NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

A seining party from the city yesterday enjoyed fine sport.

There are ten prisoners in the county jail, one woman among the number. The brick work on Messrs. Adams & Scott's new prizery is almost completed.

Agents for several land improvement schemes have been in the city in the past few days.

Fine rain last night. Good rains, in fact, almost every day for the past week. The crops are growing beautifully.

George Rogers, one of the men on the street chain gang, escaped from the guard this afternoon. A search is being made for him.

Some of the occupants of the market house kicked against the order to close the doors from 12, m., to 5, p. m., daily, and it has been rescinded.

A go-ahead Oxonian drops us the following note: "This is simply to say you struck 'em on the right line yesterday (Durham factories.) Hit 'em again!"

The knitting mill to be located here will, we are told, give employment to from seventy five to one hundred and twenty-five white girls. The work is clean, and respectable girls only are wanted.

The new tobacco sold on this market yesterday by Mr. L. F. Lucas, of Wilson county, N. C., was put on the warehouse floor just forty days from the time it was transplanted. The best grade fetched $2.50 a pound.

Have you listed your taxes? The books will remain open only a few days more. Mr. F. B. Hays is city list taker, with headquarters at Messrs. Furman & Hays' drugstore, and Mr. S. V. Ellis is listing for the county and State at the courthouse. Failure to list means double taxes.

The officers of the Mt. Lebanon Lodge, Wilson, elected for the ensuing year, will be installed June 24. The Wilson Mirror says: "Rev. Dr. Dixon, of the Orphan Asylum, a speaker of rare power and charming eloquence, will deliver the anniversary address in M. E. Church at 8 o'clock p. m., after which the exercises will close with a banquet."

Raleigh Interested.

Col. Fred Old writes to the Durham Globe: "A special yesterday from Oxford brought the news that the land company at that place had closed a contract for a large knitting mill. Many Raleigh people are peculiarly interested in the boom at Oxford. In Raleigh people appear to be quite proud of this enterprises, and engage in them all over the country. A few days ago a Raleigh man made $14,000 in a real estate deal at Fort Payne."

Some of Raleigh's most prominent business men are members of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company, and citizens of the State capital have invested liberally in the stock.

Mr. H. D. White Entertains.

Mr. H. D. White entertained last evening a party of young ladies and gentlemen at the residence of his brother, Capt. J. S. White. A sumptuous collation was served and discussed with hearty enjoyment. There were also a "feast of reason and flow of soul," music and dancing, and a most pleasant time spent by every one present.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Mayor T. T. Hicks, of Henderson, is in Oxford today.

Mr. C. L. Paxson, of Buffalo Lithia Springs, Va., was in the city today.

Mr. R. M. Hester has gone to Falkland, Pitt county, N. C., to cure tobacco.

Dr. D. S. Harmon passed through the city today enroute to Danville, Va., where he will locate.

Mr. Gus H. Rountree, of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived in the city this morning on a visit to relatives and friends.

Miss Mattie W. Rountree, of the Orphan Asylum, leaves this afternoon to attend the Teachers' Assembly at Morehead City.

Mr. John G. Hayes, representing Mr. Silas Shelburne, tobacco commission merchant of Richmond, Va., is on the market today.

Mr. W. H. Gregory was in the city yesterday afternoon, and tells us that the Buffalo Lithia Springs hotel is being rapidly filled with visitors.

The Richmond Tobacco Market.

Correspondence of THE DAY.

RICHMOND, VA., June 17.—With rather smaller sales this week, prices have been strong on all manufacturing stock. The late rains have made a good season on plants as well as for tobacco hanging, so that our receipts will soon be larger. Some fine tobacco (new) was opened this week, and prices seem very high, to which the trade will have to become more accustomed. Sun-cured tobacco is selling at 11 to 12 cents average, and it is said by experts that this fine leaf can be made bright by flue-curing and bring more than double present values. Old tobaccos are still in strong demand, and market quite high for all desirable stock.

Messrs. John M. Taylor and T. B. Scott, with others, have been heard from in a letter to the Dispatch published today. W. E. D.

Eaves Downed.

A Washington dispatch of yesterday says: The Senate spent one hour in executive session this afternoon, during which time two nominees of President Harrison, who were appointed more than a year ago, were rejected. They were John B. Eaves, collector of internal revenue for the fifth district of North Carolina, and H. Harvey Schock, postmaster at Selin's Grove, Pennsylvania.

Cash for Ice.

It is impossible for us to keep ice accounts. The amounts are small and require too much time to keep the books.

After this date purchasers must pay cash or buy tickets. The tickets are $1.00, $2.00 or $3.00. Any portion of the ticket not punched will be redeemed with CASH any time before Oct. 1st, 1890, at

J. G. HALL'S.

Double price will be charged for ice after the electric lights are turned on.

