SALE OF TOWN LOT.

Default having been made in the payment of a certain bond executed to me by Dr. S.
Booth, on the 8th September, 1887, and secured by mortgage on real estate, I shall on Monday, the 12th day of May, 1890, at the courthouse door in Oxford, sell at public auction for cash, the land or lot described in the mortgage which is recorded in Register
Deeds' office, book 25, page 407.

HOWARD DORSEY,
Mortgagee.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Minor Events, Retrospective and Prospective, Gathered About the City By Our Alert Reporters.

The first day of May—and winter now well behind us.

Processions of baby carriages are to be seen on the streets.

Awnings are being put in front of several stores in the city.

The Durham railroad case attracted a large crowd to the courthouse.

Radishes, lettuce and asparagus are the only fresh vegetables on the Oxford market as yet.

Light-weight summer coats and flannel shirts are already worn by some of our young men.

The people of Oxford are fortunate in having a short campaign before the municipal election.

Mr. D. W. Eakes moved his store today from Main street to the Hunter building on Commercial Avenue.

Sheriff Rogers will take the prisoners, six in number, convicted at this term of court, to Raleigh tomorrow morning via Henderson.

We hear that there are prospects of the poorer farmers being reduced to actual want of bread and meat before another crop can be marketed.

Judge Womack discharged the jury this morning. After the conclusion of the railroad matter, cases from the motion docket will be taken up, and court will probably adjourn tomorrow evening.

A salesman in one of our drygoods stores showed a lady customer some dress goods which he claimed was especially gotten up for the "long wet spell in May." A kind of watered silk, we suppose.

Mr. J. G. Hall has a new advertisement in THE DAY which is especially interesting in tropical weather like this. With two soda water fountains running, he can meet the demands for cooling drinks.

Crimes at Marion, N. C.

A special to the State Chronicle from Marion, N. C., says Monday night, during a ball and banquet given to a party of distinguished Kentuckians, John Yancy, Jr., president of the Old North State Land Co., with two Kentuckians, stepped out of the building, when two pistol shots from the dark were fired at Mr. Yancey, fortunately missing their aim. Will White was arrested on suspicion.

Another telegram, dated a day later, from the same town, tells of the murder of a white woman, Jane Irving, and a three year old child. They were struck on the head with an axe by some unknown person. A second child, a boy five years old, was wounded by a blow of the axe. The murderer set the body of the woman on fire after dealing the fatal blow.

In New York yesterday the grand jury handed in indictments against Joseph Pulitzer, John H. Cockerell, Julius Chambers and Jas. F. Graham, of the New York World, for criminal libel. The indictment was found on the complaint of ex-Judge Hilton. The World recently published a series of articles giving a true account, as it alleged, of ex-Judge Hilton's connection with the A. T. Stewart estate.

Johnston's Vegetable Nolandine, unexcelled as a tonic, liver regulator and blood purifier. For sale by all druggists. The Nolandine Co., Richmond, Va.

CITIZENS' MEETING.

Called for Tomorrow Night to Nominate Candidates for Town Election.

There will be a citizens' meeting held at the court house tomorrow (Friday) night at eight o'clock, to nominate a ticket, composed of Mayor and Town Commissioners, for the election to come off Monday next, the 5th day of May.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Miss Bettie Jordan is quite sick, we are sorry to learn.

Mr. J. T. Joiner, of Raleigh, has been here several days.

Miss Annie Powell is home from a visit to friends at Raleigh.

Mr. T. B. Scott went back to Richmond on the morning train.

Mr. Wm. B. Crews is grasping the hands of his many friends in Oxford today.

Col. John Cunningham, of Person county, came to the city yesterday on a visit.

Mr. Fred. N. Day returned to the city this morning after several days' absence.

Col. A. B. Andrews, of the R. & D. R. R. system, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon.

Mr. C. F. Kingsbury returned yesterday afternoon from a short stay at Buffalo Springs, Va.

Mrs. Dr. J. M. Hays and child left today for a visit to relatives in the eastern part of the State.

Capt. R. P. Hughes came home last night after a week's trip through Person and Orange counties.

Maj. John C. Winder, general superintendent of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, is in the city today.

The Wilson Mirror has a characteristic flowery notice of the presence in Wilson of Miss Bessie McNair, of Oxford.

The Durham Railroad Fight.

The Durham railroad case came up before Judge Womack here this morning, and will consume the remainder of the day. It is an application for an injunction by the Durham & Northern Railroad Co. against the Richmond & Danville and Oxford & Clarksville Railroad Companies, to prevent the defendants from using Peabody street in the city of Durham for laying railroad tracks.

