NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

There was a very heavy frost this morning.

Hours for holding court: Opens at 9.30, a. m.; recess from 1 to 2.30, p. m.

The horse swappers are continuing their circus today on the lot in the rear of Armory Hall.

There are rumors afloat of quite a number of marriages to come off in the city in the course of the next three or four weeks.

The Oxford Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 103, continues to add weekly new members to its roll. Already the Banner Lodge of North Carolina, it is steadily increasing its lead.

The members of the Gluecklich German Club desire through the columns of THE DAY to return their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hunt for a large, choice and beautiful bouquet of flowers.

The wall at the head of College street is being covered. Wouldn't it be a good idea to cover all the public wells, and have these framings neatly painted? The improvement would be great.

That Russian importation, La Grippe, appears to be on the increase in Oxford. Several persons who are down with it are quite sick, but in the majority of cases it is in a mild form and the sufferers recover after a day or two. The disease is epidemic but is not contagious.

A DAY reporter saw Mr. E. C. Hackney, of the Durham Recorder, on the train this morning enroute for the north. "It is untrue," he said, "that the grand jury of our county found a true bill against the Dukes, and dropped it because they threatened to move their plant from Durham."

A Kentuckian, signing himself "S. F. T.", writes a letter to the Biblical Recorder about North Carolina Baptists, from which we make the following excerpt: "There is pastor Hardaway and his dear Oxford people, who know how to appreciate their able and self-sacrificing pastor, and make a visiting brother feel at home."

THE TRAINS.

Their Arrivals and Departures Here Per the New Schedule.

OXFORD & CLARKSVILLE R. R.

This rule will be strictly carried out.

THE MAILS.

The mails are closed at the post-office a half hour before the arrival of the trains.

SHILOH REMEDIES FOR COUGHS, COLIC, AND GENERAL DEBILITY FOR SALE AT FURNACE & BARR.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Dr. C. D. H. Fort is confined to his room with La Grippe.

Mr. A. S. Hall, who has been quite sick, is now convalescent.

Miss Carrie Krombinger is suffering from an attack of La Grippe.

Mr. Wylie Person, of Franklinton, is in the city attending court.

Mr. C. J. Hulin, of the Durham Marble Works, is in the city.

Mr. Geo. Feild, of Henderson, came over to Oxford on the morning train.

Mr. D'Orsey Jones left yesterday afternoon on the train for a short trip.

Mr. F. J. Crews has been under the spell of La Grippe, but is much better now.

Miss Minta Royall, of Wake Forest, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. P. Habgood.

Mr. J. M. Norwood came home this morning from a trip in the interest of his cigar factory.

Mr. Thos. Williams, of Clarksville, Va., arrived in the city on a short visit yesterday afternoon.

Mr. D. L. Blacknall reached the city this morning on a visit to his relatives and friends.

Mr. G. E. Watson, of Toisnot, N. C., until a few weeks ago a resident of Oxford, is here for a few days attending court.

Miss Janie Carrington, of northern Granville, who has been the guest of Miss Mary E. Gregory, left this morning to take charge of a school at Warren Plains.

Mr. C. J. Turner is very sick, we regret to learn. While recovering from an attack of La Grippe, a due exposure brought on pneumonia, and his condition is serious.

Notes From Stovall.

Mr. H. Gregory recently killed 5 hogs, which averaged 348 lbs.

No lack of wild game around here. One reliable huntsman reported a catch of 13 opossums on one fence rail, and another 7 raccoons up one tree.

Mr. James Bryar and W. P. Clyde, Jr., of New York City, are spending a few weeks in the neighborhood, partridge shooting.

Hurdley Bros. & Co., of Oxford are busily at work, preparing for shipment the wood lately purchased by them from Col. R. O. Gregory, along the line of the O. & C. road from Stovall to Lewis'.

Messrs. H. Smith & Sons, manufacturers of buggies and wagons, of Bridgeport, Conn., bought yesterday all the desirable hickory timber on the railroad between Bullocks and Soudan, on the Tanner lands now owned by Mrs. Lucy O. Gregory. Smith & Sons shipped from Stovall two months ago fifty thousand feet of hickory timber for manufacturing purposes.

Wake Forest Anniversary.

THE DAY acknowledges with thanks the receipt of an invitation to attend the 55th anniversary exercises of the Philomathean and Euzelian Literary Societies of Wake Forest College, which take place February 14th. At two o'clock, p. m., there will be a public debate. Query: "Ought the United States Government at present have a Railroad Commission." The name of Mr. J. L. Blalock, of Granville county, appears as president. Orations by a member of each society will be delivered in the evening, after which there will be a social gathering.

SUPERIOR COURT.

PRINCIPAL CASES DISPOSED OF SINCE YESTERDAY NOON.

