NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

Messrs. Davis & Gregory have a nice shipment of tobacco from Prince Edward county, Va., today.

Mr. R. Broughton yesterday bought a dwelling house on Raleigh street from Mr. W. S. Holloway.

It is rumored on pretty good authority that Mr. H. G. Jones, an accomplished contractor, will soon settle in Oxford.

Mr. R. W. Harris, of Wilton, had a two-horse load of tobacco at the Centre Brick Warehouse the other day that brought $575. Pretty good figures.

That promised cold wave materialized yesterday afternoon, but it did not turn out quite so frigid as its first appearance indicated. It was more blustery than anything else.

We are indebted to Messrs. T. W.
Jackson & Co. for a box of fresh coconut and fruit candy of their own manufacture. It was a most delightful treat, and we return thanks.

The tobacco sales were suspended this morning to give the buyers and warehousemen of the city an opportunity to attend the opening of the anti-cigarette convention.

Sheriff C. M. Rogers went to Raleigh yesterday and settled up in full with the State Treasurer, turning over to him $11,058.67. He was entitled under the law until May to settle.

The skies yesterday evening about sunset were indescribably beautiful, resembling burnished gold. Henry Bount would have thrown his pen down in despair had he caught a glimpse of it.

Last night while the wind was highest, a chimney of Mr. W. S. Hundley's residence caught fire, and created some excitement. Some of the sparks lodged on the shingles, but with the aid of a ladder and a few buckets of water the house was saved. Little or no damage was done.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Mr. and Mrs. Rom. Parker returned to Enfield this morning.

Rev. Thos. Drew, of Ohio, is in Oxford on a visit to friends.

Maj. W. M. Gordon returned to West Point, Va., this morning.

Mr. Milton Cayce, of Richmond, Va., arrived in the city last night.

Mr. A. Raab, member of the firm of Strause & Raab, was in Oxford yesterday.

Mr. G. M. Brown, of Boynton, Va., manufacturer of the "Star" wagon, is in the city.

Mr. W. T. Hughes, a prominent to-baccoist of Lousburg, is on the Oxford market today.

Mrs. J. W. Hays went to Washington, D. C., this morning to visit her son, Mr. J. W. Hays, Jr.

Mr. John D. Cooper, of Henderson, came to Oxford on a short visit on yesterday afternoon's train.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hobgood, Messrs.
A. R. Hobgood, J. H. Hobgood, A. L. Hobgood, J. F. White, E. B.
Pittard, A. C. Hobgood and E. Williams are guests of Mr. A. Hobgood.

Capt. A. D. Peace, of Waldon, Ark., who was captain of the Horner Company in the late war and a gallant soldier, is in the city for the first time in twenty years. He is stopping with his brother, Capt. A. S. Peace.

We learn that Mr. M. Oppenheimer, of Scotland Neck, has rented one of Mr. J. C. Cooper's dwellings on Bell street, and will make Oxford his future home. We welcome him cordially.
He will open a butchers stall in the market house.

HUNT-GORDON.

Beautiful Marriage Ceremony at the Episcopal Church Last Night.

St. Stephens Episcopal Church was crowded with people last evening to witness the marriage of Mr. J. Syd Hunt to Miss Annie, daughter of Maj.
W. M. Gordon. The church was beautifully and elaborately decorated with flowers and evergreens. The pews of the families of the contracting parties were enclosed with floral gates and a magnificent floral bell was suspended over the chancel.

At seven o'clock Mendelsolih's wedding march was finely played Mrs.
R. W. Lassiter, Jr., and the bridal party made its appearance, the bride on the arm of her father and the groom with Miss Minnie Gordon, sister of the bride. They were preceded by two little flower maids, Misses Helen White and Pattie Ward.
Arriving at the altar they were met by Rev. W. W. Walker, who performed the marriage services in an impressive manner.

The bride was dressed in superb white ottoman silk, en train, duchess lace and orange blossom, Miss Minnie Gordon wore an elegant white silk, and carried a bouquet of hyacinths.
The ushers, who were Dr. E. T.
White, Dr. J. G. Hunt and R. L. Hunt, J. G. Fall, T. L. Lawrence and J. B.
Booth, had boutonniers of white hyacinths presented by the bride.

