NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

Another warm spell is with us.
 Rev. T. U. Faucette preached in the Presbyterian church last night.
 The well in front of J. G. Hall's drugstore is receiving a new cover.

There are some probabilities of an other large female school being started in Oxford in the near future.

Oxford was well and numerously represented at Mountain Creek and Geneva churches yesterday.

The city commissioners meet tonight at 8 o'clock to levy taxes for the year 1890-91. The rates, it is said, will be considerably reduced.

Dr. Emmit asks the members of the old opera house syndicate to meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at his office without fail. Business of importance.

There will be excursion rates to Oxford on all the railroads Oct. 8, 9 and 10, the days appointed for the stockholders of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company to draw lots.

The Oxford & Clarksville R. R. Co. has purchased of B. H. Cozart the lot on Mc Clannahan street known as the Kivett planing mills place. It is expected that the new passenger station will be located there.

Miss Bettie Jordan and Mrs. Powell announce in THE DAY that their school will open September 1. These ladies are most competent teachers, and THE DAY cordially commends their school to parents.

A telegram was received today by Coroner J. A. Renn asking him to come at once to N. Davis' farm, Dutchville township, to hold an inquest over a dead baby. Mr. Renn being unwell, Superior Court Clerk Lassiter appointed N. H. Whitfield special coroner in his stead.

The superintendency of the Oxford Orphan Asylum does not go a-begging.
 There are plenty aspirants for the position, and much interest is felt over State in the meeting of the board of directors August 26, when the successor of Dr. Dixon will be chosen.

Gentlemen wanting well fitting, well-made and durable clothing can be suited by patronizing W. H. Smith the merchant tailor. He is getting in his line of fall samples, of the most stylish and finest imported goods, and extends an invitation through THE DAY to those interested to give him a call. Mr. Smith is a number one tailor, and turns out work to suit the most fastidious male dresser.

Reports have been circulated by persons opposed to the improvement that $50,000 will not be enough to put in a system of waterworks for Oxford, but that the cost will reach from $100,000 to $200,000. A gentleman thoroughly posted on waterworks has been over the grounds and consulted civil engineers, and he places the cost at about $25,000, certainly not more than $30,000. An expert will furnish an estimate of the cost before the election.

The colored mass convention in the courthouse Saturday afternoon was a quiet affair. Delegates to the State convention, Aug. 26, were appointed and some mild talks were made.
 Someone endeavored to pour oil on the troubled waters, and advised the delegates not to do the Republican party any harm. Whether the g. o. p. will be hurt or not by this State convention remains to be seen, but it is called for the express purpose of protesting against the Harrison administration and cutting loose from the old ties of the white bosses.

M. Oppenheimer has just received his Fall samples of Wall Paper from twelve of the leading factories. Parties wishing work done will do well to look at his samples. His work speaks for itself.

OXFORD L. I. AND M. CO.

Subscription Books to be Closed Sept.
 16--Drawing October 8, 9 and 10.

The stock of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company will be on the market less than a month longer.
 The books will be closed Sept. 16, 1890.

This was determined upon at a meeting of the board of directors held Saturday afternoon.

It was also decided to have the drawing for lots to come off October, 8, 9 and 10, 1890.

Of the $150,000 stock of the company only a few thousand dollars worth remains to be sold. That that will go quickly is pretty sure. Those desiring to get in on the ground floor of the safest and best-paying investment in the South have no time to lose, and should buy without delay.

State Fair.

The State Fair in 1889 was as good as anybody could have wished. It had a crowd of new features; it was conducted with a great deal of system and order; so much so that there was not a single arrest during the whole week, and nothing was lost or stolen.
 It was meant to be a Fair for the people, and the people recognized it as such, and gave it a very liberal patronage.

