NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

The rain today is a welcome visitor. A fair break of tobacco was sold at the warehouses today.

The news of Brower's nomination excited no surprise here. It was not unexpected. The Democrats are well pleased.

A knight of the gripsack who travels extensively says that Winston and Oxford are the two best advertised towns in North Carolina.

The Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company received yesterday afternoon from a Virginia agent orders for sixty shares of stock.

The Democratic convention for the nomination of county officers will be held in Oxford August 8th. The primaries occur the Saturday previous, August 2.

We notice several small dwelling houses going up. All right as a starter, and it is to be hoped that many more will be built. Large houses are also needed. Now is the time to do this building, for there will be a rush of new comers to Oxford this autumn.

The Patriot makes a mistake in saying that W. T. Riggs, secretary of the Republican Congressional Convention, was from this county. The man referred to who had something to say and would say it was W. H. Crews, Jr., of Oxford. He made a speech here only a few days ago denouncing Brower in vigorous language.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

P. J. Collins, of Philadelphia, is in the city.

John Bullock, of Stovall, is in the city today.

Miss Sue Hall returned to the city this morning.

A. Strause went with F. S. Meyers to Henderson this morning.

Frank B. Hays returned to Oxford this morning from a visit to New York.

J. A. Webb returned yesterday from a pleasant trip of more than a week to Cincinnati and other Western cities.

C. M. Hawkins, of Raleigh, Vice-President of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Co., is in the city.

Col. T. C. Fuller, of Raleigh, came in on the morning train, and was warmly welcomed by the members of the local bar.

J. B. Roney, of High Point, is in town today making arrangements for the removal of the Modern Barn Co. to our city.

Mrs. Henry Crenshaw and child, of Louisburg, who were guests of Mrs. J. Johnson, returned to their home at Louisburg today.

Maj. John M. Crenshaw and wife, of Wake county, N. C., arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, and are the guests of L. Thomas.

Fred. S. Myers, of Myers Bros. & Co., Richmond, spent last night in the city. His plug tobacco factory is one of the largest in the Old Dominion.

Misses Martha and Sallie Wyche returned to Henderson yesterday afternoon, after two weeks of delightful stay at the Irwin Place with their brother, Dr. J. E. Wyche.

In its account of the Farmers' Alliance Grand Rally at Greensboro yesterday the Patriot says: "Conspicuous on the speakers' stand was the pleasant countenance of the next Congressman from this District, Capt. Baldy Williams, the gallant nominee of the Democratic party and a member of the Granville Alliance."

Buy the Excelsior Cook Stove. The best in use, at J. F. Edwards'.

IN THE GALLOW'S SHADOW.

John Young on Trial Charged With the Murder of Dick Landis.

The time of Granville Superior Court since yesterday morning has been occupied in the trial of the negro man, John Young, charged with the murder of Dick Landis.

The taking of the testimony was concluded today just before court adjourned for dinner, and this afternoon the lawyers are speaking. The defendant's counsel are Graham & Winston, and Solicitor Strayhorn appears for the State. It is probable the case will be given to the jury this evening.

Much interest is manifested in the trial, and the court house has been crowded since the hearing commenced.

Two of Brower's Votes.

Hon. John M. Brower, present representative from this district and Republican nominee for re-election, cast two votes during this session of Congress to be remembered and held against him. One was in the interest of the Eastern gold bugs to keep the people in poverty, and the other at the dictation of Quay and Reed to oppress and harass the South and stir up strife between the races.

Mr. Brower voted against
The free coinage of silver.
Mr. Brower voted for
The federal election bill.

The New Presbyterian Church.

The plan and specifications for the new Presbyterian Church edifice have been received by the building committee, and put in the hands of contractors for bids. The plan is a stylish and handsome one, and is the work of Dorsey & Co., New York architects. The structure, including the lecture room, will have a frontage of eighty feet and an elevation of thirty-five feet. Its seating capacity will be between six and seven hundred. It will be built of brick and stone.

Bicycle Riding.

Fred N. Day and Tom Smith rode to Henderson on their bicycles yesterday afternoon, making the twelve miles in two hours and thirty-five minutes. They have safety wheels. They traveled the short road, which is rough and hilly.

It is probably a party of six on bicycles will visit Henderson in a few days.

Oxford Township Primary.

The Democrats of Oxford Township will meet at the courthouse in Oxford, on Saturday, August 2nd, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention which will be held in Oxford on Friday, August 8th, 1890.

Oxford township is entitled to twenty delegates as follows: North Oxford, 7; South Oxford, 9; Salem Precinct, 4.

It is desired that all Democrats in the township attend this meeting.

A. A. Hicks, Chairman
Township Executive Committee.
July 18th, 1890.

The Last Call.

All delinquent license tax payers who do not pay on or before next Monday, July 28, will be reported to the Mayor.
J. A. RENN, Chief of Police.

