JANUARY JOTTINGS.

SHORT-STOPS IN THE LOCAL LINE

Gathered and Condensed for the Eye of the Reader.

-If you owe the editor anything call and pay up or send the money as he needs it in business.

-Read sale of land by C. F. Crews, commissioner, and J. B. Elliott, Executor in another column.

-Prof. Hume, of the State University will lecture before the Oxford Shakespeare Club Saturday afternoon at the Francis Hilliard School.

-Don't borrow your neighbor's paper. Get one of your own--Public Ledger for instance, $1 a year, six months, 50c, three months, 25 cents.

-The oldest bonnet was found on an Egyptian mummy, that of a princess who was interred about 2,000 years before Christ.

-We have long since discovered that some of our people prefer to give outside papers some of the things which occur in Oxford rather than to their home paper.

Her face was not all her fortune, But only the slightest part-- For a voice that was liquid silver Went along with a golden heart.

-The gripp is spreading and no one knows what day he or she may be taken down with it. It attacks on the weakest organs is what makes it dangerous.

-The pictorial advertisement of sure cure for the gripp which stares one from the pages of the big newspapers just now, makes one wonder why anybody suffers from the gripp.

-A hundred years was too short a period for the age of Old Testament saints, and too long a period for New Testament saints, hence the word century is not found in the Bible.

-It is the testimony of the big tobacco dealers that one of the principal effects of the war on cigarettes has been to diminish their consumption and to increase correspondingly that of cheap cigars.

-Mrs. M. S. Daniel, of Oak Hill, and Mr. W. H. Hoggood, of Sunset, who have been quite sick for some days, we are pleased to learn are much better, and will soon be out again.

"Did he show any hesitation about taking the money?" his principal inquired of the lobbyist on his return. "I should say not."

"Then what kept you so long?" "When I first proposed it he looked the door so I couldn't get away."

-There be those with souls so sordid that they cannot be happy on days when the earth is bathed in the golden rays of the sun, because they realize that such cannot be bought and sold. Fortunately the gifts of heaven are not marketable commodities.

From what happiness take a hint, Of each circumstance take heed, Be in earnest to imprint On each day a worthy deed, To the sorrowing be a friend, Charity is not mispent, Live serenely to the end, Keep your faith and be content.

-She--"What if I have loved another, dear? Don't you know it has only prepared me for the greater, higher love I have for you?" "That's all right, but how do I know that the love you now have for me isn't preparing you for a greater, higher love for some one else?"--Life.

-Wilson News says: Today a marriage license was obtained here. The happy pair to be are of Nash and are Mr. Jno Barbour, of Nash, aged 79, and Mrs. Alie Lamm, of the same county, aged 80 This is Mr. Barbour's second dash into matrimony while Mrs. Lamm has had three dizzy whirls into its labyrinth.

-Representative A. W. Graham introduced bills in the Legislature in favor of the following persons in Granville: For the relief of J. B. V. Tunstall, a disabled Confederate soldier of Granville. For the relief of James W. Adecock, disabled confederate soldier of Granville.

-Concerning the new country to be opened to settlement this year southwest of Oklahoma the following figures are given: The Kiowa country, after all the allotment and school reservations are deducted, will contain about nine thousand homesteads, and the Wichita country which will open at the same time, there will be about three thousand four hundred homesteads.

Give us your job printing.

-Col. W. B. Ballou now occupies the old Venable place. -Read sale of land under mortgage by L. A. Royster in another column.

-Rev. Jno E. Wood will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and night. -Mayor Sid Daniel has had Main street in Brown town worked at a heavy cost of time only to the taxpayers.

As gripp has now been a recognized disease for ten years or so, it may further deserve its name for its persistence in holding on.

-Mr. E. W. Jones, the fine manager of the Orphan Asylum printing office, is now quite busy getting out the proceeding of the Grand Lodge of Masons.

--There was quite a large number of people in town Tuesday, and the back lot was full of people trading horses. Of course a large number of bones changed hands.

-Mr. W. A. Blackley, standard keeper of the county, has appointed Mr. Charley Turner as his deputy by the consent of the county commissioners, and in his absence will attend to the duties of the office.

-The Board of Supervisors of Oxford Township are required by law to meet on the 2nd day (1st Saturday) in Feb. 1901 when the overseers of the public roads are requested to report their roads.

J. K. WOOD, Chairman Board of Supervisors. -Married, in Vance county Jan. 23rd, 1901, at the home of Mr. Taylor Shotwell, Mr. Charlie Clay, of Chase City Va., and Miss Theodora E. Shotwell, Key. J. A. Stradley officiating.

