NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.
The break today is a large one and prices are as high as ever.

Mercantilely speaking, the city has been rather quiet since the festive holidays.

Superior Court for Granville commences January 27th, less than two weeks off.

The intermediate examinations at the Oxford Female Seminary are in progress.

College street is being worked as far as the Oapla 1 Asylum, and is being very much improved.

These are busy times for the commercial drummers. Many of these gentlemen are visiting our city daily just now.

The Winston Daily is authority for the statement that "there is talk of building an Alliance cigarette factory at Oxford."

The thermometer took a drop sometime last night, and our people are inhaling iced air to-day. The fires are lit and the winter wraps are taken down from the pegs.

Among the great improvement to Oxford in 1890, we would like much to add the Baptist Female University.
What's the matter with getting it?
We can if we try.

We have not had a theatrical entertainment in the city in several weeks. A good troupe would catch a crowded house if it happened to strike Oxford just now.

The Granville Grays were out on the streets drilling last night, the music of the drum and fire making things lively. The company is getting in good practice, preparing to do honor to themselves and Oxford at the next encampment.

The Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina will meet in annual conclave in Raleigh tonight at 7 o'clock. Mr. S. H. Smith, not the M. W. G. M., but W. M. of Oxford Lodge, left this afternoon to participate in the deliberations of the Grand Lodge.

We are indebted to Mayor L. G.
Smith for a beautiful bouquet of flowers, composed of roses, violets and several varieties beyond our botanical knowledge. They were grown in open air, and their appearance several months in advance of the season is due to the rather a comfortable winter we have had this winter.

The Durham Sun of yesterday says: Jim Weaver, of Granville, was arrested this morning on Flat River, and brought to Durham where he took the noon train for Raleigh. He was in the custody of officers and they were taking him to the penitentiary to serve out a sentence of the Granville court. About a year ago he was tried and convicted in that county, with being implicated in receiving stolen property. The case was carried to the Supreme court, and he was released on bond. The Supreme court decided adversely to Weaver, hence his arrest.

Wanted.

egraph operator, and desires change of

HONOR TO TILDEN.

A RESOLUTION INTRODUCED BY HON. AMOS CUMMINGS.

Some Interesting Proceedings of Yesterday's Session of Congress--Bills and Petitions.

SENATE.—Among the petitions presented and referred was one signed by the wives of Chief Justices Field and Harlan and by the wives of many other distinguished officials and citizens of Washington praying that in the legislation organizing the International Exposition of 1892 provision shall be made for the appointment of women on the board of managers in view of the fact there is to be a presentation of the share taken by women in the artistic, intellectual and religious progress of the nation.

Among the bills reported from the committee and placed on the calendar was one for a bronze statue in Washington to Christopher Columbus.

Mr. Butler gave notice of his intention to address the Senate next Monday on the subject of his bill for the emigration of the colored people.

HOUSE.—Mr. Cummings offered a joint resolution for the erection of a statue to the memory of the late Samuel J. Tilden. The joint resolution was read as follows:

Resolved, That there be appropriated from the treasury of the United States the sum of $50,000 to erect a bronze statue of Samuel J. Tilden, to be placed in the centre of the rotunda of the Capitol; that on the tablet at the front base of said statue there shall be conspicuously engraved these words:
"Samuel J. Tilden, the nineteenth President of the United States, elected but not seated;" (applause on the Democratic side;) that on the right square of the base shall be engraved the date of birth, election and death of such President, and that on the opposite side shall be engraved an eagle with a snake in his talons, and underneath these words: "For the Right."

Resolved, That the President of the United States, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, President of the Senate day, says the Raleigh Call, that eleven crates of strawberries had been shipped

A special to the N. Y. World says: Reports from points along the North Carolina seaboard reveal a most distressing condition of affairs among the people there, who are on the verge of starvation and desolation. A great many farmers are out in the swamps, working waist deep in the mire fishing out logs. These they sell for $30 per load, which yields them a net profit of $3 for perhaps a week's labor.
The railroad charges which they are obliged to pay being $27.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

Violent storms are reported as occurring in the West yesterday. A torrado last night struck the east side of Clinton, Ky., demolishing fifty five houses and killing eleven people and wounding fifty three.

McGoy, a drummer stopping at the Southern Hotel, St. Louis, walked off with a gentleman's valise containing $150,000. He did not go to Canada, however, but returned all on discovering his mistake.

The snowfall on the Sierra Nevada mountains is from twelve to sixteen feet deep on a level and travel is suspended. A snowslide near Sierra City, Cal., January 3d, buried and killed six women and a boy. Mercury at Deadwood, S. D., January 4, 28deg. below zero; in Montana, January 2, 35 deg. below.

Secretary Proctor, who has been for some months giving earnest consideration to the amelioration of the condition of the Apache Indians who have been held as prisoners of war since Geronimo and his band surrendered to Gen. Miles yesterday, submitted his conclusions to the President in two alternative suggestions: one the purchase of a tract of land in the mountain region of Western North Carolina or one in adjacent States; the other that the consent of Congress be requested for their transfer to some point in the Indian Territory, proposing if such transfer be authorized to locate them at Fort Sill temporarily with a view to their final settlement on the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache reservation if satisfactory negotiations can be consummated with these confederated tribes. The latter suggestion has the approval of the Secretary of War, and he recommends its adoption.
