SALE OF HOUSE AND LOT IN OXFORD.
By virtue of an order of the Superior Court, I shall, on Monday, the 27th day of January, 1890, offer for sale to the highest bidder at public auction at the courthouse door in Oxford, the house and lot of land owned by the late Mrs. Mary B. Taylor at the time of her death, and formerly owned by Rufus Knott. It is situated in Oxford, on the street leading towards Kittrell, adjoining the lots of R. R. Best, Thos. G. Taylor and D. A. Hunt, is 81 feet front on said street, 99 feet wide at the rear and runs back from street 159 feet. The dwelling is a neat cottage of four rooms, in good condition, with all necessary outhouses.
Terms: One-third cash, the balance in twelve months, with eight per cent. interest from date.
JOHN W. HAYS,
Ex'r. of Mrs. Mary B. Taylor.
December 26, 1889.

NOTICE.
It has been ordered by the Board of Commissioners of Granville county that no orders for money be issued to any person who has been returned as insolvent tax payer, and those who buy such claims do so at their own risk.
T. D. WALLER,
Chairman B'd Co. Com'rs.

SALE OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.
To satisfy a deed in trust, to me executed on the 16th day of January, 1889, by Mrs. Carrie Mitchell, and duly recorded on page 116, book 29, of the Records in the office of the Register of Deeds of Granville county, I will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, on the premises, on the 8th day of February, 1890, the house and lot on Mill Street, in the town of Oxford, adjoining the lands of L. Thomas, R. J. Aiken and R. J. Mitchell, also, immediately after said sale, I will sell the household furniture in the hotel in the town of Oxford known as the Irwin Place.
JOHN J. PARIS, Trustee.
January 6th, 1890.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

A cold wave is heading this way. Messrs. S. W. Mitchell & Son sold a dozen Boss plows one day last week. Regular meeting of the Oxford Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 103, to-night.
Mr. W. D. Eakes has opened a grocery store in the White building on Main street.

The News and Observer warns the Raleighites to "Look Out for Oxford!" in reference to the Baptist Female University.
Terry, Wright and Merrick, the barbers, are in their new quarters, corner of Commercial Avenue and Herndon place.

The Glueklich German Club will hold a business meeting tonight at Mr. J. G. Hall's drug store. All the members are expected to be present.
The entertainment for the benefit of the Baptist Female University, fund promises to be a big success. The best musical and literary talent of the city will take part in it.

Lennel Richardson, who was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of stealing jewelry from Mr. F. N. Day's store, has been admitted to bail on a bond of $200. Baldy Kersey was his bondsman.

An Oxonian now sojourning at the foot of the Rocky Mountains, writes: "Enclosed find payment for your excellent paper. So fully does it give the news that my friends complain that there is nothing left for them to write."

Mr. Smerdon has a pet fox which slipped his chain about a week ago, and has been feasting upon chickens in the community since. This morning a party of huntsmen, with a pack of hounds, got on reynard's trail and ran him down, returning him to his owner unharmed.

Election of Officers.

A civil meeting of the Granville Grays was held in the company's armory last night. The principal business transacted was the annual election of officers, which resulted as follows:

- W. A. Bobbitt, Captain.
- J. A. Taylor, 1st Lieutenant.
- B. S. Royster, 2nd Lieutenant.
- W. Landis, 3rd Lieutenant.

The non-commissioned officers will be appointed by Capt. Bobbitt next week.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A Full Meeting Last Night—the Baptist Female University.

The meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at the Opera House last night was a full and spirited one. The Baptist Female University was the matter under consideration.

Maj. N. A. Gregory, who presided, made a speech full of good points well put; Rev. Dr. R. H. Marsh made an explanatory and effective speech; Rev. C. A. Jenkins made an earnest and convincing speech; Capt. A. S. Peace made a brief and telling speech, and R. W. Winston, Esq., made a rousing speech presenting plenty of hard facts ornamented with rhetorical flowers that in the spring or any other time of the year.

But the best speeches of the evening, as was remarked, were those coming from gentlemen asking that the amount of their subscription be increased or announcing new subscriptions. The fund to secure the University grew considerably. It has assumed respectable and encouraging dimensions.

