NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

A light break of tobacco at the warehouses today.

The epidemic is reaching out, and getting a grip on fresh victims every day.

We again caution those who have La Grippe not to expose themselves unnecessarily.

The citizens of Tally Ho and Dutchville townships will hold a meeting at Stems on Feb. 14, in honor of the Granville County Medical Society.

We are putting this weather on record. Yesterday cold, with wraps, fires and all the accompaniments of winter; last night rain; today as pretty a sunshiny spring day as one wants to see.

The first person in Oxford to die of the prevailing Russian influenza was the wife of George Taylor, a very worthy negro employed at the R. & D. R. R. depot. La Grippe in her case was followed by pneumonia, and last night she breathed her last.

When Jordan Pritchard was first brought before the court he was adjudged insane and sent to the Asylum, from which he escaped and was re-arrested. He has been sane enough since. He stood trial last court on the merits of a case, and a hung jury was the result. He is again arraigned.

The Magic Pocket Lamp, of which we made mention several weeks ago, is now on sale at Kronheimer's Clothing Store. It is a most ingenious and useful little invention, and will be thoroughly appreciated by all smokers. It is the latest New York novelty, and the factory cannot at present supply it fast enough to meet the demand.

The two-story frame building on the site of the Farmers' Alliance new warehouse has been purchased by the colored Masons of Oxford. They are having it moved to the lot owned by them corner of McClannahan and New College streets, and will rent it out as a tenement house. This same organization intend in the near future to erect on this lot quite a pretentious brick lodge.

Death.

Died, this morning at seven o'clock, Rev. L. F. Humphreys, a resident of the southern suburbs of Oxford. The deceased had been seriously sick for some weeks, and the end was not unexpected. He was a Baptist minister of the gospel, and a man whose pure, upright and consistent Christian life was indeed an example.

He was a member of the Berea Masonic Lodge, and, at his request, he will be interred in the Oxford cemetery with Masonic honors. The funeral takes place tomorrow at 12 o'clock, m.

THE DAY extends the bereaved family its sincere sympathy in their sore affliction.

Richmond Tobacco Market.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 28.—The Richmond market continues very dull and only a few packages are sold each day. Good wrappers are in demand and can be sold without difficulty at good prices. All other grades quiet.

Loose breaks are getting smaller and little remains in the hands of the farmers. The West Virginia crop too has been nearly all sold.

Our manufacturers are evidently not doing much now and they are buying very little leaf. J. M. T.

Fresh Garden Seeds at Furman & Hays.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Dr. J. M. Hays has contracted a case of La Grippe.

Mr. T. M. Washington is under the spell of the influenza.

Policeman N. H. Whitfield is at home with La Grippe.

Mr. A. S. Davis is confined to his room with La Grippe.

Mr. L. L. Strause, of Richmond, Va., is in the city today.

Mrs. M. F. Hart, who has been unwell for several weeks, is now convalescent.

Master J. B. Williams, Jr., left this morning to enter Bethel Military Academy, Va.

Mrs. Jas. Jones returned yesterday from a visit of several weeks to her mother at Norfolk, Va.

Dr. J. W. Booth and Mr. Fayette Washington came to the city from Stems on the morning train.

Mr. C. H. Lewellin, of Raleigh, arrived in the city this morning with two little girls in charge for the Orphan Asylum.

Mr. C. V. Carrington leaves Messrs. Owen, Barbour & Smith, and takes a position next Monday with Mr. E. T. Rawlins.

Mr. Wm. Blacknall, of Kittrell, former postmaster who was removed by President Harrison to make a place for a negro, is in the city visiting his sister Mrs. W. A. Adams.

STATE SIFTINGS.

North Carolina Items of Interest Clipped and Condensed from Exchanges.

Raleigh has increased the capital stock of her cotton factory to $1,250,000.

A splendid crayon portrait of Governor Fowle has been added to the collection of portraits of the Governors of North Carolina, in the State Capitol.

It was reported that Mr. Childs, of the Philadelphia Ledger, and Representative S. J. Randall were largely interested in the new bank at Winston, but it is denied.

Col. Elias Carr, of the Edgecombe Farmers' Alliance, and Mr. Geo. Tonnofski, of Raleigh, representing the Knights of Labor, delivered public speeches at Tarboro last Monday.

SUPERIOR COURT.

PRINCIPAL CASES DISPOSED OF SINCE YESTERDAY NOON.

Two Men Convicted of Forceful Trespass--Day, the Forger, Goes to Penitentiary for Five Years.

The following cases were tried in Granville Superior Court, Judge Armfield presiding, since our report of yesterday noon:

Robert and Charles Tunstall, forcible trespass; verdict of jury guilty.

The trial of the hero of the romantic matrimonial-advertisement marriage, C. F. Day, of Philadelphia, for forgery, was commenced this morning and concluded before noon recess.

