NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

Spring suits are being worn on the streets.

Sun baths just now are pleasant and popular.

Allen Encampment, I. O. O. F., meets tonight.

Another dose of delightful weather administered to a grateful people.

An active tobacco market keeps things lively around the warehouses.

The fisherman are getting their hooks, nets and other essentials in readiness.

A folding rule was found on the streets today, which the owner can have by calling at this office.

The hands yesterday were at work on Sycamore Street. We understand it is the first time in some years this street has received any such attention.

Adden McAdden and wife were in Square S. V. Ellis' court this morning on a peace warrant sworn out by the latter. The couple had indulged in a pugilistic affair. The case was dismissed at the plaintiff's cost.

Oxford has another young man ambitious to shine as an author. He left the title of his proposed book on our desk this morning, but it is too long for publication in one number of THE DAY and we do not care to run a serial.

A negro man named Tom Overbey was brought to the city this morning bound with ropes, and was turned over to Sheriff Rogers for safe keeping in the county jail. Overbey is charged with stealing a horse, the property of Mr. Rob Starke, of Granville county.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. R. W. Day, who was severely injured by being thrown from a horse on Tuesday, was insured for $4,000 in the U. S. Mutual Accident Association. He was insured by Messrs. Feild & Royster, the enterprising State Agents for the Association. The Association is first class in every respect and under the present management will do a large business in North Carolina.

Work on the Streets.

Chief of Police Renn called around yesterday afternoon with a horse and buggy, and took THE DAY man to see the work which has been done on the streets recently under the supervision of this most efficient officer.

The streets are probably in a better condition than ever before in the history of the city. Many which were heretofore neglected have been attended to and the character of the work is good.

If a heavy iron roller was furnished Mr. Renn, Oxford would have as good unpaved streets of any town in the State.

The Electric Lights.

The contract between the city and the electric light company calls for the lighting of the streets all night. At present the lights are turned off at twelve o'clock.

Will full price be demanded by the company for half service?
If so, it is pretty certain that it will not be paid.

Johnston's Vegetable Nolandine, unexcelled as a tonic, liver regulator and blood purifier. For sale by all druggists. The Nolandine Co., Richmond, Va.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Mr. A. B. Gump, of Baltimore, was in the city today.

Mr. Len Henderson, of Warrenton, is in the city today.

Mr. H. D. Hammer, of Fort Mitchell, Va., is in Oxford today.

Miss Belle Cunningham, of Henderson, is visiting Miss Annie Booth.

Mr. F. Schwartz has returned from Richmond with a drove of very fine cattle.

Mr. T. W. Jackson and child came back from a visit to Raleigh on the morning train.

Mr. Ben K. Hays, who has been in Colorado for some months connected with a geological survey party of the federal government, returned to Oxford yesterday afternoon. He will remain here and read medicine under his brother, Dr. J. M. Hays.

Will Meet Again.

The Durham Sun of yesterday says: "A petition is on the way to Col. Polk, the President of the Board of Trustees of the Baptist Female College, asking that he order a meeting of the Board to convene at Wake Forest on the 18th or 20th of this month, signed by a sufficient number of the Board to secure a meeting. So we feel safe in stating that the Board will surely meet at Wake Forest on one of the above days, and the question of the permanent and final location of the College will be considered again, and we trust satisfactorily to all."

From inquiry here we learn that it is very probable the board will meet in a few days. The establishment of the University is likely to be "indefinitely postponed," however.

Stovall Notes.

There has been a change in the postoffice here by the appointment of Mrs. W. K. Jenkins as postmaster.

The late cold weather has destroyed a large percentage of the tobacco plants.

Mr. R. J. Coen, of Oxford, has bought a lot here, upon which he intends building a residence, and moving his family here.

Mosely & Watkins have sold their stock of general merchandise to Rhodes, Perkinson & Co., who will continue the business next door.

Mrs. G. W. Royster, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pittard, Jr., John O. Bragg, W. N. Barnes and W. H. Gregory were in Oxford yesterday.

Commonwealth Club.

The interest manifested in the meeting of the Commonwealth Club tomorrow night indicates that there will be a large attendance and that valuable work in behalf of Oxford will be done.

The Oxford Female College, tobacco manufactories and the publication of a pamphlet descriptive of our city and the surrounding country will be special order of business.

Ladies Who Desire to Shine

Should go without delay and buy a bottle of Bixby's Shoe Dressing, the best polish for Ladies' Shoes in America today. That and other varieties for sale by Furman & Hays.

A fine lot of smoked hams, sugar cured hams and shoulders. Kingan's pure lard. D. A. HUNT & SON.

Town Lots for Sale.

Twenty half-acre desirable lots within fifty yards of Main street. R. W. LASSITER, JR.

Best in the Market.

"Black Prince," "May Apple" and "Matinee." Chewing Tobacco at Davis, Thomas & Co.'s.

THE LATEST NEWS.

CAREFULLY SIFTED FOR THE BUSY READER.

Items of Interest About North Carolina
Sifted and Condensed from our Exchanges.