The management proposes this year to make it superior in every way; to the last. It is to embrace new features of special interest to the farmer, the mechanic and the educator. At the same time, the means of proper amusement will not be neglected. Negotiations have already been completed for some of the best and most unique entertainments ever offered to the public, and the grounds will be crowded with shows and curiosities, equal-ling any that has ever been seen in the country. The low rate of fare makes it possible for everybody to come, and the abundant crops which the season now promises, will make it a matter of duty for our people to come together for a week's holiday and happiness.

The Richmond Tobacco Market.

Correspondent of THE DAY.

RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 16.-Our sales this week rather disappointed some sellers, being lighter than last week, with more inquiry for cutters and smokers and with larger sales of the latter than of wrappers. However, some leading and other buyers are absent, as usual at this season. The prices of all grades are firm, and holders feel sure stiff prices will rule.

The weather has been very warm, and the accounts of the growing crop are good to excellent in all parts of Virginia, North Carolina and West Virginia. The coarseness of the crop is the only apparent drawback at present. Cool nights thickens the crop.

A number of dealers and buyers from Durham, Henderson and Warrenton, N. C., were here this week during the dull spell at home.

Receipts moderate. Medium grade fillers sell well and are in good demand. The firmness of Western markets helps to stimulate Virginia and North Carolina grades. W. E. D.

 Manufacturing Co. have 3,000 cords of wood

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere as Gathered From Today's Exchanges.

The strike on the New York Central Railroad continues.
 Charlotte is to have a forty thousand dollar city hall.

Philadelphia has a plague of fleas, and there is a boom in flea-powders in that city.
 It is expected that the Governor's Mansion at Raleigh will be ready for occupancy next month.

Dunnell's Print Works, Pawtucket, R. I., was destroyed by fire Saturday.
 Loss from $150,000 to $200,000; fully insured.

The Democratic State Convention meets in Raleigh, August 20th. The usual reduced rates will be granted on all railroads.

There are ninety thousand members of the Farmers' Alliance in North Carolina. Every county has an organization except Dare.

The secret service is advised of the appearance in the South of a very serious counterfeit of $20.00 silver certificates. It is the act of Feb. 38, 1878, series 1880, check letter C., B.
 K. Bruce, register. The entire impression is very indistinct and has not the appearance of having undergone what is known as the washing process.
 It is a photographic production.

The negroes of this State have an emigration society which co-operates with the railroad agents from the South and West in furthering the exodus of the blacks. It is learned from the Rev. J. R. Ferebee, vice-president of the association, that next autumn and winter the movement will be fully as great as ever, but will be to the North and West.

It is announced that the old Dismal Swamp Canal is to be deepened and improved and reopened. The Norfolk and North Carolina Canal Company has made a deed to the Holland Trust Company for $1,000,- 000, which sum will be used for that purpose. The move will be a most important one for the commerce of Eastern Carolina, and will bring Elizabeth City into prominence as a commercial point.

Wake county Democratic convention Saturday nominated the following ticket: For Clerk of Superior Court, John W. Thompson. For Sheriff, M.
 W. Page. For Register of Deeds, Sidney M. Dunn. For Treasurer, L.
 O. Lougee. For Coroner, Dr. A. J.
 Buffaloe. For Surveyor, H. A. Chappell. For the Senate, A. C. Green.
 For the House of Representatives, A.
 D. Jones, W. B. Upehurch, Geo. W.
 Davis and A. M. Sorrell.

The New York Sun, of Sunday, publishes a special from Birmingham, Ala., which says: An attempt was made yesterday to assassinate L. H.
 Harrison, a negro who is editor and publisher of the Citizen, a weekly newspaper printed in the interest of his race. He was knocked on the head with a piece of iron by a negro and badly injured. He had given offense by publishing that women of a doubtful character were present at a swell society ball.

The census office Saturday practically computed the amount of the population of the United States. There are, however, about 1,200 enumeration districts returns from which have not been received. In consequence of this delay the announcement of the population of the several States cannot be made for some days yet. The count up to this time shows an aggregate of 62,695,955, and when the entire count is finished, the population of the country according to Porter's estimate will be about 64,000,000, an increase of about 30 per cent during the decade.
