NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

The weather shows a disposition to clear up—for which we are thankful.

Bowser's Vaudeville and Comedy Company at the Opera House tonight.

The uniformed band on the streets today made good music, and attracted large crowds.

A negro train hand swore out a warrant this morning against another negro who had threatened to "fix" him.

The Granville Grays have not yet decided to attend the unveiling of the Lee Monument, but it is very probable they will go.

Extensive and systematic advertising of Oxford and the rich agricultural and mineral country surrounding our city would work wonders.

The Bowser Vaudeville and Comedy Company arrived here on the morning train from Durham, and are registered at the Irwin Place.

A good system of waterworks, and Oxford will be in a position to make some big progressive strides. We cannot afford to lag behind our sister towns.

At the Opera House tonight all the seats in the front part of the house, beginning at the posts, middle and both side aisles, will be reserved. A big crowd is looked for.

There will be a congregational meeting at the Presbyterian church tonight for business in connection with the new building. A full attendance is desired and urged.

There will be a slight change in the O. & C. R. R. schedule on and after next Sunday, the 20th inst. The southbound train will pass Oxford at 4:13, p. m., instead of at 4:22, p. m., as at present.

We get the following from the Orphans' Friend: "The Episcopal Bishop of this diocese is expected to be at Stephen's the first Sunday in June (Trinity Sunday). He will administer the rite of confirmation and ordain Mr. Junius Moore Horner."

It is learned here that an attempt was made to lynch the murderer of Capt. R. C. Overbey, and it was necessary to remove him from the Boydton, Va., jail to the prison in Lunenburg county for safe keeping. It is said the mob included a large number of negroes.

The Winston Daily says: "Mr. J. R. Webster, of the Reidsville Weekly, was in our office this evening. In speaking of Bowser's Vaudeville and Comedy Company, which played an engagement in Reidsville last night, says it is a nice clean show such as any lady could attend with propriety."

Referring to the appropriation of $300 a year, made by the county commissioners to our military company, the Henderson Gold Leaf says: "The Granville Grays is one of the most superb military companies in the State, and is commanded by as gallant, soldierly, many and magnanimous a gentleman as there is in the State Guard. Those who know him do not need to be told that we speak of Capt. W. A. Bobbitt."

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Miss Annie Powell is visiting friends in Raleigh.

Miss Rosa Crews came over from Durham this morning.

Mr. A. C. Zollicoffer, of Henderson, is in the city today.

Miss Mollie Brooks, of Halifax county, Va., is visiting Mrs. J. B. Roller.

Mr. J. F. Kronheimer, who has been here several days, left this morning to return to New York.

Mr. H. O. Furman, who is now a successful knight of the gripsack, is home on a visit to his family.

Mr. W. M. Herbert and little daughter, of Chase City, Va., came here yesterday afternoon, returning home this morning.

Dr. N. M. Ferree, surgeon in the U. S. Navy, has taken his departure for New York to report for duty, his long furlough having expired. He will start in a few months on another cruise of three years. Mrs. Ferree accompanied her husband a part of the way to New York.

RICHMOND TOBACCO MARKET.

Private Sales of Tobacco—Report of The Day's Correspondent.

RICHMOND, VA., April 16th.—Business on 'change is of minor interest as compared to outside private sales, which yesterday amounted to 60 hhds., as follows: Wrappers 14, fillers 32, Burley 4, darks 10. Today's sales privately were: Fillers 41, wrappers 17, darks 20, scraps 6; total 84 hhds. Revenue collections were $7,185.07, with every day's stamp sales, indicating a good manufacturing business.

Old fillers to interior markets is a matter of frequent occurrence. The market is firm on all old sound tobacco, for fillers, wrappers and smokers, with a good demand for cheap colory and medium light scraps. Very little new stock tobacco reported yet.

Crop preparations hereabouts are small. Sun-cured old tobacco is very scarce, with only moderate preparations for 1890 crop.

Mr. J. M. Taylor is frequently out of late, much to the pleasure of his friends. W. E. D.

Death.

CREWS.—Died this morning at 3:10 o'clock, at the residence of her son Mr. Eugene T. Crews in this city, Mrs. Hannah B. Crews, in the seventy eighth year of her age.

Death resulted from extreme old age. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church, and an exemplary Christian. Her noble, unselfish life is a shining example. To her bereaved relatives we offer our warmest sympathies.

The funeral takes place tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

At The Opera House Tonight.

The Reidsville Review, of Tuesday, says: "The Bowser Comedy Co. played to a full house at Ellington's Opera Hall last night. It is seldom that the people of Reidsville have such a rare treat. The show in every respect was up to the high standard. Chas. Bowser, the comedian, deserves special mention." The company appears at the Oxford-Opera House tonight.

FIFTH DISTRICT POLITICS.

Mr. J. C. Buxton Thinks the District Will Go Democratic This Fall.

Charlotte Chronicle. The Fifth district is solid for a Democratic Representative in the next Congress; so says Hon. J. C. Buxton, of Winston.

Mr. Buxton was in Charlotte a few days ago, and was interviewed by a Chronicle representative upon the political situation in the Fifth district. Mr. Buxton said that who the Democratic nominee will be cannot yet be predicted with any degree of certainty. He mentioned Baldy Williams, of Granville; J. A. Long, of Person; and Dave Settle, of Rockingham, as strong candidates; and he said that Guilford has promised to bring out a man, and she says he will be a strong one when she names him.

"There will be no lack for plenty of timber," said Mr. Buxton.

"But I see favorable mention frequently made of the name of J. C. Buxton in this connection," said the reporter.

"Yes," said Mr. Buxton, "But I am not seeking the nomination. I have told my friends that if I am the choice of a majority of the Democrats, that I am willing to undertake the task of redeeming the district."

Mr. Buxton said that while there is likely to be a number of candidates before the convention, there will be no strife; that it will be a good-naturedly contest, and that the party will be united on the nominee.

Mr. Buxton says that the Democrats of the Fifth are aroused and will go in to win. He is confident that the district will be redeemed.

When asked about the probable results of the recent negro revolting mass meeting held at Greensboro, Mr. Buxton said that it will amount to nothing, so far as the success of the Democrats is concerned. He regards it as the result of an effort to cripple Brower's chances for nomination, in favor of some other candidate, possible Tom Settle, of Guilford. He thinks that if Brower is again nominated the mutiny in the camp will subside before the election. The Democrats are not gathering hope or consolation from this seeming revolt of the negroes, but hope to win the victory by honest hard work, and on the merits of the principles of the party.
