SHORT-STOPS IN THE LOCAL LINE

Gathered and Condensed for the Eye of the Reader.

—People wouldn't grumble so much if no one noticed them.

—Mr. C. D. Osborn is making some improvements to his house on Hillsboro street.

—Ignorance is a disease of which some persons never make an effort to get cured.

—The self admiration of some people proves that there is no accounting for tastes.

—The county is now taking care of 28 inmate at the Home of the Aged and Infirm.

—The Central Baptist Association will meet with Brassfield church on Tuesday Oct. 10th.

—Messrs. Parker & Hunt are building a new storage house in their wood and coal yard.

—Mr. R. I. Devin has had his residence in Oxford nicely painted and other improvements added.

—Dr. S. H. Cannady has furnished his office up in handsome style, which is neat and attractive.

—We hear of our one mistake when there isn't a single whisper about the many things we do perfect.

—The venerable Washington Duke, who lives to do good, has presented the Durham colored school with a handsome piano.

—Out of 61 applicants before the Supreme Court to practice law in North Carolina 43 were granted, among whom was Senator Marion Butler.

—Hunt & Meadows, of the Farmers Warehouse, are daily adding to their reputations as hustlers after the last red cent on every pile of tobacco put on their floor.

—Mr. W. S. Holloway left on Thursday to make Durham his home. His family joined him next day, and the best wishes of people go with them to their new home.

—The farmers of this territory can always get on getting the very top of the market for all grades of tobacco in Oxford, and the floor of Farmers Warehouse is the place to sell it. Try them and see.

—Messrs. Herbert Gregory, of Stallard, and Sidney Cooper, of Henderson, enjoyed a fox hunt Wednesday morning on Gregory's Mountain. After an hours run the fox gave up the ghost and the dogs were happy.

—Mr. James Cheatham, of Fishing Creek, has become a citizen of Oxford, and occupies the Hoyt residence on Main street vacated by Mr. W. S. Holloway. We cordially welcome Mr. and Mrs. Cheatham to our town.

—We are sorry to learn that the old Thomas homestead in Oak Hill township owned and occupied by Mr. C. F. Thomas, was accidentally burned up on the 25th of September. The fire caught from some unknown cause about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and most of the furniture was saved. There was no insurance on the house. His neighbors and friends deeply sympathized with Mr. Thomas in his loss these hard times.

—At the Lenox Confederate Reunion, Hon. Julian S. Carr was introduced as "a patriot, statesman and philanthropist," the Charlotte Observer says. "Three cheers for Carr. I am for him for the United States Senate."

—The PUBLIC LEADER joins in three hearty cheers for Julian S. Carr for the United States Senate which should be echoed by every brave Confederate Soldier from Manteo to Murphy.

—Messrs. Hunt & Meadows, of the Farmers warehouse, are early birds in hustling after tobacco, and always set their share of the weed. They are very popular warehousemen as it is a settled fact they do not leave a single stone unturned in order to obtain top rail prices for all who sell tobacco on their floor. It makes Hunt & Meadows happy to satisfy their patrons. They are a great lever in pushing forward the Oxford county tobacco market. The farmers want the cream of the market on all grades, and the Farmers Warehouse, and you will get it. We ask you to read the change in their advertisement on the 3rd page of this paper.

His Life Was Saved.
Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die. I was taken with King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure for Typhoid, Rheumatism and Lung trouble. Regular sizes 50cents and $1.00. Trial bottles at J. G. Hall's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

Rheumacide is not recommended for the cure of every ill; it does not cure rheumatism, and is a fine blood purifier and laxative; try it.

You will find Hancock's Drug Store next to Post Office, Oxford, where prompt and polite attention will be given rich or poor. Call in and see him.

—Mr. R. W. Winston advertises land for sale in this issue.

—We call attention to sale of land in another column by J. M. Currin, Trustee.

—Since Jack Frost put in appearance the straw hat is rapidly disappearing.

—The one Quill Brigade was out in full force Saturday in all their grace and beauty.

—Mr. T. H. Collins has about completed his new house in East Oxford and has rented it to Rev. J. T. B. Hoover.

—Lookout! Don't throw our supplement aside as there is some good reading on it which may prove of interest to you.

—Ladies do you want a perfect fitting corset. If so you have to do it to go and see Miss Mary Belle Gregory and get a F. E.

—A large number of the farmers of the county were in town Monday. Most of them were attending upon the insurance meeting.

—If you wish to keep your system in good condition, why try Stedman's Liver Pills. Only 50cts per box. Read change in advertisement elsewhere.