-The Confederate Veterans of Granville held a meeting at the Court House in Oxford on Friday last with Mr. A. Hoggood as chairman to elect delegate to the Annual Veterans Meeting in Raleigh yesterday. The following delegates were elected: Messrs. Spencer O. Briant, Harvey Hoggood and H. Dorsey.

"Farmers' Guide" is the name of the book, and as its title indicates is a guide to farmers in the cultivation and fertilization of all crops typical to America. This book is handsomely bound, illustrated, and every farmer should have in his library. It can be had without charge from the German Kali Works of 93 Nassau St., New York City.

-You will make no mistake in buying groceries from that clever merchant, C. A. Carroll, as he prides himself on keeping a choice and fresh line of groceries. His brands of flour are the best made. He seeks your trade and assures you a cordial welcome to his store and will sell you goods as cheap as the cheapest. Read his advertisement in another column.

-New Jersey legislators and Social Scientists are at a loss to account for the shortage in the baby crop for that State in 1900, which is reported as showing a decline of 20 per cent. from the usual rate. Everybody feels that if this state of affairs is attributable in any way to Jersey's fostering of the trusts the law should be changed at once.

-In consideration of Cuba's new Constitution some of the patriots objected to the preamble invoking the favor of God, whereupon General Sanguily inquired: "If we do not invoke God, whom can we invoke?" It is evident that the old General has got the situation and the attitude of the administration at Washington seized up about right.

-It is mooted that Mr. H. H. Estman will be a candidate for Mayor of Broughtonboro in May. In case he is elected he will relieve the boys of the trouble of painting the town red, as he is thoroughly competent to do that himself. As to the candidate for mayor of Sefflston it is thought that the contest will be between Rev. J. R. Pace and Colonel Henry Robards since the departure Mayor A. A. Bryant to Durham.

-Stand up like a man and work to build up your town and county, and more liberally support your county newspaper. If it was not for outside patronage no paper could live in Oxford, as many of our people seem to think that a newspaper can subsist alone on wind. It's old right for it to work and blow for the upbuilding of the town, but when it comes to patronage some send their work away, because we cannot compete in price with those who do 50 times more business than we do, but they never spend a cent in Oxford or write a line to help push it long.

-Tuesday was another big tobacco day in Oxford as our warehouses had large breaks of tobacco. The weed continues to fetch tip-top averages, and many farmers go home bright and happy. There is no market in this territory that can beat the old reliable, never-failing Oxford market on high averages.

-About 11 o'clock Monday night an alarm of fire rang out on the cold breeze and proved to be the Southern Railway passenger depot. Our hustling fire department and a large number of citizens were promptly on hand and succeeded in putting out the flames. The fire was caused from a defective flue in the colored waiting room, causing considerable damage.

The gripp continues to rage in Oxford. Among those who have been quite sick with it the past week are: Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Council, Dr. T. L. Booth, Key. J. S. Hardaway, Messrs. B. M. Houbold, J. R. Day, Mr. and Mrs. John Paris, Mrs. Chas. Behlin, Miss B. Miss, Miss Ott Wimbish, Mrs. Susan Williams, Mrs. J. T. Britt, Miss Bettie Jordan, Mrs. Lucy Powell, and Mr. W. A. Devin. We are glad to learn all of them are much better, and are sufficiently amused with the gripp.

-If changeable weather is conducive to sickness health has a poor chance now-a-days. We seldom have wider extremes of weather than we've had since Friday last--from warm to cold and snow and back again to warm and rain. Fortunate indeed is the possessor of a constitution that is not affected by weather, whatever it may be. There are a few such, but yet eternal vigilance is the price of keeping out of the doctors hands.

-At a recent meeting of the I. O. O. F., the following officers were installed: Noble Grand, Mr. F. C. Spencer; Vice Grand, Mr. J. S. Hunt; Conductor, Col. F. P. Hoggood; Warden, Mr. W. A. Devin; Recording Secretary, Mr. C. A. Carroll; Financial Secretary, Mr. J. R. Wood; Right Supporter Noble Grand, Mr. J. B. Powell; Left Supporter Noble Grand, Mr. J. J. Medford, Chaplain Mr. Joe Meadows; Outside Guardain, Mr. Southerland; Inside Guardain, L. S. Ferrabow.

