NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

Mr. J. M. Norwood is moving his cigar factory over the Oxford Book Store.

Secure your reserved seats for "The Scrap Book" tonight. Box sheet at Davis, Thomas & Co.'s drugstore.

Mr. Horwitz will sing "McGinty" at the Opera House tonight. To hear this new and famous song rendered by a first-class vocalist is alone worth the price of admission.

A party of young ladies and gentlemen of the city went on a fishing excursion to Providence Ford yesterday. They had a pleasant time, but met with little success in catching fish.

Mr. H. H. Burwell, manager of Burwell's Hall, Henderson, wired this morning, the company having appeared there last night: "Royce & Lansing Company are first-class. Every one pleased. Strictly refined."

The manager of Metropolitan Hall, Raleigh, telegraphed yesterday: "Royce & Lansing played here last night to a big house, giving the best and most refined performance of the season."

The Razor-Back Hog.

A humorous writer in the New York World, who says he has farmed in Virginia and North Carolina and understands thoroughly the peculiarities of the razor-back hog, relates the following incident:

A drove of them once took the town of Clarksville, Va., and late and destroyed everything in the place. As for the Clarks, they took to the woods and were glad of the chance. The razor-backs got to rooting on the railroad that runs through Clarksville for some gain spilled along the track, and they rooted up the ties and rails for about a quarter of a mile and wrecked an express train. They tore down the City Hall and post-office to get at the picture of a fat woman, and sleek-looking acrobats and the wild children of Borneo that a circus had pisted up.

A New England Answer.

A gentleman in Oxford, seeing the following paragraph in THE DAY, wrote to the postmaster of Hanover to enquire of its truth:

Hanover, Oxford County, Me., has neither a doctor, lawyer, minister or pauper, and last year had money enough in the treasury to run the town without assessing the inhabitants for poll taxes.

The postmaster's answer shows that President Harrison selects officials in highly-educated New England as illiterate as some of his negro appointees in the South:

Dear Sir—the Peace you saw in the paper is true every word of it. There was no Tax raised for eney perpos, And we could do the same thing for a number of Years.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Mr. Job Osborn went to Clarksville on a business trip this morning.

Mr. J. K. Wood is home again from Johnston county, where he has been for several weeks.

Col. T. C. Fuller and Mr. J. B. Batchelor, of Raleigh, arrived in the city this morning, and are attending court.

We are glad to see Dr. Fort on the street again after a severe attack of "grippe." He will be at his office tomorrow.

Mr. Warlick, of the Caswell bar, is in the city. We understand it is probable this gentleman and Mr. T. J. Strayhorn, of Per. on, will remove to Oxford shortly.

Mr. Van Horn, of the North Carolina State Building and Loan Association, who has been confined to his room at the Irwin Place for several days with La Grippe, is out again and attending to business.

Mr. Robt. Hines was in the city a short while this morning. He is no longer a commercial traveler, but has bought out the drug business of Mr. Owen Davis in Henderson and will reside in that place in the future.

Jeffreys--Hobgood.

In the Baptist Church this morning at 10 o'clock, Mr. Thomas B. Jeffreys and Miss Hettie, daughter of Mr. A. Hobgood, were united in marriage, Rev. J. S. Hardaway officiating. The church was crowded with the friends of the contracting parties. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple took the train for a tour to the northern cities.

The bride is an attractive and accomplished young lady, and the groom a gentleman of sterling worth. Both are deservedly popular, and were the recipient of many handsome presents. THE DAY extends congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous life.

Richmond Tobacco Market.

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 4.—The market showed more activity the latter part of last week and sales of something like 100 packages of wrappers and 150 packages fillers were made the last three days in this week. Some old cutters were worked off too, but at reduced prices and probably outside of the Trust.

The market was quiet today and very little tobacco was sold on 'chang, but it is whispered around that some large sales of new wrappers were made today and at good prices too. J. M. T.

A Great Musical Comedy.

"The Scrap Book" was performed in Raleigh Monday night, and the News Observer pays it the following high compliment.

"The Scrap Book" presented at Metropolitan Hall by the Royce & Lansing Company last night was upon the whole one of the most satisfactory performances that has been here this year. There were no "chestnuts." Everything was fresh, sparkling and chipper. "The Scrap Book" has not a deep plot but the happy vein of humor and fun running through it atones for this. The personnel of the company is above the average. There was an air of refinement about the whole performance, which would satisfy the most fastidious. The costumes were both elegant and appropriate. The specialty hits of both Messrs. Royce and Lansing were happily gotten off.