The plaintiff is represented by Maj. J. W. Hinsdale and Mr. Jno. H. Devereux, of Raleigh, and Messrs. J. S. Manning and W. W. Fuller, of Durham. Mr. F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, represents the defendants.

THE NEWS BY WIRE

WORKINGMEN RIOTING IN PARIS WITH BLOODY RESULTS.

The Troops Called Out--Two Thousand and Arrests Made--Banks and Gunshops Closely Guarded.

[By telegraph to THE DAY.]

NEW YORK, May 1.—A cablegram from Paris says that a great riot occurred in that city this morning, but was quelled by calling out the troops. The gasworkers struck, and made a raid on the gunshops for arms. The encounter between the soldiers and the mob was fierce and resulted in bloodshed. Two thousand arrests were made. Troops are guarding every bank and gunshop in Paris, and further trouble is apprehended.

So far everything is quiet at the other European capitals.

Large Demonstration in Chicago.

[By telegraph to THE DAY.]

CHICAGO, ILL., May 1.—The laborers' demonstration here today was one of the largest ever seen in Chicago. The procession was miles in length and presented an imposing appearance. It was viewed by a half million people. No trouble.

Eight-Hour Day Granted.

[By telegraph to THE DAY.]

NEW YORK, May 1.—The workingmen's demand for an eight-hour day has been granted here, and they are rejoicing over their victory. They won without resorting to desperate measures.

All Quiet Over the Waters.

[By telegraph to THE DAY.]

NEW YORK, May 1.—The procession at Berlin, it is just learned, passed off quietly. At Paris, at 3, p. m., the troops are in complete control, and good order prevails.

Items of Interest About North Carolina Culled from Exchanges.

Concord has a new daily paper, the Daily Standard, with J. P. Cook and B. E. Harris as editors.

The Durham Sun is reliably informed that it is expected to have the Lynchburg & Durham railroad completed to that place and in running order by the 4th of July. There is also talk of a big celebration on this occasion.

The Secretary of the Treasury has awarded a gold life saving medal of the first class to Richard F. Warren, of Wilmington, for extreme and heroic daring in rescuing Miss Carrie Moffit from the surf at Wrightsville Beach, in June last.

Rev. J. C. Price, a teacher in charge of a negro school at Salisbury, has been in Boston for the purpose of arranging for an exhibition to be held in that city next year. The purpose of the exhibition is to illustrate the progress the negro has made since emancipation.

The celebration of the Battle of Guilford Courthouse will take place on Tuesday, May 6th, at the Battle-Ground five miles west of Greensboro—extra trains running from that city to accommodate the crowd, which is to enjoy a good old-fashioned reunion and open-air picnic.

Mr. Pierre Battle Cox, son of Gen. W. R. Cox, who is a medical student, is in the Roosevelt Hospital suffering from a fall down an areaway on the southeast corner of Ninth Avenue and Sixty-second street. He was found by the janitor of the building, who tried to arouse him; but, failing in this, he notified the policeman on the beat, and an ambulance was summoned. The hospital doctors say that he has a lacerated wound of the skull, and it may prove fatal.

IN A GENERAL WAY.

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

The Bank of America, of Philadelphia, suspended yesterday afternoon.

Rev. Sam Jones goes from Charlotte to Danville, Va., where he is due on May 3rd.

The electrocution at Auburn, N. Y., has been postponed; caused by Judge Wallace, of Syracuse, issuing an order to produce Kemmler before him June 6th.

The Boston Herald notes a peculiar result of the grip in one of the insane asylums of that State, where it restored the reason of four patients who were considered hopelessly insane.

The Lee statue has arrived in New York, and will be taken to Richmond in a few days. Those which have seen it pronounce it a work of art which compares most favorably with the finest in the great European cities.

F. Walker, associate editor of the Cosmopolitan, of New York, is missing. He was last heard from at Weldon, N. C., where he had been sojourning for the benefit of his health. It is feared that he was drowned while on a fishing trip.

A Brusley Landing, Miss., special says: The back water has been rising here so rapidly that it is thought nearly all the plantations around here will be inundated. The large Sinclair plantation went under yesterday. Her back levee gave way and within six hours many acres of cane were flooded. Deer are coming out of the swamps in droves and are being mercilessly slaughtered.

Johnston's Vegetable Nolandine, unexcelled as a tonic, liver regulator and blood purifier. For sale by all druggists. The Nolandine Co., Richmond, Va.