It was moved and carried that Dr. J. M. Hays and R. W. Winston, Esq., be appointed a committee to arrange a musical and literary entertainment to be given in the Opera House for benefit of the fund.

Rev. C. A. Jenkins, Dr. R. H. Marsh, Messrs. W. A. Davis, E. T. White, R. W. Winston and B. S. Royster were appointed a committee to thoroughly canvass the city for subscriptions and report to the Chamber next Friday night.

After which interesting proceedings a motion to adjourn prevailed.

Hitting Bill Chandler.

In the U. S. Senate yesterday Mr. Pasco, of Florida, and Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshire, discussed federal control of elections. Chandler made one of his stereotyped "bloody shirt" speeches.

Mr. Pasco said he would not follow the Senator from New Hampshire through his ramblings from his scrap book, but he expressed the belief that elections in Florida ever since the memorable one of 1876 were as fair as peaceful and as great as they were in New England. It was not surprising that there were some irregularities there, because the Senator (Chandler) had been one of the principal agents in the Florida election fraud of 1876, and the demoralization resulting from that had not entirely disappeared.

The allusion of his course in Florida in 1876 was taken up by Mr. Chandler, who denied the charge that he had then approached the chairman of the State Canvassing Committee and had promised that if the State was canvassed for Hayes the majority of the Returning Board would be taken care of. He denied that statement absolutely, and declared that the friends of Hayes had resorted to no extraordinary means on that occasion.

Mr. Pasco said that the charge had been often made and printed, and that this was the first time that it had been denied.

Birthplace of Great Men.

A curious history belongs to a house now occupied by Francis Gibson, in Spring Township, Perry County, Pa. In it occurred the birth of John B. Gibson, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; George Gibson, Commissary of the United States; Dr. John Bernheisel, the Mormon who first represented the Mormons in Congress; Hon. John Bigler, Governor of California from 1852 to 1855; and Hon. William Bigler, Governor of Pennsylvania from 1852 to 1855.—Santa Clara.

BAPTIST FEMALE UNIVERSITY

Extracts from the News-Observer's Report of Meeting Last Night.

Hon. G. W. Sanderlin was called upon. Since Romulus had watched the flight of the birds of the air to locate the city of Rome, there had been various methods of determining the location of things, but the location of the Baptist College was to be decided by the flight of money—from the pockets of our citizens. Raleigh presents advantages for the institution that no other place could. Here at the State library, the State museum, the State institutions of all kinds. Raleigh will give the Baptists $50,000 we mean to put canvassers in the field and secure an endowment fund of $200,000, and we mean to have a college with 400 to 500 young lady pupils. It will not interfere with other institutions in this city. Instead of being antagonistic, they will help each other, and they together will make this an educational centre.

Rev. C. Durham said there was desire among the people of the whole State that the college be located in Raleigh. But the committee could not decide upon this alone. The amount of money contributed would necessarily regulate in large measure their decision. The Baptist denomination had already determined that the institution should be first class that it should be far ahead of anything else of the kind in the State. It would go to the place that could make it such.

Mr. Broughton made the statement that no competing town would be allowed to receive aid from persons living outside of that town. He stated that the location committee would today be at Durham and a Greensboro tomorrow. They would also visit Charlotte and Winston. He stated that a little prospecting had been done in Raleigh and he thought there were $25,000 in sight.

The locating committee of the Baptist Female University is in Durham to-day.

The negroes are exodusing as lively as ever, thousands leaving nearly every day.

Mrs. Elijah W. Halford, wife of the President's Private Secretary, has gone to Thomasville, N. C., for her health.

Last Friday morning the dead body of a white man named W. T. Brown was found alongside the railroad track at Wilmington. There were plain evidences of foul play. Brown had a gash cut in his face and a blow or two on the back of his head, indicating that he had been murdered and placed across the railroad track. Brown had been engaged in a row the night before.

Maj. Finger, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, says there are 580,000 persons between the school ages of 6 and 21. Of these three fifths are white and two-fifths colored. Fifty-eight per cent. of this school population attends the public schools. The attendance is in very near the same proportion for both races. The colored attendance is not quite so large relatively.

Thirteen fertilizer licenses have been issued by the State Treasurer since December 1st, the beginning of the fiscal year. Yesterday licenses were issued to the following firms: S. W.
