NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

A number of Oxonians went out seining yesterday, and report good luck.

Mr. J. F. Edwards just shipped two solid carloads of tobacco flues to South Carolina.

The accident to the boiler could not be repaired in time, and Oxford was without electric lights last night.

The tree, from which a limb fell yesterday in dangerous proximity to a pedestrian's head, has been cut down.

The installation of officers of Oxford Lodge, No. 103, I. O. O. F., did not take place last night, and was postponed to next week.

Messrs. Thomas & Cozart, grocers on College street, have concluded to discontinue business, and have about closed out their entire stock of goods.

The secretary of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Co. reports good steady sales of stock.
Gratifying progress is being made towards getting valuable manufacturing enterprises located on the company's property.

The Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company is worth more to Oxford than any business movement ever started here. It is advancing every interest of our town, and will make this a city of which North Carolina will be proud.

The R. & D. R. R. Co. have authorized sale of round-trip tickets from Oxford to Greensboro for the benefit of parties attending Democratic Judicial and Congressional Conventions at that point. Tickets on sale July 6th to 8th inclusive, good to return July 11th. Fare for round-trip, $4.55.

The Odd Fellows of Durham will give a big barbecue next Friday, July 4th, and the members of Oxford Lodge, No. 103, are invited to be there, and partake of the feast and participate in the fun. It is more than probable that a good number from our city will respond to the hospitable invitation of our neighbors.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Mr. C. E. Wall, of Wilmington, is in the city.

Mrs. J. C. Cooper is improving, we are pleased to learn.

Capt. Chas. G. Elliott, of Norfolk, Va., who had been spending a few days in Oxford, left yesterday.

Miss Carrie Powell, of Richmond, Va., the guest of Mrs. A. J. Feild, took her departure this morning.

Capt and Mrs. C. P. Powell spent yesterday in Raleigh, and returned last night with their daughter, Miss Annie, who had been at the Teachers' Assembly at Morehead City.

Mr. A. D. Bryant, of Murray county, Tenn., was in the city yesterday.
He is a native of Granville, and was raised in two miles of Oxford. He had been absent from the county fifty-three years.

diers Home.

THREE TRAINS DAILY.

New, Quick Freight Arrangements Between Baltimore and Oxford.

Beginning yesterday the passenger train on the Oxford & Henderson road makes three trips every day, including Sunday, as follows:

Leave Oxford 5:45, a. m., 11, a. m.; and 7:40, p. m.

Arrive at Oxford 10, a. m., 3:15, p. m., and 4:35, p. m.

The Richmond & Danville road is now running a special air-break freight car, attached to regular passenger train, between West Point, Oxford and Henderson, and between West Point, Durham and Raleigh.
Freight leaving Oxford at 10:46 in the morning reaches Baltimore at eight the next morning, and freight leaving Baltimore on the evening boat arrives here the following afternoon. In fact freight by the new arrangement is put through equally as fast as mail. No additional freight charges.

Our people thoroughly appreciate this quick service, and vote the R. & D. people hustlers. If they will only give us a first-class new passenger depot now, "all will be forgiven."

Another Hay Ride.

Another party of Oxford ladies and gentlemen went on a "Hay Ride" last night. They rode out to Col. R. O.
Gregory's place, several miles from town, and the usual fun of such an occasion was augmented by good music and a delicious repast.

The following composed the party:
Miss Mary Belle, Nannie, Mary Eliza, Lucy and Effie Gregory, Miss Jessie Lewellin, Misses Minnie, Nora and Nannie King, Miss Hallie Landis, Mrs. N. A. Gregory; Messrs. F. J.
Crews, T. A. Cozart, O. S. Smoot, C.
H. Easton, J. T. Thomas, A. S. Davis, J. Y. Paris, H. L. Davis, F. A. Cheek, F. B. Hays.

Don't Go, Doctor!

We understand that a strong effort is being made to induce Dr. B. F.
Dixon to accept the presidency of the Greensboro Female College.

The people of Oxford with one accord want Dr. Dixon to remain here, and hope he will decline all offers. He is peculiarly fitted for his present duties, and we do not know of any man who can take his place. He is doing a great and noble work.

Doctor, stand by the three hundred little loving fatherless children. They need you.

Base Ball at Raleigh.

Manager A. Strause has arranged for a game of base ball between the Oxford and Raleigh clubs, to be played at Raleigh next Friday afternoon. Our city will be represented by a strong nine, and if they do not return with victory perched on their banner, base ball enthusiasts here will be greatly disappointed.