The evidence against him was direct and conclusive, and the jury wasn't long in bringing out a verdict of guilty. His Honor promptly sentenced him to five years in the penitentiary.

Day received his sentence with a brazen bow, and asked of the judge: "Please have me sent to the penitentiary as soon as possible; anywhere is preferable to this jail." Judge Armfield said he could not well adjourn court this early in the term to accommodate him, but as soon as the sheriff could spare time from his duties in the courtroom he would attend to his wishes with pleasure. The prisoner thanked him and retired to his cell.

This afternoon the special venire of one hundred and fifty, from which to select a jury to try the case of Jordan Pritchard, charged with murder, is being examined.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

The well known journalist, George Augustus Sala, was married Saturday in London to Bessie Stannard, a sister-in-law of Mrs Stannard (John Strange Winter) author of "Bootles' Baby."

The New York Legislature has passed a bill appropriating ten millions of dollars to the World's Fair of 1892 if it is held in New York city. The city subscribes more than five millions, making a grand total of $15,000,000.

The President yesterday nominated B K Bruce, of the District of Columbia, formerly Senator from Mississippi, to be Recorder of Deeds in the District of Columbia. Also a large number of census supervisors, among them the following for North Carolina: Geo. W. Cobb, first district; Madison Hawkins, second district; Caleb P. Locky, third district; Wm. C Webb, fourth district; Henry Hardwicke, fifth district.

A formal recognition of the United States of Brazil by this Government was completed yesterday afternoon, when the President received the credentials of Sen or J.G. De Ameral Volente, the New Minister, accredited by the provisional government and also the credentials of Senor Salvador Mendoncanas, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a special mission to the United States.

A VARIETY.

Wise and Otherwise, With Information Worth Reading.

An American whaler—The Hoosier schoolmaster.

People with musical tastes generally have large and prominent ears.

A farm near Macduff, Scotland, has been handed down from father to son for 300 years.

It is said that the negroes of Georgia, who twenty-five years ago were slaves, now possess $20,000,000 worth of property.

Speaking of the strong attachments horses and dogs form for men, it is not nearly so perceptible as the attachments of leeches.

For several years the receipts from the sales of public lands in Canada have not been sufficient to cover the expenses of surveying and management. Last year there was a deficiency of more than $81,000.

Arabi Pasha, now an exile on the island of Ceylon, is said to be fretting himself into an early old age. Although but 49 years old, he is gray and thin and very much unlike the jovial fellow he was before he fell under British displeasure.

A lady tells the Christian Advocate that she heard a colored preacher say: "De fo' part ob de house will please sit down, fo' de hind part can not see de fo' part if de fo' part persist in standing befo' de hind part, to de uttuh obclusion ob de hind part by de fo' part."

A Japanese surgeon advertises as follows: "Surgery and bone-setting have been practiced successfully by my ancestors for the past seven generations. Indeed, I may claim a certain amount of their accumulated experience transmitted to me in various ways and otherwise."

A Detroit undertaker has a telephone on a dumb-waiter. He runs it up to his room at night and can answer it without getting up. In the daytime he runs it up out of sight after he has used it, and when the people who are always wanting to "use your telephone for a moment" drop in for that purpose he tells them they can use it if they can find it.

It is stated that as coal is burned in the furnaces of locomotives on the Central Pacific Railroad there is a waste of from 50 to 75 per cent. That is, if the heat could all be utilized it would do almost twice what it now does. If one railroad wastes between $2,000,000 and $5,000,000 a year in fuel consumption, what must be the waste on all the railroads of the country.

The preacher who dropped into an office in Alpena, Mich., the other day where four of the biggest guns in town were playing poker for money may no have known what he was about, but then again he may. Anyhow he flashed a subscription paper for some benevolence before the blushing players, and before you could say Jack Robinson took pledges for over $100.

At the present rate the stables of American millionaires will be finer than their houses. D. Edgar Crouse, a Syracuse millionaire, has built him a stable that cost more than half a million dollars. When the carpenters and builders were through with it he turned it over to a well known and high-priced firm of New York decorators, and when their work is finished the owner will open the stables with a formal reception.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat has made the surprising discovery that in order to be eligible to jury duty in Missouri it is not necessary that the party summoned should be 21 years of age. A gentleman whose son, age 20, was included in a list of persons eligible for jury duty, went to Judge Withrow in his behalf, when the judge said that if he was but 9 years of age and possessed the requisite intelligence he would be obliged to serve.

Locomotive No. 96, belonging to the New Jersey Central Railroad, which exploded at Matawan last Monday, had a history. For years it was considered by employes of the road as "oodood." One of its first adventures was to run off the pier at Communipaw, dragging a train loaded with passengers after it. This occurred eighteen years ago. No lives were lost, but it was the first and last time such an accident has happened in the history of the road. A little later it was in a smash-up at Dunellen. It has run over and killed more people at the grade crossings than any other engine on the road, but it happily closed its career Monday without killing anybody.