A telegram states that Hon. Oliver H. Dockery, well known to North Carolina people, will soon resign his Brazilian office at Rio Janeiro and return to this country about March 15th.

Gov. Fowle has received a telegram from John S. Cunningham, Esq., sent from Cunningham Station in Person county, announcing that telegraphic communication had been established to that place, which is on the line of the Atlantic and Danville Railroad. This was the first message sent.

The report of State Treasurer Bain, just made shows that $11,000,000 of the old debt of the State of North Carolina has been funded into new four percents under the act of 1879, which expires by limitation July 1st, 1890. There is now only $1,600,000 of the old debt outstanding.

About the Durham mass-meeting Tuesday night, in reference to the removal of Trinity College to that place, the Durham Globe says: Hitherto the prospect of removing Trinity to Durham has been a strong probability; it may now be regarded as a reasonable certainty. Durham now comes forward with an offer that for liberality is unprecedented and unrivalled in the annals of North Carolina. A $20,000 site, $50,000 endowment fund, and a building fund approximating $40,000 and that may be increased to $50,000 by the voluntary subscriptions of citizens, are the pledges of Durham's good faith in the effort to have Trinity College located within her borders.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

In the House Tuesday a number of public building bills, involving an expenditure of $1,845,000, were passed.

The semi-official announcement is made of the matrimonial engagement of Mr. Jay Gould and Mrs. Morris B. Flynn.

In the U. S. Senate the discussion of the Blair bill is at last drawing to a close. In the House the bill to erect the territory of Oklahoma was under consideration yesterday.

Flood news from various points along the Mississippi river and other streams is that the White and Black rivers in Arkansas are on a rampage. Both are out of their banks and overflowing the country on each side for miles. Heavy rains have fallen and continue to fall along these streams and a general inundation is looked for.

The Pan-American Congress will soon start on a three weeks tour through the Southern States. Mr. W. E. Curtis, the executive officer of the Congress, says me that the first Sunday will be spent at Fortress Monroe, the second at St. Augustine, and the third at New Orleans. They will pass through North Carolina by the Atlantic Coast Line route.

Ex-Representative Taulbee, who was shot by C. E. Kincaid, correspondent of the Louisville Times, died at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. An inquest will be held tomorrow at noon and will be preceded by an autopsy. Taulbee himself had made no ante mortem statement. Kincaid, who has been under police surveillance since it became known that Taulbee's case was well nigh hopeless, was re-arrested this morning.

A BABY WORTH $20,000.

A Little Wail the Lake Shore Wreck Provided For.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 10.—A baby in arms worth $20,000, and no one authorized to care for it, is the state of affairs brought about by the Lake Shore disaster near Buffalo last Thursday night. E. E. Stewart and his wife of this city, were instantly killed in that collision, but the baby, a little over a year old, which was in its mother's arms, was found underneath the wreck two hours after the accident happened, so sheltered by its dead parents' corpses as to have escaped without a scratch.

The baby will have money enough. Nothing can prevent the suit that will be brought against the railway company for its parents' deaths, netting the child about $10,000, and the father's life was insured for $7,000 in one of the old line companies and $3,500 in a mutual company; so that the tiny miss will soon be in possession of $20,000; but who is to assume the guardianship?

Grand Sire Underwood.

Grand Sire John C. Underwood is expected to arrive in Raleigh today, says the News-Observer this morning, and there is much expectancy and enthusiasm among the Odd Fellows here in anticipation of his visit. The reception will take place to-morrow night at Metropolitan Hall, and a banquet at the Yarboro House will follow. Governor Fowle yesterday received and accepted an invitation to deliver the address of welcome. Mr. C. M. Busbee, of this city, received a telegram yesterday inviting him and Grand Sire Underwood to Atlanta, to be the guest of the Odd Fellows there next week. There are six lodges in that city numbering over 7,000 members. It is uncertain whether Grand Sire Underwood will be able to accept, as he is to be the guest of the Grand Lodge of Florida, which will be in session next week. Mr. Busbee also has an invitation from the Florida Grand Lodge, but will be unable to accept.

The Fugacious Umbrella.

Philade phia Record: The umbrella thief is real, he is in earnest and he is shrewd. Only a few days ago a pugilistic individual entered the corridor of a Philadelphia hotel and rested his "fall silk" in a corner, with this pastboard fastened to it: "The man who owns this umbrella can knock down an ox and will be back in five minutes." In one minute and a half the treasure article was gone and in its place was this: "The gentleman who took this umbrella can walk ten miles an hour and won't be back at all."

Canadian Banks.

In 1891 the charters of all Canadian banks expire, and the plan upon which they shall be renewed will soon have to be determined. Whether it is better to continue the old system, or take pattern by the newer and simpler method in the United States, is the point to be decided.

Executions in France.

The French chamber is considering a new law for entirely suppressing public executions. The only spectators would be those designated by the law, and a few whom the authorities might invite at their discretion.

Johnston's Vegetable Nolandine, unexcelled as a tonic, liver regulator and blood purifier. For sale by all druggists. The Nolandine Co., Richmond, Va.
