NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

The atmosphere has a suggestion of ice in it today.

During the past few days several visiting capitalists were in Oxford with a view of making heavy investments here.

The Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company has an office fitted up in the Bank of Oxford building, on Herndon Avenue. W. E. Borden is in charge.

The Republicans of Granville county are meeting in the courthouse this afternoon to elect delegates to the State Convention which will be held at Raleigh on Sept. 26.

The Oxford Literary Society met last night at the residence of Dr. M. V. Lanier. There was a good attendance, and the exercises were of a highly interesting and instructive character. Four or five names were added to the membership roll.

J. C. Hundley, who knows more about waterworks than any other man in Oxford, wrote two excellent articles on the waterworks question. He presented strong arguments in favor of the improvement, strong enough to convince any man who is open to conviction.

Yesterday afternoon's mail brought orders for twelve hundred dollars worth of stock in the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Co. Good sales are being made daily, and it may be necessary to close the subscription books even earlier than the day announced.

The contract calls for the completion of the Farmers' Alliance Warehouse by September 15, and Messrs. Hundley Bros. & Co., the builders, say they will have it done in time. It is an immense building and a handsome one. The Alliance has now under consideration the erection of a big brick prizehouse on an adjoining lot.

Writing of the base ball game at Winston Wednesday, in which Winston defeated Charlotte, the Twin City Daily says: "But to Charley Jones belongs the honor of pitching a very fine game. Although the ball was wet he held the visitors' down to two hits. His most excellent capture of a hot ground ball in his left hand was the most graceful play in the game." Charley's admirers gave him some handsome presents, including a pair of fine trousers and a box of cigars. Babe Lanier, the finest amateur ball player in the State, caught Jones.

Seven Orphans Run Away.

The orphans at the Asylum are much attached to Dr. Dixon and his family, and part with them with the keenest sorrow.

Some of the children show a disposition to rebel, and because their beloved superintendent is to leave, they want to leave too. Several runaways have occurred in the past few weeks.

This morning seven boys disappeared and struck out for parts unknown at present. Search is being made for them, and they will very probably be found and brought back.

MANCHACA, Tex., Jan. 23, 1890.
Radam's Microbe Killer Co., Austin, Tex.:
After spending large sums of money for the treatment of my daughter, who had suffered intensely for five years with a tarrh of the head and throat, without any benefit whatever, I was induced to try your great discovery, the Microbe Killer, and I truthfully state that it has entirely cured her, after using one-half of the jug bought from you a few weeks ago. Your remedy is indeed the "greatest discovery of the age," curing as if by magic. I cheerfully recommend it to suffering humanity and advise all to use it.
Yours truly,
J. S. WILKINS.

WYNONA, Miss., Jan. 10, 1890.

Mr. Wallace O'Leary:

Dear Sir—I wish to say that I have been a great sufferer from hay fever for twenty-four years. I have tried many remedies without effect and found no relief until I heard of your wonderful remedy, the Microbe Killer, of which I never heard until last summer, and I immediately commenced to take it. I have taken four jugs. I got through the fall and winter without stopping work, instead of that fearful seige of suffering that has followed me so many years, and I would like to recommend this to all sufferers, feeling it my duty in gratitude to Mr. William Radam as the discoverer of this wonderful remedy. I was also suffering of a severe attack of acute rheumatism when I began to use the Microbe Killer. Now all symptoms of hay fever and rheumatism have disappeared, but I intend to keep it by me so as to keep myself well.

I remain yours truly,
MISS EMMA STARK.

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere as Gathered From Today's Exchanges.

A chewing gum factory has been established at Kinston.

The Governor yesterday paid a reward of $200 to Geo. Hendry for the capture of Steve Jacobs, the notorious Croatan outlaw and murderer.

Among those killed in the railroad wreck on the Old Colony road near Boston, Mass., this week, was Miss Eva Ballard, of Asheville, N. C.

It is given out by the census office at Washington that the population of Wilmington, N. C., is 20,008; an increase of 2,658 or 13.32 per cent.

It is rumored that Durham is to have a land improvement company with a capital of $500,000, and that a $150,000 hotel is to be built on the property.

The steamers City of New York and the Teutonic are engaged in another race across the ocean. They left New York Thursday morning within thirty-eight minutes of each other. The Teutonic gained seven minutes on her rival in the race to the ocean.

A Danville special says: A public exhibition has been made at Danville of a new machine for casing leaf tobacco. It saves labor and sweetening, and does its work much faster and better than can be done by hand. The machine is the invention of a Danville man.

Winston is always ahead, says the Winston Sentinel, and then explains: "The telegraph wires were extended to the base-ball grounds Monday and this week, during the games between Charlotte and Winston, an operator sent the news to Charlotte at the end of each inning. That's progress!" The Winston club won three straight games from Charlotte.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Durham Globe relates this: A young man of this town told me yesterday that he had just been shown a photograph of another young man and a young lady, taken just in the act of osculation. It wasn't a snap shot either—the photo, not the kiss—but was taken deliberately at one of the summer resorts. Is that the correct thing, too?

Six hundred million dollars would complete the Panama Canal by the year 1910, estimates the New York Sun. Before the year 1900 the cuts already wrought upon that isthmus will not have left so much as a scar. Festoons of vines, well grown trees, a matted jungle, flocks of noisy parakeets and troops of monkeys will be the visible scene where France's millions have vanished as one of its own exhalations.

The Grant Monument Association Executive Committee has adopted an address to the people setting forth that they will take no part in any discussion as to the removal of General Grant's body from New York. The fund amounts to $150,000. It is proposed to build with this a structure having a finished appearance, and to add to the monument as the funds increase. No design has, as yet, been selected. A choice will soon be made.

In October last the warehouse at Rocky Mount, Franklin county, Va., was fired by incendiaries and burned to the ground, together with several other buildings. There was strong reason to believe that the building was fired by negroes because the owners refused to allow General Mahone to speak therein and afterwards allowed the Democratic speaker to occupy it. Four negroes, Geo. Early, Byrd Woods, William Brown, and — Woods were arrested on suspicion, tried and convicted, and sentenced to be hanged. Geo. Early and Byrd Woods were executed at Rocky Mount yesterday, and the others will be executed September 19th.

AN "ORDER OF BUSINESS."

The Tariff Debate to Close on the 30th --Final Vote by Sept. 5th.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The conference committee appointed at last night's meeting of Republican Senators (Messrs. Hoar, Allison, Everts, Spooner, Plumb, Hale and Allen), met this afternoon in the room of the committee on the judiciary, and put into form the resolution establishing an order of business which it is proposed to adopt. The resolution provides for closing debate on the tariff bill August 30th (the understanding being that a final vote will be had by September 5th.) The measures mentioned in the Quay resolution (including the pure food and lottery bills) are to be disposed of before adjournment. The election bill is to be made a special order for the first Monday in December, the day when Congress convenes, with the understanding that a vote on it is to be ordered not later than December 20th. This resolution is to be circulated among the Republican Senators, and when a majority of the Senate from the Republican side have signed it, it is to be laid before the Senate formally for adoption. There is little doubt than the requisite Senators who have been demanding a change in the rules regard the adoption of this resolution as a substantial victory, as it will require a change in the rules to permit the previous question to be ordered on the election bill, December 20th.