-Mr. W. E. Massenburg has secured the well known Barlow Minstrels for the benefit of our town loving people and they should be accorded a large house. Up-to-date, progressive minstrelsy has been upheld by Barlow's Minstrels for sixteen years, and the eminent position which this organization occupies in this branch of the amusement world, has been won and maintained by true artistic merit. With new features and renewed vigor as entertainers, this organization accompanied by two bands and forty white artists will present minstrel a bill that is up-to-date at the Opera House Feb. 5th.

Granville Copper Belt.
The Granville copper belt, which reaches from Person through Granville into Halifax county, Va., is reported to be proving rich in ore and gives promise of yielding a great profit. There are at present eight mines operated in the belt, five in North Carolina and three in Virginia. They are shipping high grade "bornite" and "glance" to smelters outside of the State.

The ores average, as shipped, about 30 per cent. copper, while selected specimens reach the phenomenally high grade of 70 per cent. Several hundred thousands dollars worth of the ore has been shipped from this State during 1900.--Raleigh Post.

Beat Out of an Increase of His Pen
A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in 47, I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pen on for on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. G. Hall.

-Mr. John S. Watkins, of Cornwall, was numbered with the visitors to Oxford Monday and called to see the "old man."

-We were glad to meet in Oxford Saturday Mr. T. T. Bobbitt, the very successful and popular hat dealer of Baltimore.

-Mr. S. H. Brown, the clerking agent of the Southern Railway, spent several days the past week at his old home in Virginia.

-Mr. S. H. Mize, one of the fine looking young men, of the Enon section, was in Oxford Saturday and dropped in to see the editor on business.

-Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wood, of Bristol, Tenn., who are spending the winter at the old Winston home-stead near Adoniram, were Oxford visitors Monday.

-Mr. Thos. Washington, of Wilson, was in Oxford Tuesday in the interest of the famous Carolina Brights cigarette, the finest cigarettes on the market.

-Mr. S. F. Badgett, of the road, and old Granville young man who now makes his home in Virginia, was in Oxford Friday and the "old man" was pleased to grasp his warm hand.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Crews have returned from Durham and located at their home near Clay, and the editor wishes them every blessing that life can bestow. They were in Oxford Thursday.

-Dr. J. F. Sanderford, the splendid physician of Creedmoor, J. M. Breedlove, of Salem, L. H. Moss, of Wilton, and W. H. Wilkerson, of near Oxford were in Oxford Wednesday and called to see the editor on business.

-The popular Dr. B. K. Hays returned a few days ago from New York City better prepared than ever to administer to the wants of the afflicted with disease. The genial doctor has been kept quite busy since his return as the gripp is on the rampage in Oxford and surrounding county.

-Messrs. B. T. Fuller and son, of Shady Grove; J. I. Gordan, of Clay; A. S. Carrington, Jr., of Hampton; J. T. Daniel, of Beres; J. W. Moss, J. W. Mitchell and W. A. Blackley, of Wilton; D. T. GRANVILLE SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge W. B. Council Presiding--The grand jury--Cases Tried.

Granville Superior Court convened on Monday at 10 o'clock a. m. with Judge W. B. Council presiding. Solicitor Brooks promptly on hand to look after the interest of the State. Our fine Clerk, Dr. J. G. Hunt, and his competent assistant Mr. W. T. Lyon, were at their desk, while Sheriff Fleming and efficient assistant, D. N. Hunt, looked after the Court Room.

The grand jury was drawn as follows: N. G. Crews, foreman, W. J. Overton, S. T. Pittard, L. H. Moss, T. N. Barwell, J. L. Suit, Sim Tippett, James Mangum, M. W. Fowler, W. K. Thomas, J. M. Breedlove, J. E. Moss, S. J. Curran, E. N. Clement, C. F. Thomas, John L. Hart and W. J. Long, with Barney Dixon was officer in charge.

Judge Council is a high-toned gentleman and honorable Democrat of Watauga county, and we are pleased to say was elevated to the bench at the triumphant election for white supremacy in August last, and is now wearing the ermine with credit to the State, and where-ever he has held court he given satisfaction. The editor had pleasure of knowing His Honor before his elevation to the bench and we are pleased to have him preside over the courts of the Fifth district, instead of one of small calibre Fusion judges that has brought disgrace upon the bench in North Carolina.

Judge Council's charge to the Grand Jury was full, clear and able, and attentively listened to by every person in the Court Room. He is careful, patient and courteous in the trial of cases with great credit to himself and the State. We shall be glad to have him with us again.

Solicitor A. L. Brooks, who has attained a splendid reputation as a splendid prosecuting attorney, was on deck and looking well after the interest of the State, but owing to important business had to leave Tuesday evening leaving for Greensboro and the capable members of our bar who did not appear in cases in which the State was interested, looked well after the interest of the State in his absence.

