NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

Usual prayer meeting at the Methodist church tonight.

The Democratic primaries for Granville county will be held tomorrow.

A heavy shower today, and one that came in good time for the growing crops.

One half of the year 1890 has joined the rolling tide which sweeps backward into eternity.

The electric light may not be turned on as early as usual tonight, because of an accident to the boiler at the plant.

An entertainment to raise funds to complete the new colored Baptist church was given at the Opera House last night.

We understand that some quiet and effective work is being done towards getting a storage tobacco warehouse for our city.

The installation of newly-elected officers takes place at the regular meeting tonight of Oxford Lodge, No. 103, I. O. O. F.

Travelling men say that Oxford and Oxford's boom is talked of everywhere in the State, and this is today the best advertised town in North Carolina.

Mr. A. Crews was so unfortunate as to have a horse and a mule die yesterday. This is a positive contradiction of the old story that a mule never dies.

There are quite a number of trees in town that have dead limbs on them.
They should be properly trimmed, or some serious accident may befall some one.

The electric lights were turned off last night at one o'clock, just as the curtain dropped after the performance at the Opera House. The audience had to grope their way out in darkness.

The Improvement Company is putting in good work in the way of getting manufactories for Oxford. At the gait they are going now, in less than six months a thousand or more white hands will be employed in factories on their property.

A good-sized limb from near the top of a tree in front of Messrs. J. S.
& R. L. Hunt's store, broke short off from some unknown cause and fell to the side-walk below, this morning.
Mr. L. Thomas was walking beneath the tree at the time, and narrowly escaped being struck on the head.

Assessing the O. & C. R. R.
Mr. D. C. Gunter, representing the Durham county commissioners, met Mr. T. D. Waller, chairman of the Granville board, in Oxford yesterday for the purpose of assessing the Oxford & Clarksville Railroad for taxation.
Mr. F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, was present as attorney for the railroad company. The road bed and track was assessed at $4,500 per mile.

A few days ago the Oxford & Henderson railroad was assessed at $3,500 per mile.

Police Report for June.

The following arrests were made by the Oxford policemen during the month of June: For assault, 5; cursing on the streets, 6; drunk and disorderly, 5; trespass, 4; f. and a., 1; larceny, 2; peddling meat without license 1; affray, 3; indecent language, 1; total, 28 arrests. Fines imposed, $99.00.

Mortuary report for June: one white adult; one colored baby.

Will Not Lecture.

We are requested to state that Dr.
B. F. Dixon is troubled with a sore throat, and for this reason will not be able to deliver the promised lecture at the Opera House on next Friday, July 4th.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Mr. W. A. Davis returned to the city this morning.

Dr. J. M. Emmitt is home from Buffalo Springs, Va.

Rev. W. L. Cuningham returned from Chapel Hill last night.

Mr. Irvin Watkins, of Richmond, Va., was in Oxford yesterday.

Dr. B. F. Dixon left this morning on the three o'clock train south.

Capt. R. V. Minor and Mr. W. S.
Griffith were at Stems this morning.

Mr. W. D. Lynch was a passenger on the Henderson train this morning.

Rev. J. H. Hall, who has been at Chapel Hill for several days, came home yesterday.

Mr. J. W. Markham is in the city today. Glad to see him recovered from his long illness.

Mrs. A. E. Jackson and daughter, Miss Mamie, left yesterday for Virginia to spend the summer.

Mr. J. F. Woody, of Roxboro, deputy revenue collector for this county and Person, is in the city.

Miss Carrie Powell, of Richmond, Va., arrived in the city this morning, and is the guest of Mrs. A. J. Feild.

Miss Carrie Gregory, who has been teaching school in South Carolina, returned home last night for the vacation.

Maj. and Mrs. T. B. Venable went to Buffalo Springs, Va., this morning, to spend some weeks at this popular health resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Oppenheimer, of Scotland Neck, N. C., arrived here yesterday afternoon on a visit to their son, Mr. M. Oppenheimer.

Dr. J. E. Wyche came home this morning from Wilmington, where he was honored with the first vice-presidency of the State Dental Association.

Mrs. J. W. Hays went to Greensboro yesterday afternoon, and will attend the funeral of Dr. T. H. Jones, president of the Greensboro Female College, who died yesterday after a short illness.

Miss Nannie Daniels, who has filled most successfully a position in the millinery department of Messrs. A. Landis & Sons' store, took her departure this morning for Baltimore, to the regret of her many friends in the city.

Services Every Night.

Elder J. A. Hardin, the Kentucky evangelist of the Disciples church, preached at the Presbyterian church last night. He will hold services the remainder of the week every night at the Opera House, with the exception of Saturday night.

Mr. Hardin is attracting large congregations, and is awakening no incon-iderable religious interest in the community.

Didn't Meet Last Night.

