NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

The are some cases of the mumps in the city Pork is remarkably cheap on our market, selling from six to seven cents per pound.
There will undoubtedly be a large crowd at the Opera House tonight Follow the crowd.
The Granville Grays have a full dress parade on the street this afternoon. Tonight the annual election of officers takes place.
Terry W. Light and Merritt, the barbers, will move to the store room on Commercial Avenue just vacated by Mr. C. H. Lewillin.
Now that Oxford has six railway roads every day, besides several country routes, our postmaster and his assistants have a busy time of it.
The spring session of the Oxford Female Seminary commenced this morning. Prof. C. A. Jenkins the new principal, is in charge, the school starts off well.
A horse, hitched to a dray, belonging to Mr. S. R. Sutterwhite, ran away this morning on Main street. The vehicle was badly smashed but the horse escaped injury.
There are applications to rent dwelling houses made almost every day by people who want to remove to Oxford. We trust our capitalists will see to it that the demand is supplied.
The remains of the members of the Kingsbury family, who were buried in the private graveyard on their former estate in the city, are being taken up today and re-interred in the Oxford cemetery.
These are dull times in Mayor L. G.
Smith's court, and fines are scarce.
Some old fines are being liquidated by the debtors working out the amounts on the streets. When the Mayor imposes "ten dollars and cost" upon an offender, it means the money, imprisonment or street work.
A Teachers' Institute for Vance county opens in Henderson today, and continues through the week. Prof. C.
D. McIver will conduct the exercises.
We notice that Hon. W. H. P. Jenkins, Superintendent of Public Instruction for Granville county, is down for an address next Friday.

Richmond Tobacco Market.
RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 18th.—It has been a dull week in bright tobacco although some few hogheads have been sold each day. Yesterday about 25 packages of good old wrappers were taken by order buyers for immediate shipment. Sales of old wrappers would be larger if the supply was not so limited.
Shipments from the different warehouses of the city have been heavy all the week, while receipts have been very light.
Loose breaks and offering of West Va. have been large, and prices have been well sustained. J. M. T.

My doors are now thrown wide open for the reception of all kinds of buggy and wagon work. Satisfaction guaranteed.

ODD FELLOWS SERVICES.

Sermon at the Opera House Last Night by Rev. W. L. Cunningham.

The members of the Oxford Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 103, met at their Lodge room last night at seven o'clock, and, wearing their regalia and headed by Noble Grand W. H. White, marched in a body to the Opera House to hear the special sermon to them by Past Chaplain W. L. Cuninggim.

The Opera House was crowded to its utmost. The services were opened with prayer by Chaplain J. H. Hall.
After some beautiful hymns rendered by a choir composed of representatives from the various churches of the city, Mr. Cuninggim preached from the text 1 Samuel, xviii chapter, 1 verses. He dwelt at length upon the beauties of the friendship existing between Jonathan and David, and cited it as an example people generally might emulate. It was especially interesting to those acquainted with the workings of the order. The citizens are indebted to the Odd Fellows for the privilege of hearing such a splendid address upon so grand a subject.

After the sermon a quartette, led by Mrs S. W. Parker, sang most exqui-sitley the hymn, "From Every Stormy Wind That Blows," which was followed by a prayer by Rev. Jos. Rennie.
The congregation was then dismissed by Rev. W. S. Black, presiding elder.

Another Female University Meeting.
Another meeting of the citizens of Oxford, concerning the locating of the Baptist Female University, will be held in the Opera House tonight.

A large attendance is earnestly requested and urged. The business to be transacted means much for the future of our city. Good work has been done so far, and if it is kept up we feel that victory will crown our efforts.

The meeting will be called to order at 7:30 o'clock. The ladies are invited to attend.

Killed While Gunning.
The Wilmington Star, of last Friday, gives an account of the death by accident of a gentleman who was a frequent visitor to Oxford and had many friends in our city:
Mr. Millard Cook, of Whiteville, Columbus county, accidentally shot and killed himself while gunning yesterday near Whiteville. The only particulars of the sad occurrence learned are that Mr. Cook was crossing a ditch, when he fell and the gun he was carrying was discharged, the lead of shot entering his body and causing instant death. Mr. Cook was hunting in company with a member of the firm of Gilliam & Gardes, of New York, by whom he was employed as a traveling salesman. He was a young man about thirty years of age, son of a prominent citizen of Columbus, and son-in-law of Mr. Martin Schulken, of Vineland, in the same county.

Wanted.
Position as book-keeper or salesman by a young man, full graduate of the Virginia Business College. Is now employed as telegraph operator, and desires change of work. Please address, stating terms, a care. Best reference given.

Experts now place the wealth of the United States at $51,459,000,000.
Its property assessed for taxation upon the duplicates is $23,719,008,000.
Some idea of this amount can be had by remembering the fact that it is greater than the wealth of the entire world 150 years ago.

The Branning Manufacturing Company, of North Carolina, has bought from James A. Church, of New York, 125,000,000 feet of pine timber in North Carolina, for $185,000. The timber cover 50,000 acres. The same company has sold to the Chicago Lumber Company 69,000,000 feet of manufactured timber to be delivered in three years, with a planing mill thrown in, the consideration being $1,000,000. This is the largest timber deal that the South has ever known.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

Senator John W. Daniel will deliver an address in Richmond, Va., on January 25, on the life and character of Jefferson Davis.

Peter Henderson, the seed man of New York, died at his home in Jersey City Saturday. The immediate cause of his death was pneumonia developed from an attack of grip.

Mr. Wood, the instigator of the Ohio campaign document known as the ballot-box forgery, was before the Congressional Investigating Committee Saturday. His testimony was direct to the point that Foraker knew that his paper was a forgery.

A private company, led by a Swede, has taken advantage of the agitation about colonizing Vermont's "abandoned farms" with Swedes and purchased a large tract of land in the northern part of the State and proposes to locate a colony of Swedes upon the lands. Actual sales are reported to have already been made, and the projector of the enterprise sailed Sweden January with the intention of bringing over a colony of his people to settle the balance of his purchase. A Lutheran church will be established on their arrival.

The Blaine household is in tears of grief and deep anxiety. The death of Walker Blaine Thursday is followed by the serious illness of Secretary of State James G. Blaine. Mr. Blaine has been in declining health for many months, and is feared that "la grippe," which attacked him Saturday afternoon, may prove serious. The disease, combined with his enfeebled condition and great grief over the loss of his eldest son, in whom he took great pride, has already afflicted him so that his family and friends are greatly alarmed at his condition.