Dr. J. E. Wyche.

This gentleman, who stands deservedly high in the dental profession and enjoys the fullest confidence of our people, has a new car in THE DAY, to which attention is directed. He is prepared to administer gas in the extraction of teeth.

Cash for Ice.

It is impossible for us to keep ice accounts.
The amounts are small and require too much time to keep the books.

After this date purchasers must pay cash or buy tickets. The tickets are $1.00, $2.00 or $3.00. Any portion of the ticket not punched will be redeemed with CASH any time before Oct. 1st, 1890, at

J. G. HALL'S.

Double price will be charged for ice after the electric lights are turned on.

Oxford township, to serve for the next two years. The following were chosen:
A. A. Hicks, A. S. Grandy, W.
A. Davis, B. I. Breedlove and J. B.
Parham.

Adjourned.

Sam Jones at Norfolk.

The Danville Register says that it received semi-official information Wednesday night that trouble was brewing in the city by the sea.

The story went that there was a strong opposition to Mr. Jones; that the behavior of a large part of the large congregation which assembled in the tabernacle was boisterous and disgraceful; that men paraded the streets in front of the tabernacle singing an improvised song, the chorus of which was, "Hang Sam Jones on a Crab Apple Tree," that street car drivers were loud and boisterous in announcing the arrival of the cars at the tabernacle, calling out, "Sam Jones' mill—one hour for gospel refreshments," etc., etc.; that Mr. Jones, though bravely holding his own, had found it necessary to call the city civil authorities to suppress the general disorder; that the evangelist had announced Norfolk as being next to New Orleans, the wickedest hole on the American continent.

The Register telegraphed to Norfolk for a full report of these things, but the persons telegraphed to were ominously silent, and the presumption was that they were ashamed for reports to go out through the newspapers.

To Manufacturers.

Parties wishing to locate factories on the lands of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company can learn something to their advantage by communicating with
H. C. HERNDON,
President Bank of Oxford.

FRESH FROM THE PRESS.

State and General Items of Interest from Today's Papers.

The board of trustees of the Agricultural and Mechanical College at Raleigh have decided to establish a cannery for the purpose of supplying the college with its own canned goods.

A special from Morehead City to the News-Observer says Governor Fowle announced that he would appoint the nominee of the Judicial Convention of the Eleventh District as the successor of Judge Shipp.

T. K. Bruner, secretary of the State Agricultural Department, was notified by the secretary of the London Exposition that by mistake no space had been reserved for North Carolina's exhibit.
This is a great disappointment, as North Carolina had prepared an extensive exhibit to be sent to London for the occasion.

The Charlotte Chronicle says that Dr. Paul B. Barringer, who was elected to the chair of physiology in the medical school of the University of Virginia last year for one year, was on Monday permanently elected to the chair. As there were other applicants for the position, and considering that the Doctor is not a party Democrat, the election is a high compliment to his ability, as well as a compliment to the liberality of opinion of the management of the University.

A Chicago, Ill., telegram, July 1, says: There has been a steady increase in the death rate of the city ever since last Wednesday. Fifty-one deaths from sun stroke were reported up to 4 o'clock yesterday. This number probably represents two-thirds of the fatal cases for Sunday and yesterday. Among the children the mortality has been getting higher and higher until yesterday when the figures appalled the health officers. Nearly two hundred deaths from all causes were reported during the day.

A Winston special to the State Chronicle says that news reached there yesterday of a drunken row near Pilot Mountain, Surry county, Saturday. A drunken crowd congregated at a whiskey shop and began quarrelling. A young man named Hoytt cut another man named Edmundson all to pieces and while doing so Hoytt's father arrived. Another man named Brunner, who was taking up for Edmundson, shot the father down killing him instantly. Hoytt was hauled home drunk by the side of his dead father. Several other parties were hurt.

A Dunbar, Pa., telegram of yesterday says: The exploring party were driven back by smoke after advancing ten feet in the Hill Farm mine. Two dinner baskets and coats were found by the party. It is certain now that the mine is full, and has been full of smoke and deadly black damp. There seems to be no doubt that the entombed miners are all dead, and it is now a question whether their bodies can be recovered. A car load of coffins arrived this morning. The question is, when will they be used? The thirty-one men in the slope were undoubtedly burned to death. The work of rescue has been abandoned.