A Number of Unimportant Criminal Cases Disposed of—Two Defendants Jump Their Bail Bond.

Since our report of yesterday the following cases have been disposed of by Granville Superior Court, Judge R. F. Arahfield presiding.

State vs. Daniel Lyon and Martha Pettford; sentenced to imprisonment in county jail for twelve months, with leave for county commissioners to hire them out or work them on public roads.

State vs. Roger Yancey, larceny; judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

State vs. Crawford Hester, forgery; verdict of guilty. Hester was out on a hundred dollar bail, and when called for sentence last night failed to appear, nor has he been seen since. His brother is his bondsman, mortgaging a piece of land for the amount.

State vs. Robert Hammill, larceny; mistrial.

State vs. Addison Nance, disposing of mortgaged property; judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

William Vass, defendant in a case of afray and one of trespass, failed to appear and forfeited a cash deposit with the sheriff of fifty dollars.

New Advertisements.

The attention of the readers of THE DAY is called to the advertisement of the Durham Marble Works, which appears elsewhere in this paper. The proprietors are reliable business men and turn out marble work in the highest style of art and at prices as low as the lowest. They have a branch yard in Oxford.

Sale of two tracts of land at public auction in front of the courthouse on the 3rd of March.

Peddlers are crying strawberries on the streets in some parts of town. The restaurants usually begin to handle them about this time, but for them to be seen on the streets is something phenomenal. The first new asparagus is has appeared at the restaurants, and everybody can get new potatoes at the stores for not so dreadfully much more than they will be several months from now. It looks as though the winter had been a mild one in the places where early vegetables grow.—New York Sun.

An official of a well-known telephone company says that there is no work that has such a fascination for women as operating in the central office of a telephone company.

Very few of them ever leave because they are dissatisfied with the work. They go in, go through all the grades and the several increases of salary which fall to them under the length-of-service rules of the company, get married and resign. That is about the history of a telephone girl. The pay is good and some of them get sixty dollars a month, but the work is very exacting. It requires constant attention, and the strain on the nerves is very great while it lasts.

For Sale.

Three Hundred Acres of land near the town of Oxford. It is good grain and to back land, and is well timbered. Will be divided to suit purchaser. Apply in this office.

Lost.

Boys, let us start off the New Year fair square and even with the world.

I have your accounts ready, and will be glad to see you.
R. BROUGHTON.

STATE SIFTINGS.

North Carolina Items of Interest Clipped and Condensed from Exchanges.

Col. L. L. Polk is ill at his residence in Raleigh.

Senator Hiscock and family are at Asheville.

The locating committee of the Baptist Female University is in Greensboro today.

Alfred McElrath, a negro boy charged with murder, has surrendered himself at Asheville.

The Supreme Court will examine applicants for law license on Friday and Saturday of this week. The Court will regularly convene on Monday, February 3d.

Gov. Fowle has committed to imprisonment for life the death sentences of Samuel Halford and N. P. Willis, convicted of burglary at the spring term of Rutherford court. The time fixed for their execution was Feb. 7.

A special to the Charlotte Chronicle from Winston, of the 26th inst., says: The Boyer-Teague contested election case for the sheriffalty of Forsyth county, which has been on trial since the 6th instant, came to an end today, the jury rendering a verdict in favor of Boyer, the plaintiff. Teague, Republican, who has held the office since the first of December, 1888, claimed to have been elected by only 24 majority. Boyer, the Democratic candidate, contested the election on the ground that a number of negroes voted for Teague who were non-residents. The counsel for plaintiff claim to have proven that enough illegal votes were cast for Teague to make Boyer's majority 25. Teague has appealed.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

Nellie Bly's real name is Elizabeth Pink Cochran.

Judge O'Brian has decided the suit of the New York baseball club against J. M. Ward in favor of the Brotherhood.

It is rumored the boat De Soia was burned to the waters edge one mile south of Owensboro, Ky., yesterday morning and three lives were lost.

John R. Lattands, cotton factor, of New Orleans, has failed and made a surrender of his property for the benefit of his creditors. The schedule filed in the court shows an indebtedness of $554,000; assets $544,000.

The employees of the Birmingham rolling mill, one thousand in number, went out on strike yesterday, and the fight between the men and the company promises to be a long and bitter one. The weekly pay roll of the mill is about $28,000.

Petroleum was struck on Saturday morning on the farm of S. H. Kennedy, near Johnstown, N. Y. The well was being sunk to discover natural gas. Three distinct veins have been passed and the indications promised a liberal supply. The well had reached a depth of 960 feet. The oil was only tapped, but it rises to a height of 600 feet through a seven inch casing. Intense excitement prevails, and thousands are visiting the well, which is being sunk by the Mohawk Heat, Light and Power Company and promises a rich yield.
