Annie de Lacroix.

The doll booth was looked after by Misses Catherine Hilliard, chairman, Willie Skinner, Lula Biggs and Fannie Gregory. The sweetest booth of all was the one in which Miss Margaret Hilliard sold her delicacies made by Miss Hilliard's own fingers, the selling being done by Mesdames R. O. Gregory and Cynthia Skinner. The Chancel Guild assisted in the doll and candy booths.

Miss Charlotte Britt and her "three little maids from school," Misses Annie Booth, Fannie Kronheimer and Carrie Lawrence, looked unusually charming in their Japanese costumes as they sold oriental novelties under a tremendous paper and bamboo parasol.

One who had completed the rounds at this point, the inner man needed refreshing. Miss Ruth Ferree beckoned the traveller into the dining parlor where his needs were provided for by Mrs. E. T. Rawlin's committee, on which served Mesdames Sophronia Horner, Melissa Gilliam, T. L. Booth, G. A. Coggeshall, W. H. White, W. B. Ballou, Kate Hays Fleming and Misses Mary Lynch, Mary E. Horner and Minnie Kronheimer. A most sumptuous supper, consisting of Pickett's extra fine oysters, salads, coffee, ambrosia and cakes, was served in this end of the Armory.

Most popular young lady, Miss Ruth Ferree, 528; Miss Carrie Skinner, 438; Miss Carrie Lawrence, 313; Miss Fannie Gregory, 65; several scattering. Most popular Horner Cadet, Will Horn, 56; Quinton Gregory, 43. Most popular young man, Hillman Cannady, 11; Dr. Ben. K. Hays, 10; Mayor J. C. Biggs, 8; Capt. Hugh Skinner, 7. Little Miss Luey Landis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Landis, was voted the most popular child under five years of age. This feature of the Bazaar netted $86.86.

Some goods remaining unsold were disposed of at auction Friday evening. Mr. E. T. Crews kindly gave his services as auctioneer and the ladies desire to thank him publicly through the PUBLIC LEDGER for the same. They also extend to Colonel H. G. Cooper public thanks for many courtesies.

The Bazaar was a great social as well as financial success, as it brought nearly all our people together in friendly intercourse. It also proved that a unity of spirit exists between our various denominations, as the names of ladies of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptists, Roman Catholic and Jewish faiths appear on the list of those who contributed to the success of the affair.

The following were the receipts of the Bazaar: Gross receipts, $407 75; Expenses, 73 33. Net receipts, $334 42.

At Mrs. Patton's can be found all articles left over. Mrs. Patton will be pleased to show them to prospective purchasers. The same Society will furnish the people of Oxford a rare treat on the evening of January 4th, having engaged the Rogers-Gitiley entertainers to appear in the Opera House at that time.

Conference Appointments for This District. The Methodist Conference, after a splendid session in Raleigh, adjourned Monday. The following are appointments for Raleigh District: Presiding Elder—E. A. Yates, Raleigh—Edenton Street, W. C. Norman.

Sad and Sudden Death. Mrs. W. S. Hester returned Tuesday the 7th, inst., from the North Carolina Conference at Raleigh. She got off the train at Huntsboro, got in her buggy and died suddenly, and was carried home dead in the buggy. Cause of death heart failure.

Landis-Doekery. What is to go on record as the most brilliant of the social events in Charlotte this season will be the marriage of Mr. Frank O. Landis and Miss Carrie Mae Doekery, on December 15th. The cards, issued yesterday, are in the following form: Colonel Oliver H. Doekery requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of his daughter, Carrie Mae, Numbered With the Dead. We sincerely regret to announce the death of another excellent citizen of Granville county. Mr. D. G. Hobgood passed away on Sunday morning last at his home near Hester's church. He was a kind, jovial, warm hearted neighbor and friend, and greatly esteemed by all who knew him.

Dabney Doings.

Rumor has it that there will be a marriage in our town before Christmas. We are glad to know our excellent mayor Smith is much improved after a long spell of gripp.

Zeb V. Burroughs, who has been attending the very excellent school at Oak Ridge this session, left his home on Dec. 1st, he having received a telegram offering him a position in Florida.

Hog killing is the order of the day now. A number of fine ones having been slaughtered, but the big one of all yet to be killed, it belongs to Mr. Bob Satterwhite, it is being guessed at 600 pounds.

Deer are becoming plentiful in this section now, and our sportsman are doing very much hunting, but as yet have reported none killed, though Dr. Wyche and uncle Bob says some must die before New Years Day.

Rev. C. T. Ball who was raised near here, but at present pastor of the Baptist church at Wadesboro, arrived on last Wednesday bringing with him his bride, who was Miss Peterson from Winston-Salem. We learn that she was one of the most charming ladies of that city.

Our people are delighted that the Conference of the M. P. church recently held at High Point has returned to this circuit (Vance) Rev. Wm. Porter, the very popular young pastor who has been here two years. He is loved very much, not only by the members of his own denomination, but by the Christians of all denominations in this community.

The next event at the State University of special interest to the students is the debate with students of the University of Georgia, in February. The University of North Carolina has the negative of the query, "Ought the United States to acquire Hawaii?" and E. K. Graham, of Charlotte, and W. J. Brogden, of Wayne, are the North Carolina debaters.

NO CURE—NO PAY. That is the way all druggists sell GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC, for Chills and fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50¢.