SUPERIOR COURT.

THE CRIMINAL DOCKET ABOUT DISPOSED OF FOR THE TERM.

A Number of Cases Continued--Lemuel Richardson Failed to Appear--Commemorative Meeting Tomorrow.

Granville County Superior Court, Judge R. F. Armfield presiding, disposed of the following cases since our last report:

State vs. Robert and Charles Tunstall; forcible trespass; continued to next court and defendants bound over in the sum of $200 for their appearance.

State vs. Lemuel Richardson; larceny (stealing jewelry from Day's store); failed to appear and sci fa ordered against his sureties. Baldy Kearsey was on his bond for $100.

The criminal docket is about completed. A number of cases were continued.

The following explains itself:

NORTH CAROLINA, GRANVILLE Co.—Upon the opening of the Superior Court of said county, His Honor, R. F. Armfield, judge presiding, on the 5th day of February, 1890, it was suggested by R. W. Winston, Esq., that since the last term of the court Col. T. L. Hargrove, a member of the bar of this court, had died; therefore the regular business of the court was suspended.

Maj. T. B. Venable was called to the chair and N. Y. Gully made secretary of the meeting. On motion of R. W. Winston, Esq., Messrs. R. W. Winston, M. V. Lanier and N. B. Cannady were appointed a committee to draft resolutions commemorative of the life, services and death of Col. T. L. Hargrove and to report same to this meeting tomorrow, Feb. 6th, at 10:30 o'clock, p. m.

On motion it was ordered that a copy of the proceedings be furnished THE DAY for publication and that the citizens of the town and county be invited to attend said meeting.

On motion meeting adjourned to 12:30 o'clock, tomorrow.
T. B. VENABLE, Chairman.
N. Y. GULLEY, Secretary.

STATE SIFTINGS.

North Carolina Items of Interest Clipped and Condensed from Exchanges.

The Supreme Court convened at Raleigh Monday.

Ex-President Cleveland and his wife will probably visit Wilmington about the middle of this month.

On Sunday evening as the 6.18 train was coming in from Keysville, it ran over a colored man beyond the penitentiary. It is said he was walking along the track and became confused when he heard the train and did not know which track to get on. The engine struck him, knocking him from the track, but his injuries were not supposed to be fatal.—News Observer.

The News Observer says: In the case of the Raleigh and Gaston R. R. against the Richmond and Danville Railroad for the right of way of a track at Henderson, which has been under contention, a decision was yesterday rendered in favor of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. The case was argued before Judge Boykin at Wilson. Some points of the case had been in the Supreme Court, and were decided there in favor of the Raleigh and Gaston also.

A Greensboro telegram of yesterday says Lije More, who was under sentence of death and broke jail last Friday, was captured and brought back there this morning. He was captured in Rockingham county, near the Dan River. He was first seen sitting down by fire bareheaded and barefooted, utterly broken down. The smoke of the fire led the pursuers to where he was. He did not venture to cross the river by the bridge as it was guarded. A strong effort is being made by the leading citizens to have the sentence of death changed to life imprisonment.

The change in the management of the Peace Institute, of Raleigh, to be effected shortly, was made public today. John B. Burwell, the present principal, is to be succeeded by Prof. James Dinwiddie, of Gordonsville, Va., who has leased the institution for twenty years. The Peace Institute is the leading female school of the Presbyterian denomination of this State. It is owned by a private stock company, and has for a number of years past been managed by Mr. Burwell, who held a lease on it. Professor Dinwiddie is a graduate of the University of Virginia, and has for some time been professor of English of the University of Tennessee.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

Secretary Tracy continues to improve slowly.

Ex-President Cleveland delivered an address in New York yesterday at the celebration of the centennial of the Federal Judiciary.

Mrs. Coppenger, eldest daughter of Secretary Blaine, died at Washington Sunday, from congestion of the brain brought on by an attack of La Grippe.

The Goff-Fleming contest in West Virginia was decided at noon yesterday in favor of Fleming, the vote standing 40 for Goff and 43 for Fleming. The Carr Union Labor Senator voted with the Democrats Republicans accept the situation gracefully.
