NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

The Granville County Medical Society met in Oxford. An attractive advertising chart has been put up in the postoffice.

Chief of Police Renn says that some good work is being done on Taylor street, and that the roadway will soon be equal to any in the city.

Messrs. Fleming Bros. will open a branch store in a few days in the building in the country erected sometime ago by the White Rock Farmers' Alliance.

The patronage not being sufficient to justify the additional expense, the Southern Express Company has discontinued the free-delivering of packages in the city.

Quite a number of our citizens raise a crop of tobacco every year on farms near the city as a kind of "side speculation." Mr. C. H. Landis, of Messrs. A. Landis & Sons, tried it last year with fine success, and informs us that he is now preparing to put in about one hundred and fifty thousand hills for this season.

Prominent members of the Chamber of Commerce who were conspicuous by their absence at the last meeting promise to be on hand tomorrow night. Propositions from one or two manufacturers at the North, who desire to move their plants to the South if sufficiently encouraged, will be presented for the action of our citizens.

Capt. W. A. Bobbitt has received a letter from the captain of the Governor's Guard, announcing that that company will hold a fair and festival in Raleigh beginning April 20th, and that a prize of fifty dollars in gold will be offered for an individual drill contest, two men from each company in the State allowed to compete. It is probably the Granville Grays will be represented.

She Shot the Burglar Dead.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 4.—It is learned here tonight that a negro burglar and desperado was killed in Sampson county early yesterday morning by Miss Alice Kinney, a handsome young woman of 19. Miss Kinney lives on a farm with her mother, and the two are the only ones who sleep in the big farm house. About 3 o'clock yesterday morning Miss Kinney was awakened by a noise of somebody moving about the adjoining room. She guessed at once that there was a burglar in the house, and for a moment did not know what to do, but she quickly collected herself and drew from under her pillow a big self-acting revolver and hid it under the bed covering. Then she heard footsteps approach her room, and she closed her eyes and pretended to be asleep. The door opened, and in walked a man, holding in one hand a shaded light and in the other a revolver. His face was heavily masked. Approaching the bed he gazed at the girl, and, apparently sure that she was asleep, turned toward the bureau, which stood directly in front of the bed. Miss Kinney arose in bed quietly, and aiming carefully at the burglar's head fired, but missed him. He turned toward her with his revolver raised, and she fired again. This time the bullet struck him in the breast and passed through his heart, killing him almost instantly. His name was Sam Kerns.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Graham are in Raleigh. Mrs. T. L. Hargrove returned from Raleigh this morning.

Mr. J. D. Brinkley is confined to his room with sickness. Capt. A. H. A. Williams is on a trip to Winston for a few days.

Mr. T. D. Neal, a prominent Richmond tobacconist, is in the city. Col. J. S. Amis, who has been in Raleigh a day or two, came home today.

Mrs. W. D. Lunsford and Miss Rosa Crews returned to Durham yesterday afternoon. Col. W. F. Brasley came to Oxford on the southbound accommodation this afternoon.

Mrs. J. R. Allen and little daughter left this morning for their home at Wilson, N. C. Mrs. S. S. Haithcock and children were passengers this morning on the northbound train.

Lieut. Wm. Lassiter went to Raleigh yesterday afternoon to pay a visit to relatives in that city. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Booth and Dr. T. L. Booth, of Stems, arrived in Oxford on the morning train.

Mr. L. M. Michieux, the well-known drummer, is shaking the hands of his many friends in the city today. Mr. L. W. Burch, of Augusta, Ga., who has been here several weeks on a visit to his sister, Mrs. W. A. Bobbitt, took his departure yesterday afternoon.

Mr. W. B. Allen, after spending a day or two in the city, bid adieu to his friends yesterday afternoon. It is probable he will make Winston his future home.

The Mayor's Court.

There were six cases before Mayor Smith this morning. The majority were for disturbances in the market house, and brought thirty-five dollars in fines to the city treasury.

A stalwart negro man from the country was jailed this morning for using profane language on the streets and resisting arrest. Chief of Police Renn found him cursing another negro man and on the eve of a fight. When ordered to desist, he replied he would curse all he wanted to and could not be taken to jail either.