Shortly after the ceremony the newly-united couple went to Henderson in a carriage to take the train for Enfield, for a visit to relatives there.
It was their original extension to make an extended tour of the Northern cities, but were deterred by the fear of La Grippe.

The bride is a most charming and highly-accomplished young lady, and the groom—as whole-souled and clever a young man as one meets in a long days' travel—deserves the prize he has won. THE DAY extends to them its warmest congratulations and best wishes.

IT IS ASSURED.

The Farmers' Alliance Will Build a Warehouse in Oxford.

The new and immense tobacco sales warehouse of the Granville County Farmers' Alliance is now assured.
The convention yesterday decided to purchase the old Oxford Hotel site, now owned by Capt. J. A. White, on Main street, and land adjoining running clear through to Wall Street.
The lot has a frontage of 95 feet on Main Street, 100 feet on Wall Street and a length of 418 feet. Parties in the city donated $4,200 towards buying the land and constructing the building.

The warehouse will be of brick, two stories in front with offices, and will cover 95 by 250 feet. Facing Wall street a large brick storage house will be erected.

All the work will be of the best character, and of pleasing style of architecture.

Telegraph Company and the Southern Express Company are from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

THE CONVENTION

TO FIGHT THE CIGARETTE TRUST CALLED TO ORDER.

R. W. Winston, Esq., Delivers an Address of Welcome, and Mr. J. B. Smith Responds.

The preliminary and public proceedings of the convention of the Farmers' Alliance of the Virginia and North Carolina tobacco-growing counties, called to meet in Oxford today to combat the cigarette trust, were highly interesting. The Opera House was a crowded, in addition to the delegates, large number of citizens being present.
Order was called by Mr. W. T.
Adams, president of the Granville Alliance, at 11:30 o'clock, a. m. An earnest and appropriate prayer was offered by Rev. R. H. Marsh, D. D., after which the president introduced Mayor L. G. Smith, who in turn introduced Hon. R. W. Winston.

The latter delivered a speech which did credit even to Mr. Winston. He said that while other corporations might oppose the Farmers' Alliance the corporation of Oxford gave its members individually and collectively a warm and cordial welcome. He spoke for about fifteen minutes in his happiest vein.

President Adams then introduced the district lecturer, Mr. J. B. Smith, who responded to the address of welcome in a brief and well-timed speech.

The body adjourned until 1:30, p. m., when it re-assembled with closed doors.

About twenty counties are represented by earnest and intelligent men, and some means will be devised no doubt to defeat the ends of the cigarette manufacturers.

The delegates are being entertained at the homes of the citizens.

North Carolina Items of Interest Clipped

Mr. J. C. Wright, civil engineer, says the News-Observer, who for four months past was with Mr. J. L. Ludlow's engineering corps upon the sewer work, left a few days since for Henderson, N. C., where he will superintend the preliminary survey for the new water works to be put in at that place.

A telegram from Washington says:
Dr. Eugene Grissom has been here several days. For years it has been his ambition to have charge of St.
Elizabeth's, the National Insane Asylum near this city. The post is a lucrative and responsible one.

J. H. McNeilly, who shot B. O.
Jenkins, at the latter's distillery near Earl's station, has been arrested, tried and acquitted on the ground of self-defence.

How the Negro Exodus is Worked.

Atlanta Journal.
The most attractive dodge that has ever been gotten out is a highly colored circular, embellished with large and well executed pictures.

The first picture represents a negro with his family leaving a broken down cabin home in an old field.

Each member of the family is laden with the simple household effects.

The next picture is taken five years after and represents the negro in his new western home. He is standing, hoe in hand, in his lot surrounded by frisky mules, fat hogs and fine chickens.

The third picture is that of a comfortable two-story dwelling with a beautiful lawn in front, on which a young darkey is cutting the grass with a patent rolling machine. At the gate a horse attached to a fine buggy is hitched. On the front porch seated in a large and comfortable rocking chair may be seen the pompous-looking colored man, supposed to be the same "poor nigger" who left his North Carolina home a few years before.

This circular catches the darkeys every time. The ministers are carried away, and preach emigration; the teachers are wild and talk emigration; everybody is half crazy until they have sold out everything and on the way to the enchanted western land.
