NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

The Granville Grays have regular drill tonight.

A great many people from the country are in town today.

A person laughs at La Grippe before contracting the disease, not afterwards.

The marriage bells will peal out their melody one day this week, says dame rumor.

This is the last week to work for the location of the Baptist Female University. It is now or never.

Messrs. S. S. Halthcock & Co. will shortly remove their drugstore to the storeroom in the Williams' building recently occupied as the postoffice.

Reserved seats for "The Scrap Book," the jolliest of musical comedies, are now on sale at Messrs. Davis, Thomas & Co.'s drugstore, and going rapidly.

We are informed that the county poorhouse is in a splendid condition, and will bear the closest scrutiny. The jail has been thoroughly cleaned and is sanitarially all right.

Another meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held in the Opera House tonight. Dr. B. F. Dixon will be there, and have something interesting to say about the Baptist Female University being located in Oxford.

The County Commissioners are in session today, the following members being present: T. D. Waller, chairman; W. N. Harris, T. J. Smith G. B. Royster. No business of special public interest was transacted at the morning session of the board.

The Adele Frost Dramatic Company, which was expected here Thursday and Friday night of this week, have changed their dates to February the 24 and 25. The attractions this week are "The Scrap Book" Wednesday night and the Schubert Quartette Saturday night.

We have no means of ascertaining the exact figures, but there are certainly no less than one hundred cases of La Grippe in the city, and the epidemic is on the increase. Although we have frequently seen it stated otherwise, there is no doubt that the disease is contagious. The physicians are kept busy.

To Chase Away the Blues.

Of the Royce & Lansing Musical Comedy Company, which will be on the Oxford boards Wednesday night, the Columbus, Ga., Enquirer-Sun, of Jan. 4, 1890, says:

The Royce & Lansing Musical Comedy Company scored a success at the Opera House last evening on the occasion of their first appearance in Columbus. The company, which is composed of refined specialists, are fully up in their requirement of their respective parts. They are all first-class artists, and make up an entertainment bright and enjoyable. It is impossible to criticise such a medley beyond the point of saying that it was really entertaining, and that some of the specialties were the best given this season. Mr. Royce is a comedian of the Sol Smith Russell type, and fully his equal as a character artist. The imitation of Campanni and Charlotta Patti and operatic selection by Charles Horwitz was excellent. The ladies, Miss Royce and Harris, are excellent singers and musicians, and Fred Archer and Oiaf Moen came in for hearty applause. Altogether the entertainment was very deserving, and should be greeted by a large house at the matinee this afternoon. If you wish to enjoy a hearty laugh and hear some good music, attend the matinee this afternoon.

A FATAL FIRE.

Secretary of Navy Tracy's Residence Burned, and His Wife and Daughter Perish in the Flames. Special to THE DAY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 3.—Fire broke out this morning at 7, a. m., next door to residence of Secretary of Navy Tracy. Mrs. Tracy jumped from the second story window, breaking both arms and legs and expired in a short time afterwards. Miss Tracy was burned to death in her bed. Mrs. Wilmerding, a married daughter, also jumped from second story window, sustaining broken arm and leg and other injuries in the fall. Secretary Tracy made a similar leap from same window and now lies in a critical condition.

To Take a Post Graduate Course.

Dr. J. E. Wyche took his departure this morning for Baltimore, where he will take the post graduate course at the Baltimore Dental College. Although highly successful in his profession and admirably equipped for its practise, it is his purpose to keep fully abreast with the advancement of dentistry in all its branches, and to inform himself of new discoveries and inventions and the latest methods of treatment. He will be absent a month or more, and will visit Philadelphia and New York to ascertain what the shining lights in the profession in those cities are doing. Among the new and valuable instruments he will bring home with him, is a nitrous-oxide gas apparatus, with which teeth can be extracted absolutely without pain.

VERDICT GUILTY.

BROUGHT IN BY THE JURY IN THE PRITCHARD CASE.

Sentence Not Yet Pronounced--Some Proceedings of the Court This Morning--Grand Jury Adjourned.

The case of Jordan Pritchard in the Superior Court, charged with the murder of Daniel Moseley, was concluded Saturday night with a verdict of "guilty." The jury had retired to their home for about a quarters of an hour when they announced they had arrived at a decision.

The arguments of the counsel on both sides were able, and the prisoner owes his conviction to the weight of evidence against him. Messrs. J. T. Strayhorn, of Roxboro, N. Y. Gulley, of Franklinton, and A. A. Hicks, of Oxford, appeared for the defendant, and Mr. Wylie Person, of Franklinton, assisted Solicitor Strayhorn in the prosecution.

Judge Armfield has not yet pronounced sentence. Pritchard killed Daniel Moseley in a melee among a number of drunken negro railroad hands in a cabin in the northern part of this county. There are some mitigating circumstances, and it is probable that a petition to lighten his punishment will be gotten up.

The cases disposed of this morning were:

State vs. John E. Greenway; horse stealing; verdict not guilty.

State vs. Lon Garner; burglary; verdict of the jury not guilty of burglary but guilty of larceny; sentenced to penitentiary for five years.

The grand jury adjourned Saturday night.

STATE SIFTINGS.

North Carolina Items of Interest Clipped and Condensed from Exchanges.

Raleigh will have a "Bal Poudre" during this month.

The Supreme Court Saturday granted licenses to practice law to twenty-one young men. Three applicants failed to pass the examination.

The Greenville Reflector says that there will be much more tobacco planted in Pitt county this year than last. We hear of farmers in various sections of the country who will try a few acres.

A suit for $5,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage has been brought by Miss Emma Smith, a well-known young lady of Winston, against Thomas Pepper, a leading business man of that town, who recently married a Miss Lippford, of Clarks-ville, Va.

The approaching marriage of Miss Gertrude Winder and Mr. William R. Tucker, both of Raleigh has been announced to take place on the evening of February the 12th in Christ Church. Miss Winder is a daughter of Maj. Jno. C. Winder, General Manager of the Seaboard Air-Line, and Mr. Tucker is a son of Maj. R. S. Tucker.—News Observer.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

The condition of Mrs. Coppinger, Mr. Blaine's daughter, is reported to be slightly improved.

The sales of leaf tobacco on the Danville market for January aggregated 2,506,908 pounds. The sales for the first four months of the new tobacco year are about 11,000,000 pounds.

A special to the Commercial Gazette from Louisville, Ky., says Bill Nye, the humorist and James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier dialect poet, who have been traveling everywhere giving readings of their writings, have dissolved partnership. The cause of the trouble is sensational, and will pain and surprise the thousands who have been entertained by Mr. Riley's humor and pathos. Mr. Nye says that Mr. Riley has become a confirmed drunkard.

The Speaker Threatened With Chastisement.

Atlanta Constitution's Washington cor. Mr. Cowles, of North Carolina, became so excited that he cried out: "We'll fight for it, and throw that man out of the chair!"

With this he started forwards the Speaker, drawing up his coat sleeves as he walked. However, he was headed off by less excited Democrats and persuaded to desist from such a course.

Three times Speaker Reed read the names of democratic members present who refused to vote. However, not a time was that of Mr. Bynum of Indiana called out although, Mr. Bynum stood right in front of the Speaker each time his name was called. Tom Reed has nerve and determination as presiding officer, but he is a physical coward. He knew that Bynum had said: "No Southern Democrat can resort to this, but I can, and if Reed calls my name I shall face him and demand that it be stricken off his list, and if he refuses I shall demand personal satisfaction. He shall not stigmatize me."

Reed knew that Bynum would make it a personal matter, and he dared not give him the opportunity.