Mr. Renn grabbed him and he fought so it was necessary for the officer to strike him on the head with the butt end of a revolver to subdue him. With the assistance of several men Hinton was then taken and locked up. He was released on bail an hour or two later for appearance in the Mayor's court tomorrow.

The Senate's time yesterday was taken up with the discussion of the Blair Bill. In the House Mr. Featherstone, a republican contestant from Arkansas, was seated.

The House is to take up the subject of public buildings and will have to wrestle with about 200 bills to erect such buildings throughout the country at a cost of $37,500,000. Among them are buildings at Greensboro, $30,000; Winston, $100,000; Reidsville, $75,000; Oxford, $100,000; Hender-son, $75,000; Fayetteville, $75,000; Durham, $200,000; and additional for the building at Wilmington, $50,000.—News-Observer.

Cheerful and pleasant things to take. Neither is quinine and a great many other remedies, but there are times when it is that or worse. When such is the case at your house remember that Furman & Hays keep the best goods and prepare them in first-class style.

THE LATEST NEWS.

CAREFULLY SIFTED FOR THE BUSY READER.

Items of Interest About North Carolina Scissored and Condensed from our Exchanges.

Greensboro's Bessemer Steel Works is now a certainty. The board of directors of the Raleigh Insane Asylum elected Mr. W. R. Crawford, present incumbent, steward, and Mrs. Annie Goodloe, of Raleigh, matron.

The Progressive Farmer has the largest circulation of any newspaper in North Carolina. It prints weekly 12,240 copies. It is the organ of the Farmers' Alliance.

A negro died near Whitakers recently of a disease which the physicians pronounced leprosy. The disease appeared a short while after he had slept in a blanket which had been used on a diseased horse.

The Raleigh Call announced its suspension yesterday afternoon, the paper being merged into the new Daily State Chronicle. We are sorry to see the Call give up the ghost, for "with all thy faults we love thee still."

A fire occurred at Henderson yesterday morning, destroying the livery stable in the rear of the Massenburg Hotel. Ten horses were burned to death. The stables were run by Mr. R. J. Southerland. The building was owned by Mr. Henry Perry.

Near Kings' Mountain, N. C., on Sunday morning, the third section of a freight train on the Richmond and Danville Railroad ran into the rear part of the second section, composed of four caboose cars loaded with train hands, and three freight cars. Seven cars and the locomotives were piled up and the cars burned. Ten persons were more or less injured. The engineers and firemen of the telescoping trains escaped by jumping.

The Board of Aldermen last night passed an ordinance to its third reading providing for an election on issuing $75,000 of city bonds for streets and other city improvements. The understanding is that the board will donate $3,500 of the money received from the bonds, to the Lutheran Seminary. So Charlotte secures the Lutheran Seminary, and will have $75,000 to spend in street improvement.—Charlotte Chronicle.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

Young Abe Lincoln died at London yesterday morning at 1:07 o'clock. Mr. Allison was re-elected United States Senator from Iowa yesterday.

Geo. Francis Train left Boston Monday at midnight for his trip around the world, which he expects to complete in sixty days.

A Tribute of Respect.

At a regular meeting of the Blooming Star Lodge No. 53, of F. & A. A. Y. Masons held at the Masonic Hall, Oxford, N. C., March 3, 1890, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased the Almighty Ruler of the Universe to call from labor to refreshments our well beloved brother James Hunt, and

Whereas, our brother in every position of life was a true Mason and upright citizen, a loving husband and father, and one of those chosen vessels called to disseminate the Gospel of Peace—a brother who never betrayed a trust, and who sustained a character above reproach, and moreover was a charter member of this Lodge which was organized December, 1887, A. L. 5887.

Resolved, That we tender individually, as members of Blooming Star Lodge, our sincere sympathy to the bereft of our beloved brother upon whom the stroke has fallen so heavily, and while we invoke Almighty God to give them strength and consolation in their deep affliction, we pledge ourselves to be mindful continually to the duties we owe to them, and that they a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the mourning people of the bereft, and the same be published in THE DAY and spread on record, and we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.