—Mr. A. H. Hobgood and family have bid their old neighbors on Raleigh street farewell and moved up on College street Tuesday in the Landis residence.

—The editor is gratified to learn that Mr. Hillman Cannady has so far recovered as to be able to leave the Charlotte hospital, and is at the home of Mr. N. M. Lawrence.

—Col. H. G. Cooper now beholds in his home the tiny face of a 14 pound girl, who will join the other children in making sunshine and happiness in the home circle.

—Old Maid's Auction and Oyster Supper for the benefit of the M. E. Church will take place at the Armory this Thursday evening Oct. 5th, 1899. Everybody is cordially invited to attend as a pleasant evening is promised.

—Farmers bear in mind that the orders for all grades of tobacco on the Oxford market have been largely increased in the past few days, and our market is very strong and active. Don't be led off to other markets as Oxford is the best.

—It is a pleasure to the editor to learn that the Presbyterian congregation accept the resignation of their most excellent pastor, Rev. A. S. Caldwell, and of course he will remain in Oxford and continue to do good among our people.

—The editor is using every effort to advance the interest of Oxford, and appeals to the business men to lend a helping hand. Let every body unite and let us push the old town forward, as we must not be side tracked in the great prosperity rush. United we go forward, divided we will certainly be left behind in the progressive procession.

—The Trinity church people are greatly rejoiced that the debt on their magnificent house of worship has been lifted. This was done Sunday morning. A balance of $6,303.33 was due on the church. The members of the church raised a portion of the debt, and General J. S. Carr very generously agreed to make up the balance of $3,503.33, which wiped out every cent of the debt due on the church.—Durham Sun.

—Friday was the biggest tobacco day we have had this season and all the warehouses were well filled. The Owen Warehouse led with largest stock. Prices were better and many farmers realized more dollars than they expected for tobacco. They can always count on getting the cream of the market in Oxford as our buyers are always willing to go up to the highest limit. Farmers stand by your home market and help sustain your country town. When you do that you help yourselves. Friday is always a big sale day, and many good sales were made.

—We call upon our readers to remember the merchants who advertise and help sustain their country people, and to consult its columns whenever they start out to purchase their fall goods. By visiting their stores you will find that they carry splendid up-to-date stock of goods—as fine as town several times the size of Oxford. It is also the best tobacco market in this territory and our warehousemen and buyers join hands in securing the highest averages on all grades. Our merchants will sell you goods at the lowest prices, all you have to do is to go and give them a chance to convince you of the fact.

THAT JOYFUL FEELING.
With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old-time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well-informed. Buy the genuine, Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Edwards & Winston will come out with a new ad next week. They bought their fall stock before the advance and are offering genuine bargains in everything in hardware line. Come along and pick up the bargains they are offering. Their store is full of goods and nearly everything being offered at old price.

—Ye Masons of North Carolina listen! The Massachusetts comality of negroes with white people has been recently introduced into the sewing room at Oxford Orphan Asylum in face of the fact that widow ladies and girls in Oxford would be glad to get the situation. The fact is this: a colored woman has been placed temporarily as one of the managers of the sewing room to assist in teaching the girls how to ply the needle. At the poles last November the white people of this State put their foot down on this kind of business.

—The Farmers Mutual Benefit Association met in the Court House Monday with a large attendance. Mr. D. T. Cheatham was elected President, and Mr. M. B. Black secretary, along with the following supervisors for the townships: Dutchville, A. A. Lyon; Tally Ho, A. G. Clement; Walnut Grove, R. W. Hobgood; Oak Hill, K. H. Pleasants; Sassafras Fork, W. L. Taylor; Oxford; Lawson Knott; Fishing Creek, W. A. Parham; Brassfield, H. D. Mangum; Salem, D. N. Hunt. The Association is in good condition with a membership of 300, and the capital stock $367,955. It is a good thing for our farmers and pays losses promptly.

—The Board of County Commissioners in conjunction with Dr. G. A. Coggeshall and Mr. F. W. Hancock visited the Home of the Aged and Infirm Tuesday to look after some needed improvements in that Institution. They decided to move one of the buildings and convert it into two dining rooms, one for the white and one for the colored, with cook room attached, which will result in great saving to the county. The Board also decided to purchase iron bedsteads for the rooms which will be a great improvement over the cumbersome wooden ones that have been in use for many years. It is estimated that the cost of the improvements will not exceed $125. It is a pleasure to the PUBLIC LEADER to announce that these much needed improvements will be made at once, and congratulate the Committee who first call to the attention of our Board of Commissioners.

“THERE IS REST FOR ME.”