BROWER THE MAN.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION FOR THIS DISTRICT.

Held at Greensboro Yesterday--Hon. J. M. Brower Nominated on First Ballot by a Close Margin.

We take the following account of the Republican Congressional Convention for the Fifth District held at Greensboro yesterday, from the Patriot of that city: At 12 o'clock today Deputy Sheriff Peyton. H. Bilbro, chairman of the Republican Congressional executive committee, called the Republican convention to order. There had been an immense amount of caucusing and wire-pulling all the morning and there were whispers of "treachery" and "selling out" and one who was behind the scenes said that Brower's strength fell off, Amis also lost and Settle gained.

After calling the convention to order, chairman Bilbro announced that he would adjourn the convention until two o'clock. This arbitrary and rather unusual proceeding took the breath out of some of the workers, but it was no use to kick and they gave in, some alleging that Brower wanted a chance to buy back his recreant delegates, others alleging that Settle and Amis wanted another chance to buy off a few more.

At two o'clock, the convention re-assembled and was called to order again by Deputy Sheriff Bilbro, who, without regard to the kicking against it, appointed a committee on credentials. Charlie Reynolds kicked, but it did no good. Mr. Bilbro developed remarkable ability as a presiding officer, as he showed how well a Brower man can run a convention without rules or secretary.

Jessie Hoskins could't hold in any longer and he spoke at length. He, among other wise and statesmanlike utterances, evolved from his mighty intellect the assertion that Baldy Williams was a railroad monopolist and that Cleveland's administration was no administration at all, only, so to speak, an interregnum between Arthur and Harrison.

When the sage got through, one Crews, colored, found that he too was loaded, but Charlie Reynolds kicked, and Crews took a back seat. Directly he felt that he couldn't stand it any longer and again mounted the stand to get off that speech, and then the row began. Sharp words were exchanged between the chairman and a delegate and the howl continued. Finally chairman Bilbro ordered the negro off the stand and he sat down.

Crews again mounted the stand and tried to get off his speech, but he was set down on by the chairman.

An immense wrangle then ensued and there were threats of quitting the party and kicking it to pieces.

Then A. S. Holt got off his speech and being fruitful in illustration he talked about "cat-ball," "marbles," and "strong butter and cheese," without troubling himself much about appropriateness or application.

Again Crews mounted the stand and this time he succeeded in shooting off his mouth.

The committee on credentials and permanent organization then reported in favor of Dr. John Smith, of Rockingham county, as permanent chairman, and W. T. Riggs, of Granville, and O. A. Starbuck, of Guilford, secretaries.

Nominations were declared in order and the fun began again.

Lineberry, of Forsyth, placed in nomination the name of Rufe Amis, of Granville, and in his speech stated that "if Brower was nominated, Forsyth would give Baldy Williams 450 majority."

L. J. Norman, of Surry, nominated the name J. M. Brower.

Josh Morrow, of Guilford, was nominated by A. A. Hinton, but withdrew his name.

Brower's nomination, as well as that of Amis, was seconded by negroes. A ballot was had and it resulted in the nomination of Brower by the following vote: Brower 12½, Amis 7½ and Adams 2.

On motion of a negro from somewhere, Brower's nomination was made unanimous.

Brower was called for and spoke for sometime. He said the reason why he appointed Webb census supervisor was because he was the only applicant. He skipped over the reasons why he didn't appoint negroes to office. He made the mob howl when he told how he would carry their banner to victory.

FRESH FROM THE PRESS.

State and General Items of Interest from Today's Papers.

At the Second Judicial District Convention at Weldon yesterday Henry R. Bryan, of Craven county, was nominated to succeed Judge Philips.

Gov. Fowle has appointed Lieutenant Colonel J. G. Martin, of Asheville, colonel of the Fourth regiment, to succeed J. T. Anthony, who tendered his resignation last week.

The Democratic Convention for the Third District met at Clinton yesterday. The twenty-eighth ballot last night stood: Green, 110; McClammy, 92; Aycock, 119; Grady, 20; Thompson, 5. Necessary to a choice, 169.

Senator Vance sent the following telegram to the president of the State Press Association, and it was read in the convention yesterday: "I desire through you to express my sincere thanks to the press of the State for their recent vindication of myself, and tender them my best wishes."

A damage suit for $10,000 was begun yesterday at Goldsboro by Kirby H. Smith, of that place, against Hon. Kemp P. Battle, President of the University, and Paul C. Cameron, one of the trustees. On the night of June 6th, of last year, while Smith was attending the commencement exercises at the University, some one disfigured the Caldwell monument in the college grounds by giving it a coat of red paint. Mr. Smith was arrested the next morning charged with the offense, being held in confinement until he was able to furnish bond. The case, he claims, has never been brought to trial as the real perpetrators of the dastardly act have since been found out, but no prosecution has been entered against them. He has employed a strong team of lawyers.