To Manufacturers.

Parties wishing to locate Factories on the lands of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company can learn something to their advantage by communicating with H. C. HERNDON, President Bank of Oxford.

WHAT WILL THE AUTOCRAT OF THE HOUSE DO WITH IT?

Senate Silver Bill Reaches the House of Representatives and is Referred to Committee.

Vermont Convention.

[By telegraph to THE DAY.]

MONTPELIER, VT., June 19.—The Republicans are holding State Convention here today. Every indication points to Page as the nominee for Governor.

Sketch of the Senate Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—A full meeting of the Senate finance committee was held today, at which Chairman Morrill was authorized by a strict vote to report the tariff bill with amendments. A member of the committee says that with the exception of the wool and agricultural schedules the bill is almost identically the same as the bill the Senate finance committee reported in 1888. No formal report accompanied the bill; nor is it certain that any will be prepared. A statement will be reported to the Senate as soon as it can be prepared showing the effect of the provisions of the bill upon the receipts of customs, as compared with receipts under the present law and those estimated under the House bill. It is the understanding that the debate on the bill will not begin until July 1. No bounty is to be given for less than 5,000 pounds of sugar annually. The Senate finance committee struck out all changes made by the House bill in the internal revenue regulations respecting the tax on tobacco, manufacturing of vinegar from alcohol vapor, and fructification of wines, leaving the law as it stands at present.

When the Louisiana House of Representatives met yesterday the Speaker read a proposition from Benj. Newgass, London, England, offering a million and a quarter dollars yearly for same lottery priviledges applied for by John A. Morris with additional tender of security for payment of amount annually to the State.

Items of Interest About North Carolina Culled from Exchanges.

The first session of the Agricultural and Mechanical College closed yesterday.

The Republican Convention for the Fifth Congressional District will be held at Greensboro July 23.

The State Board of Agriculture has decided to send Secretary Bruner of the board to London to take charge of the North Carolina exhibit at the London Exhibit of Minerals.

It is denied by the Durham papers that Prof. Chas. D. McIver will deliver an address at the Press Convention July 25 on Female Education. They say they do not know how such a report got out.

Last night, at the M. E. Church, South, in Henderson, Mr. Louis D. Stainback was united in marriage to Miss Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barnard, Rev. J. T. Gibbs, of Fayetteville, officiating.

Greensboro claims a population of 7,000; Raleigh, 16,000; Wilmington, 25,000; Charlotte, 13,000; High Point, 3,000; Concord, 3,500; Reidsville, 3,500; Asheville, 10,000; Durham, 8,000; Fayetteville, 5,000; New Bern, 8,000; and Winston-Salem, 14,000.

During a severe storm in Durham Tuesday night the Sun says that lightning struck the stable of Mr. Sid Christian, on Roxboro street, killing a very fine horse instantly and setting the stable afire. The fire department turned out and succeeded in saving a portion of the building.

A peculiar disease, with which a man is afflicted at the poorhouse at New Bern, has caused considerable alarm and concern there. The appearance of the man indicates that he has leprosy, and he has been temporarily sent out of town while an examination by the county physician is in progress.

A telegram to the News-Observer from Asheville, dated June 18, says: There was a terrible wreck of a freight train on the Asheville and Spartanburg branch of the Western North Carolina railroad at Melrose Station last night. Four men are reported killed and three badly wounded. Cannot get particulars yet.

In Asheville people build a few miles of railroad for their private use. We see that Mr. Richmond Pearson, following Vanderbilt's example, has just contracted for the building of a branch of the Richmond and Danville Railroad from Asheville to his property in the suburbs of the city, where "Lake Majorie" is situated.

The N. Y. Christian Index says: The Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., was born in Cleveland county, North Carolina, January 11, 1864. His father, Rev. Thomas Dixon, Sr., has been for more than half a century a faithful and useful Baptist preacher. His brothers, A. C., in Baltimore, and Frank, in Oakland, are preachers of rare ability and usefulness. Thomas entered Wake Forest College, North Carolina, in September, 1879.

IN A GENERAL WAY

Important Happenings in Other States and Countries.

A Boston Post writer tells of a friend who, on returning from the West, visited the cemetery where his mother was buried. "I couldn't find the lot," he told me, "although I knew just where it was; or, if I did find it, some one seemed to have jumped the claim; and when I got home I asked my sister about it, and who it was that had put a big monument there, with the name 'Theodosia' on it. 'Why, that was the place,' said my sister. 'But who is Theodosia?' I asked. 'That is mother,' said she; 'I know it wasn't her name, but it is a pretty one and I thought she would like it. And, did you see John? I thought mother looked lonesome in that big lot, and I had a baby headstone set up near the corner with 'Jennie' cut on it. You don't mind, do you?'"