Death of Mrs. Alex. A. Crews Monday Night.
After an illness of many weeks Mrs. Alex. A. Crews passed away Monday night about 11 o'clock, and the funeral occurred Tuesday afternoon conducted by Rev. M. H. Tuttle at the open grave in Elmwood Cemetery surrounded by grief-stricken relatives and friends. Rev. Tuttle instead of preaching a sermon read the following, after which he offered up one of the most beautiful prayers we ever heard:

Mrs. Cora C. Crews was born in Nash county Feb. 1849, and died in Oxford Oct. 2nd, 1899. She therefore lived to see the age of 51 years. In 1869 she was married to Mr. A. A. Crews, of Oxford. By him she became the mother of two children, a son and a daughter, both having married her to the Eternal world. She was a kind, sympathetic, good-hearted Christian woman, whom everybody that knew loved. She was faithful and true in all the relations of life. But it is not our intention, however worthy she may be, to enter into any extended obituary of the deceased; we simply want to give her friends some idea of the bright hope she had of a better world beyond. During her last sickness she often prayed to God that she might be permitted to suffer here all that Divine wisdom seen fit for her to suffer. This prayer seem to have been literally answered. Her suffering during her last days on earth was severe and protracted. In fact her whole life was checked with sorrow and affliction. It was through much tribulation that she entered into the Kingdom of God. Only a few days before death came she expressed to her devoted sisters a wish that she had strength to sing that beautiful Hymn, beginning with these words, "Joy to the world, the Lord is come!" She was too weak to sing then. We trust she can sing it now. She at times, would exclaim with radiant joy,

"O Heaven sweet Heaven! When shall I see? O when shall I get there?"

We hope she may be there now. She would often try to sing,

"On the other side of Jordan, Where the Tree of Life is blooming, There is rest for me."

She had a strong faith in Christ. She confessed that she was a poor unworthy sinner saved by Grace. She seemed to have a clear and abiding assurance that Christ would save her. In this faith she died. She was fully resigned to death, and longed to be released from her sufferings. In her last hours she talked much of the grace of God. She would often call for certain portions of scripture to be read to her. She expressed a feeling of great gratitude for the kindness shown her by her friends. She wanted to return thanks for what they had done for her in her weakness. This is always characteristic of the dying Christian. From her last testimony and expression, we feel that we have just grounds to hope that she has gone to a better home than this. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Sweet may be the rest of Sister Crews. And may God in His goodness bless and comfort the bereaved husband and sisters, and may they all meet again in a better world.

The Ladies in Their Glory.
Saturday was a bright beautiful day and the ladies turned out en masse to behold the wonderful and attractive creations in millinery art, handsomely displayed by our Milliners who are ever anxious to please the taste of our dear ladies, who seemed to be in their glory as they chattered among each other about the latest fads.

The elaborate displays of Messrs. Landis & Easton, Long Bros., Miss Emma Day and Miss Mary Belle Gregory were extremely attractive, showing up in handsome style the very latest fads, in shapes, trimmings etc., which certainly seemed to captivate not only the little Miss, the young lady but the matronly dame. Some times a stray man would peep in and sigh for the silver wheels that he would have to shell out to bedeck the head of his daughter or his wife. Of course he would leave with a sad look on his face while those of the ladies would be all smiles as they passed from one Millinery store to another.

There has never been an autumn when birds were more lavishly used in the decoration of feminine headwear than this. There is hardly a hat or a bonnet which does not have some sort of feather adornment, ranging all the way from one stiff quill to the entire plumage of the bird. As for the milliners, they are quick to take a hint from public taste, and they would readily exercise their ingenuity in turning out marvels of millinery art with which the strictest humanitarian would not be able to find fault.

Miss Gregory's Opening.
Saturday morning dawned clear and cool, but the bright sunshine tempted all out of doors, and the slight frostsiness of the air made winter millinery a timely subject of thought and conversation. There were many things to make Miss Mary Belle Gregory's opening a particularly charming occasion.

The cordial greeting the gracious Proprietress, assisted by her sisters, gave to the callers, the meeting of friends, and further to carry out the delightful occasion there were delicious and daintily served refreshments, but most interesting of all was the display of beautiful hats and bonnets. All the latest shapes and colors were shown. Where all was lovely it is hard to specify and how the phantoms of many lovely and stylish hats crowded before my eyes clamoring to be mentioned. But space forbids me to say more than that you will find embodied in Miss Gregory's pleasant place of business and may each one who calls become as the writer,

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

—Rev. M. H. Tuttle left Wednesday to assist in a meeting at Louisburg.

