NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

The Oxford Base Ball Club returned home this morning, jubilant over their victory.

The post office and banks were closed yesterday on account of national holiday.

Mr. J. A. Hardin holds services at the Opera House tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock.

Oxford had a good-sized crowd at the celebration of the Fourth at Raleigh yesterday.

The party who removed a copy of Shakespeare's Works from Furman & Hays' store is requested to return same.

It appears that we were in error in stating the other day that Sam Owens was put in jail. It seems that he owed the town some cost in a case, which his father refused to pay. Sam was taken to the mayor's office, and released on his own promise to liquidate the debt.

The Fourth in Oxford was very quiet. In fact it was hardly observed at all, except by the base ball club going to Raleigh, and quite a number of parties going on fishing excursions.
The men went seining, generally, while one party, composed exclusively of ladies, with T. M. Washington as driver and sort of a male chaperon, went angling. The following comprised the party: Mrs. Dr. J. M. Emmitt, Mrs. Capt. W. A. Bobbitt, Misses Fannie and Nena Cozart, Bettie Hart and Ella Thomas.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Currin are spending a few days in the country.

Mr. S. G. White went off this morning for Harper's Home, Va., to spend a few weeks.

Mr. J. M. Taylor arrived in the city this afternoon, just back from his European trip.

Miss Mary Gray Clifton and Mrs.
Isabella Smith, of Louisburg, are visiting Mr. R. T. Smith.

Miss Lizzie Overbey, who has been visiting Mrs. W. S. Overbey, returned ing.

county, are the guests of her son, Mr.
A. J. Feild.

Springs, Va., returned home this morning. He has rented the Kivett dwelling on Raleigh street, and will remove his family here in a few days.

Mr. Walter E. Bordon, who is a number one business man and a hustler, has been employed by the Oxford

BASE BALL AT RALEIGH.

Oxford Club Wins a Finely-Played Game at the State Capital.

One of the interesting features of the Fourth of July celebration at Raleigh yesterday was a game of base ball between the club of that city and the Oxford nine.

From the very beginning it was evident that the Oxford boys had everything their own way. Our players were young in years and small in stature compared with the heavy men on the other side, but they were vastly the superiors on the ball field.

West pitched a beautiful game, sticking out some fifteen men in eight innings. Only a few scattering hits were made off him. He was especially affective at critical times, retiring the Raleighites several times on strikes with the bases full. He was taken sick early in the game, but held out bravely until the last inning, when Lanier went in the box and did good work. Kane, at short, was in fine form and added fresh laurels to his wreath. His base running was magnificent, especially a fifteen feet slide to the third base. Lanier sustained his reputation as a catcher and batter, and was invaluable to the team.
Overton was strong at the second base and played in his usual clever style.
Dunn, one of the very best fielders in the State, added strength to the nine.
Turner held first base O. K., and paralized the crowd with a long, clean hit over the left-field fence, making a home run and bringing in two other men. Meanly, Devin and Jones did very nicely.

On the Raleigh side, Dunn, Mills, Holdin and Dixon carried off the honors. The two latter formed the battery, and a good battery it was; but the hitters they had to contend against were too much for them.

For half the game it looked like a shut out for the Raleigh nine. On the fifth inning they got in a run, and the crowd were insanely happy and cheered with wild enthusiasm, just like Oxford did in its callow days when a run was made off the Norfolk professional team.

A number of the Raleigh spectators acted disgracefully, kicking outrageously against the umpire and trying by every unfair means to annoy the Oxford players. Mr. O. S. Smoot umpired as fair as a man could umpire, as every disinterested person present agreed, and to placate the howling mob really gave Raleigh more than it was entitled to.

The score was 10 to 4 in Oxford's favor.

The Richmond Tobacco Market.

[Correspondent of THE DAY.]

RICHMOND, VA., July 4.—Sale have been mainly unsuccess at auction. Our average for June was $12 on this class, with $77 highest price for dark wrappers.

New fillers are going more slowly, and speculators have bought more than manufacturers so far. Good bright wrappers are steady and firm, with one heavy day's sale of 192 packages reported, not traceable, however, by your correspondent.

Receipts and shipments for June are nearly balanced, whereas there ought to be heavier receipts by two thousand hogsheads in comparison with usual years.

The market is firm and without special feature, excepting sales of dark shipping tobacco.

Mr. John M. Taylor is due in New York today or tomorrow, to resume business and these reports. W. E. D.