Owing to some misunderstanding the janitor went off last night with the keys of the courthouse in his pocket, and the meeting relative to the Wetmore Shoe Factory was not held. It is called again for this afternoon, and it is to be hoped that there will be no trouble in placing the necessary stock to insure this valuable enterprise for Oxford.

To Manufacturers.

Parties wishing to locate factories on the lands of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company can learn something to their advantage by communicating with
H. C. HERNDON,
President Bank of Oxford.

Ladies Phaetons, Surries and Jump seats.
Carload of wagons, one and two horse, heavy and light. Prices to suit the closest buyers.
Come in and see them.

OWEN, BARBOUR & SMITH.

Parties wishing to purchase Iron Safes will save money by calling on J. F. Edwards. He is agent for Macneal & Ur-band's Iron Safes.

CORRESPONDENCE.

NEWSY LETTER AND DISCUSSION OF A LIVELY SUBJECT.

How Stovall is Growing in Population--A Kick Against the Kickers Against the Bicycle.

[Correspondence of THE DAY.]

Mrs. Flem Hart gave birth to three male children last night.

Dr. J. B. Williams was in the village yesterday.

Mr. J. T. C. Norwood with a party of gentlemen from Henderson caught nearly a bushel of fish in Island Creek Saturday.

The voice of the first Katy-did of the season was heard last Wednesday night, which is said by old weather prophets to mean frost Sept. 25th.

Crops of tobacco and corn are well advanced and look most promising.

The many friends of Hon. A. H. A.
Williams are anxiously expecting the usual summer sojourn of his interesting and exceedingly clever family at their pleasant country homestead near here.

The game of marbles is quite fashionable on our streets. x x x.

Bicycle Riding.

[Correspondent of THE DAY.]

EDITOR OF THE DAY.—Since the arrival of two bicycles in Oxford several horses have been scared by them, and has caused a feeling of prejudice to arise. Some of our worthies are trying to influence the commissioners to prohibit the use of a bicycle within the town limits.

It does seem odd and strange that while bicycle riding is not interfered with in any town or city in the Union, that some people should want to stop it here. The sight is strange to the horses now, but they will soon become accustomed to it; just like those of our citizens who, seeing a "wheel" for the first time, stand with open mouth and exclaim that they had "seen pictures of them thar things before," will get used to it after a while.

There are more bicycles in use in Washington and other large cities than there are men, women and children in our town and township. When baby carriages were first introduced, number of horses took fright at them and ranaway. The little carriages are passed by unnoticed now, and it will be the same with bicycles very soon. L. M. K.

FRESH FROM THE PRESS.

State and General Items of Interest from Today's Papers.

The latest census estimates place the population of Chicago at 1,085,000 and Philadelphia not quite 1,050,000.

The Durham Sun says: The Durham township primary meeting to elect delegates to the county convention, was held in the court house Saturday afternoon. J. S. Lockhart was made chairman and Hugh Markham secretary. There was no nomination for delegates, but a motion was made by W. W. Fuller to proceed to the election of ten and they proceeded. The result was that W. S. Newton, J. R.
Blacknall, J. S. Carr, W. W. Fuller, E. J. Parrish, James E. Lyon, R. B.
Boone, S. R. Carrington, John W.
Pope, D. C. Gunter, were elected.
We understand this entire delegation is favorable to the nomination of Winston.

The Raleigh Chronicle says it "sincerely grieves to record the death of Rev. Turner Myrick Jones, A. M., D. D., at his residence in Greensboro yesterday. He had been for nearly forty years a prominent figure in the educational life of the State. He was born Franklin county, June 4th, 1819. He graduated at Randolph Macon College, and afterwards taught in both Warren and Franklin counties. In 1852 he was licensed as a local preacher of the Methodist Episcopal church, and in 1853 he was elected Professor of Mathematics and Ancient Languages in Greensboro Female College. In 1854 he was elected President of that far-famed institution."

Death of Col. Henry Eaton Coleman.

News-Observer.
SOUTH BOSTON, VA., June 28.— Died, at his home, in Halifax county, on June 25, 1890, in the 54th year of his age, Col. Henry Eaton Coleman.

At his county's call he carried from Granville Co., N. C., at that time his home, a company into the service of the Confederate States army. In 1862 he was appointed to staff position, serving as an aid to Gen. Iverson at the battle of Gettysburg. In the following winter he was appointed Colonel of the 12th North Carolina infantry and was desperately wounded in the battle of Spottsylvania, having been shot in the head.

He received a wound in that engagement which disabled him from further duty and rendered him a cripple for life. He struggled on and suffered until three weeks ago, when he left the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad office and sought his wife's home only to take his bed, and on last Wednesday, the anniversary of the fight at Staunton River bridge, and in the same room where for months in 1864 he hung between life and death with his wounded knee, his weary life ended and that Yankee bullet finished its cruel work.
Brave spirit, chivalrous son of the South, the rest for which he so long yearned has come at last. God rest his spirit!