—Mr. Nat Daniel, of Satterwhite, was in town Wednesday and dropped in to renew his faith in the PUBLIC LEADER.

—Misses Lucy and Fannie Clifton, of Louisburg, are visiting friends in Oxford. They will return home Saturday.

—Our old friend Col. W. F. Beasley, of Baltimore, was numbered among the welcome visitors to Oxford Monday and it was a real pleasure to us to meet him in our office looking hale and hearty.

—Mr. C. F. Crews accompanied his sister, Mrs. C. M. Fleming, who has been on a 10 days visit to relatives in Salem and Oxford, to her home in Wilson last Tuesday and returned Saturday. He was greatly pleased with Wilson, and had the pleasure of meeting our old friend Geo. Wainwright, an old Granville boy of yore, whose lines, whose lines have fallen in pleasant places.

527 Moore to loan on real estate by R. R. Moore, Moriah, N. C.

—The old time friends of Mr. Willis Grandy in Granville will learn with sorrow that he is now numbered with the dead. He died in Raleigh Monday at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Thos. H. Briggs, after an illness of five weeks. He was a joiner and a Baptist church member and took a deep interest in whatever would advance the cause of religion. Mr. Grandy was in his 78th year and moved to Oxford from Camden county in 1859, and engaged in the mercantile business with his brother, Mr. Titus Grandy, until they retired in 1883, when he went to Raleigh to live with his daughter, Mrs. T. H. Briggs. He enjoyed the confidence and esteem of our people who join the editor in extending warmest sympathies to the bereaved family.

Sale of Land.
By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain Deed in Trust executed to me on the 18th day of June, 1888, by S. F. Critcher, dec'd, and duly recorded in Mortgage Book No. 23, page 395 of the Register of Deeds' office of Granville county, I shall, on MONDAY, THE 6TH DAY OF NOV., 1899, sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at the court house door in Oxford, N. C., the tract of land mentioned and described in said deed in trust, as follows, to-wit: Bounded on the North by the land of A. J. Critcher, on the East by land of Bettie Hester, on the South by land of James Averett on the West by land of Joseph I. D. Critcher, containing twenty-one and three-fourths (21 3/4) acres, more or less. Said land is situated about three miles from Oxford and is a part of the lands owned by the late P. C. Cameron, the late W. R. Green, S. T. Coley and perhaps others, see the Deed book of Granville county, number 46, page 20, for a more detailed description of said land, for cash. The amount due on this land is only about $450, and there are two houses, one being a three story 6-room dwelling house, one 2 1/2 story 4-room cottage, and several other buildings, all in the village of Stedman. Time of sale 12 o'clock P. M. This Oct. 5, 1899. J. M. CURRIN, Trustee. Royster & Hobgood, Att'ys. Oct. 5.

Sale of Land.
Under and by virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Granville county in the case of W. S. Beck against M. L. Coley and others, the undersigned commissioner will sell at the court house door in Oxford, N. C., on MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1899, at 12 30 o'clock p.m. that valuable small tract of land and buildings in said decree described as follows, to-wit: Lying and being situated in Granville county, N. C., at or near Granville station on the O. & E. Railroad, containing 106 acres, adjoining the lands of the late P. C. Cameron, the late W. R. Green, S. T. Coley and perhaps others, see the Deed book of Granville county, number 46, page 20, for a more detailed description of said land, for cash. The amount due on this land is only about $450, and there are two houses, one being a three story 6-room dwelling house, one 2 1/2 story 4-room cottage, and several other buildings, all in the village of Stedman. Time of sale 12 o'clock P. M. This Oct. 5, 1899. J. M. CURRIN, Trustee. Royster & Hobgood, Att'ys. Oct. 5.

Sale of Land.
By virtue of authority vested in me by C. C. Heggie, in a certain Deed in Trust, recorded in Book 37, pages 428 and 427, in office of Register of Deeds of Granville county, N. C., to secure a certain bond, default having been made in the payment of the same, and having been so directed by the holder of said bond, I shall, on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1899, offer for sale to the highest bidder, at the court house door in Oxford, N. C., for cash, the following described property, to-wit: A certain lot or tract of land and near the village of S. oval, N. C., containing 29-1-2 acres, more or less, there being located on said land three store houses, one dwelling house, one 4-room single-story cottage, one 2-story 6-room dwelling house, one 2 1/2 story 4-room cottage, and several other buildings, all in the village of Stedman. Time of sale 12 o'clock P. M. This Oct. 27, 1899. H. M. SHAW, ATT'Y.

Sept. 26, 1899.
