The Royce & Lansing Musical Comedy Company left here for Durham where they show tonight

The commercial tourists are pouring in the city, and the hotels are taxed to provide accommodations for them.

Another turn of the wheel—and the summers warmth and sunshine of yesterday changes to rain, snow and cold of winter.

The Raleigh Call says: "Mr. Nat A.
Gregory, of Granville county, sent to the State Museum this morning a moderately fair specimen of a bestis found in Kittrels."

The Granville Grays will celebrate the fifth anniversary of the organization of the company one night next week.
There will be some interesting public exercises, we understand.

The Sun says that in Durham a red line has been painted the length of the railroad platform, some five feet from the edge of the track, and loungers around the depot are forbidden to cross the mark upon the arrival of trains. Some such protection to passengers might be adopted here.

The Chamber of Commerce holds another meeting tomorrow night for the consideration of the Baptist Female University matter. The subscription campaign is rapidly drawing to a close.
Those who have not already contributed to the fund should certainly be present on this occasion and give in their names and amounts. Every citizen is expected and needed to do his part.

The Next Attraction.

The Schubert Quartette, of Chicago, will appear at the Opera House next Saturday night, Feb. 8. This is its fifth season, with the same personnel as in the past. The record of this organization has been brilliant, artistic and popular. The quartette is composed of Messrs. S. T. Battle, tenor; J. R. Tyley, baritone; H. F. Stone, tenor; G. H. Iott bass, and, assisted by Miss Inez Mecusker, soprano, and Miss Georgiella Lay, piano soloist, a delightful, varied and highly-meritorious program is presented.

The Atlanta Constitution says: "It is difficult in a short notice to do anything like justice to an entertainment so thoroughly excellent as is that of the Schubert Quartette. It is hardly an exaggeration to say that of all the musical entertainments which Atlanta has ever seen, this is the best. Every performer is a true artist, the program is well selected, and the rendition of it is exquisite." The box sheet is now open at Messrs. Davis, Thomas & Co's drug store.

Married.

G. Crichton.

Died.

Yesterday, the infant child, age two months, of Dr. N. M. Ferree. THE DAY offers its heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved parents.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Mr. Ola Forbes, of Pitt county, is in the city.

Mr. C. R. Blackley is very ill, we are sorry to state.

Mrs. J. W. Lyon and Mrs. J. H.
Lyon, of Granville, are visiting Mrs.
J. N. Lyon.

Mr. Smerdon, who has been quite sick for a week or more with the prevailing influenza, is recovering.

Mr. Fred Crews, who was sick with La Grippe last week, has suffered a relapse and is gain confined to his bed.

Dr. J. E. Wyche requests us to inform his friends and patrons that his present address is 924 Madison Avenue, Baltimore, Md.

"The Scrap Book."

This play, which is almost plotless—a mere thread upon which a number of specialties are strung—was presented at the Opera House last night by the Royce & Lansing Musical Comedy Company. There was plenty of fairly-good music on a variety of instruments, and a number of songs, those of the topical order being received by the audience with every evidence of appreciation. The burden of the evening rested upon Mr. Ray L. Royce, who is a clever comedian and as a character personator probably the best yet seen on our stage.

THE TRAINS.

Civil War in Hyde County.

Special to the Wilmington Messenger:

Ocracoke Island is in arms. Lieut.
Winslow and his negro oyster men have been driven from the waters before the muzzle of shot guns. It appears that Lieut. Winslow, representing his company, has been paying a certain price for oysters. The Virginia pirates came in and offered higher prices. Lieut. Winslow went to New Berne and hired a corps of negro oystermen. When they arrived the natives of Ocracoke Island, who have always considered the grounds theirs and have jealously guarded their prerogative, went out with their shot guns and drove the Lieutenant and his negro workmen away from the waters.
It is said that the Lieutenant remarked that he never saw the muzzle of a shot gun look so large. The Sheriff of Hyde county, Mr. J. Roper, was called upon. He went over to the Island and attempted to arrest the three or four whose names were given him; they resisted, and when the citizens of Ocr-acoke Island were ordered to assist in the arrest they absolutely refused and declared they would also resist to the death even if the whole state of North Carolina were to come upon them.
Citizens of Hyde county, on the mainland, were then called upon, but they said it was no fight of theirs and refused to respond to the Sheriff's orders.
Sheriff Roper came to Washington for legal advice and has communicated with the Governor relative to the matter today.