The following cases have been disposed of:

State vs. Haywood Bass, plead guilty of horse stealing, sentenced to 7 years on Durham county roads.

State vs. Sam Allen, charged with murder, now in the hands of the jury which is hung.

State vs. Jasper Green, for murdering his wife near Creedmoor, was taken up Wednesday morning, and he plead guilty to murder in the second degree, and Judge Council sentenced him to the penitentiary for 20 years. The verdict is not well received by the people of Creedmoor section, as Green has a bad reputation, and they are of the opinion that the murder was cold blooded, and in their opinion he should have dangled at the end of a rope.

CAPT. W. H. KITCHIN ILL.
He is Very Sick With Pneumonia. He Was Slightly Better.

News and Observer's Scotland Neck correspondent of 23rd says: Capt. W. H. Kitchin has been seriously ill for several days. Some two weeks ago he became unwell and gradually grew worse, and Saturday his condition became alarming. Mr. A. P. Kitchin, one of his sons in Roxboro, and Congressman W. W. Kitchin, of Washington, were telegraphed for. They arrived yesterday. Capt. Kitchin was unconscious part of the day, and there were three physicians with him, Dr. Wimberly and Dr. Clark, of Scotland Neck and Dr. Julian Baker, of Tarboro, who arrived at 7 o'clock last night. The physicians pronounced his disease pneumonia, the left lung being affected.

Capt. Kitchin rallied last night and regained consciousness and seems better today.

Death of Mr. A. S. Grandy.

A letter from a friend in Florida brings intelligence of the death of A. S. Grandy in that State on the 25th December last. He was one of the many bright young men who have within the last few years gone out from Oxford to seek their fortunes in other localities. About a year ago he left Nashville, Tenn., where he had resided about nine years, to visit his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Crawford of Ocala, Fla., in the hope that his health which had begun to decline would be improved by a change of climate and the congenial surroundings of a sister's home. He was destined never to return. His health instead of improving continued to decline, and notwithstanding the more genial climate of Florida and the best medical attention, aided by the ministrations of tenderest affection, death marked him for his victim.

Albert Sidney Grandy was a son of the late Titus T. and Elizabeth Bell Grandy of Oxford, and was born here on 8th of September, 1862. The home into which he was born was one of refined christian culture, and his early advantage of home training were of the best. He was prepared for college at the Horner Military School and took a high stand in all his classes, and went thence to the University of North Carolina, from which he was graduated with distinction in the class of 1882.

After leaving the University he received an appointment in one of the departments at Washington where he remained some three or four years.

During this period he applied himself to the study of law and attended lectures in the law department of Columbian University. Returning to Oxford in 1888 he obtained license to practice from the Supreme Court in September of that year.

With his scholarly tastes cultivated by a wide reading of best authors and his faculties well disciplined by judicious training, there were few young men setting out in the life of a lawyer with higher attainment in general literature or better versed in the text books of the profession. Indeed his devotion to books and absorption in learning, to some extent unfitted him for contact with the world and the more practical side of life.

For about two years during his stay in Oxford he was associated in practice with this writer, and was found always to be the ripe scholar, the well informed lawyer and the courteous gentleman.

Dosiring a wider field for the exercise of his talent he removed in 1890 to Nashville, Tenn., where he was engaged in the practice of his profession for about nine years, and until his visit to Florida never to return.

He belonged to a family the [ehil] dren of which were all of delicate physical constitution with a proneness to pulmonary trouble. Only one brother and sister survived, Dr. L. B. Grandy, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. T. D. Crawford, of Ocala, Fla. An elder brother, Carey D. Grandy, at one time professor in the University of North Carolina, and an elder sister, Mrs. Hettie Williams, wife of the late Capt. John A. Williams, died several years ago and his other brothers died in early childhood.

There are many of his friends in North Carolina and elsewhere who will learn of his death with genuine sorrow. J. W. H.

Divorces in North Carolina.
Sbelly Star: We see it stated that there were about five hundred divorces granted in North Carolina during the past year. This is a lamentable fact. The legislature can perform a great public duty by enacting a more stringent divorce law.

The evils incident to divorces are many, and when the marriage tie is regarded as of no permanent binding effect it will lose much of the sacredness which should attend it, and the home, the fountain head of society, christianity and civilization, will be seriously threatened. Divorces are too easily obtained. The marriage union is unthoughtfully formed and as unceremoniously broken.

The Mother's Favorite.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidentially to a babe as to an adult. For sale by J. G. Hall.