SUPERIOR COURT.

MEETING TO-DAY COMMEMORA-TIVE OF COL. T. L. HARGROVE.

Judgments in Some Civil Cases--A Divorce Granted--Court Will Adjourn Tomorrow Afternoon.

Some interesting civil cases tried in Granville Superior Court yesterday afternoon and today are:

Gilbert Thorp vs. Meadows & Wilkinson and Richard Hester, (suit for damages for accidental killing of horse) judgment by default for plaintiff.

Sally Ann Williford vs. Lunsford Williford—divorce granted.

D. C. Farrabow et al vs Elizabeth Green et al—important land suit from Tally Ho township. A day has already been consumed in the trial, and all the witnesses have not yet been examined.

Court will adjourn tomorrow afternoon.

MEETING OF THE BAR.

The committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorative of the life and character of Col. T. L. Hargrove, at 12:30 o'clock, through R. W. Winston, Esq., offered their report, which was unanimously adopted and the chairman, Maj. T. B. Venable, requested to present the same to the court.

Col. T. C. Fuller, of Raleigh, spoke in eloquent terms of Col. Hargrove, and eulogized his bravery, dauntless courage and prominent traits of character. He said in conclusion, "I am proud of the opportunity to lay this small wreath upon the tomb of my dead brother."

Col. Edwards said that he had known him intimately for 35 years, and that during all these years Col.
Hargrove was pre-eminently "truthful, honest and brave;" that he had his faults, and his were the errors of a strong and brave man.

Col. Amis said that the committee had presented a just and accurate estimate of Col. Hargrove's character and that he heartily endorsed what they report.

R. W. Winston, Esq., said that as older members of the bar had paid tributes to the memory of Col. Hargrove, it was with great pleasure that he, a young man, could raise his voice in commendation of this brave, strong, minded man, who never gave forth an uncertain sound. He was the acknowledged leader of his party in this section and stood forth the great solitary oak in the forest of his people.
That he was ever ready to espouse the cause of the weak and oppressed. His bearing toward young attorneys was characterized with courtesy and kindness, and in him they could find an honest, willing adviser.

The meeting then adjourned.

Capt. Joe Robinson, of Newbern, who had been connected until, recently with the A. & N. C. Railroad for the past thirty-eight years as track master, was found in bed yesterday morning with his throat cut. For the past few weeks he has been sick and despondent to which was attributed this rash act.
Capt. Robinson was seventy-two years old.

The Winston Daily says: E. C.
Hackney, Esq., editor of the Durham Recorder, who was in Winston yesterday, tells us that the Durham Globe is to be revived by Mr. T. B. Eldridge, of the Lexington Dispatch. It is presumed that Mr. Eldridge will sell or discontinue the publication of his Lexington paper. The Globe will publish both daily and weekly editions, we understand.

A number of the cadets of Davis School, La Grange, passed through here yesterday evening going home.
It was learned that Col. Davis decided yesterday to suspend school in consequence of the presence of "la grippe" in the neighborhood. Wiser heads did not see any occasion for alarm but the boys became somewhat demoralized and Col. Davis decided that it would be best to suspend at least for awhile.—News-Observer.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

Rev. Dr. Talmage has returned from his tour abroad.

The World's Fair bill in the New York Legislature failed to pass on its final reading.

The trial of the suit for libel brought by Mr. Parnell against the Times was to have begun Monday, but when the case was called counsel announced that the suit had been compromised, the Times paying Mr. Parnell 5,000 pounds damages.

It is reliably stated that there are hundreds of people in South Dakato sitting in their farm houses going mad from want. The ground is covered with deep snow, the weather is bitterly cold, and they can neither go after relief, nor can relief come to them.

In the National House of Representatives yesterday there was an understanding between the Republicans and Democrats that no effort would be made for the transaction of business, a majority of members being absent in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. and Miss Tia-y.

The Montana deadlock was broken in the Senate yesterday morning. A motion was made to consider the bills from the republican House and two democrats demanded the ayes and nays.
Seven republicans voted in the affirmative, the Democrats not voting. Lieutenant Governor Richards held a quorum was present, because two democrats had called for the ayes and noes, and declared the motion carried. The Senate is now considering House bills.
