

THE DAY
—HAS THE—Largest City Circulation of any paper published in Oxford.

The Day.

THE DAY —GIVES—
All the News of the day and is furnished at 10cts.
per week.

VOLUME II. NUMBER 141]

OXFORD, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 1890.

[SINGLE COPIES: 3 CTS

STILL LEADING!
STILL LEADING!
STILL LEADING!

BEST ICE COLD DRINKS!
BEST ICE COLD DRINKS!
BEST ICE COLD DRINKS!

—AT—
—AT—
—AT—

T. W. JACKSON & CO.'S.
T. W. JACKSON & CO.'S.
T. W. JACKSON & CO.'S.

Bananas,
Oranges,
Lemons,
Grapes,
Apples and Watermelons.

CREAM CHEESE.—A nice lot of full Cream Cheese received to day.

XVI*CENTURY
Chamber Suits.
Chamber Suits.
Chamber Suits.
Chamber Suits.

ANTIQUÉ OAK.
The Newest, Handsomest Furniture on the Market.

CHAMBER SUITS IN WALNUT
AND NATURAL CHERRY.

Sideboards—Walnut, Antique Oak, XVI Century.
Rolled, Cylinder and Flat
Top Desks.
Rotary Shuttle Standard
Sewing Machines.

J. A. WEBB,
—THE—
Furniture Dealer.

School Supplies.

Paper, Pencils, Tablets, Pens, Ink, Copy Books, Slates, Composition Books, all kinds of Text Books, Blank Books, Drawing Paper, Erasers,
Colored Pencils,
Rullers, Blotters.

Oxford
Book Store!

Commercial Avenue.

DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP.

We hereby announce to our patrons and the public generally that the firm of Feild & Royster, hitherto engaged in the insurance and real estate business and the practice of law, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent by the retirement of Mr. Feild, who in the future will devote his entire time to the practice of law. Mr. Royster will continue the practice of law and the insurance and real estate business at the old office. This step is taken in the most friendly spirit and is purely a matter of business.

ALEX. J. FEILD.
BEV. S. ROYSTER.

August 19th, 1890.

I take this opportunity of thanking my friends for their kind patronage. Having sold my entire interest in the insurance business, including the good will to Mr. Royster, I respectfully ask my friends to continue their patronage to him.

In the future I shall devote my entire time and energies to the practice of law, and for the present I will have my office in Herndon Block, No. 3, next to Dr. J. M. Hays' office.

Respectfully,
ALEX. J. FEILD.

August 29, 1890.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

Many doctors of the county are in Oxford today attending a meeting of the Granville Medical Society.

Another handsome Columbia high-wheel bicycle arrived in town yesterday afternoon. It is the property of Alex. Roseman.

We learn that Rev. J. L. White, of Durham, will conduct a series of meetings at the Oxford Baptist church during the month of October.

The plans have been selected for the twelve dwellings houses to be built for the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company. They will be pretty modern style, no two alike.

We have positive information of the perfection of a plan which will give Oxford another big boom. No one-sided affair, but a regular double-masted, free-sail boom, with jibs and top sails thrown in.

Secretary Reed tells us that several thousand dollars worth of stock in the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company has been sold in the last few days. Orders are pouring in every day unsolicited.

W. H. Smith, the tailor, showed us today samples of beautiful imported cloths for men's clothing. He can hold his own with tailors any where in quality and variety of goods, as well as workmanship and fit.

On this page today appears a new advertisement of Jos. A. Webb, the furniture dealer. His XVI Century antique oak, walnut and cherry suits will please people of good taste. The Standard is the latest improved sewing machine, and to see it is to want one.

J. T. Mallory, the manager, was highly complimented on his first excursion to Asheville. Good order was preserved, everyone was made comfortable and the trip was generally enjoyed. The next excursion, September 3, will be just as well conducted. Round trip ticket from Durham only $3-50.

Much interest is felt in Oxford as to who will be superintendent of the Orphan Asylum. The directors meet here next Tuesday. They have a delicate and important duty to perform, but as they are good men and true we feel sure that every interest of North Carolina's favorite institution will be carefully guarded.

The New Congressional Candidate.

"Who is Charles H. Moore, nominated for Congress from this district as the colored man's candidate?" asked a reporter of THE DAY of one of the most prominent of Oxford's colored citizens.

"He is a good man," was the reply; "one of the best colored men we have in the State. He is in the race to stay. He is not of the kind who can be bought to run by one side or bought off by the other. We do not expect to elect him, but we are determined that Brower shall be defeated."

Order for Election on Waterworks Withdrawn.

Mayor Smith informed us this morning that the order for an election September 8, on the proposition to expend $50,000 for a system of waterworks for Oxford, has been withdrawn.

Instead of issuing bonds and the town owning the plant, the board of commissioners will proceed to make other arrangements for waterworks.

Wanted.
Several men who understand tobacco growing to work farms in Southampton county, Va. Most liberal terms. Apply to Col. T. J. Drewry, Oxford, N. C.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

A. A. Hicks is out of town for a few days.

A. Strause is of for a trip of several weeks to the North.

Misses Pattie and Bessie Renn went to Henderson this morning.

C. J. Hulin was a passenger on the northbound train this morning.

J. Y. Paris returned yesterday from a trip to eastern North Carolina.

J. F. Woody, of Person, deputy, revenue collector, is in the city today.

Geo. Smerdon and his son, Jas. Smerdon, arrived in the city this morning.

Mrs. W. A. Davis and children left this morning for a few weeks' stay at Chase City, Va.

Mrs. R. Broughton and infant are visiting relatives in Durham and Orange county, N. C.

Mrs. W. C. Thaxton and children returned yesterday evening from a visit of a few days to Durham.

N. Strause, of Henderson, was in town a short while this morning, and left for the North with his brother, A. Strause.

Capt. A. H. A. Williams passed through the city this morning from Raleigh enroute to Milton, where he will speak tomorrow.

Judge J. J. Davis and wife arrived in the city last night from Connelly's Springs, N. C., and returned to their home in Louisburg this morning.

D'Orsey Jones succeeded yesterday in getting a prizehouse and left on the night freight for Danville, Va. He will return here with his family in about two weeks.

That Passenger Station.

The contracts for the new passenger stations of the Richmond & Danville Railroad at Oxford and Henderson have been awarded to Hundley Bros. & Co, of this place. The buildings will be of wood, of the same size, pattern and cost. They are to be completed in ninety days from date.

THE TRAINS.

OXFORD & CLARKSVILLE R. R.
Northbound trains leave 11:02 A. M., and 8:25 P. M.
Southbound trains leave 4:09, P. M., and 3:30, A. M.

OXFORD & HENDERSON R. R.
Trains arrive 10:15, A. M., and 3:30, P. M., and 7:45, P. M.
Trains depart 5:00, A. M., 11:10, A. M., and 4:25, P. M.

A widow, with long experience in both public and private schools, desires a situation to teach in a school or private family. References exchanged. Address "TEACHER," 1328 Lanvale St., Baltimore, Maryland.

A Card.

I do hereby respectfully solicit the patronage of the citizens of Oxford for the Oxford Female Seminary.

I would gladly call on all who have daughters to educate, if I knew them; but being a stranger to most of them, I hardly know where to begin. I therefore hope none who would like to patronize the school will hesitate to seek an introduction in person, or indicate in some way a desire to do so, and I will cheerfully call to see you. We want your patronage, and are willing to give fair and reasonable terms. Very respectfully,
N. PENICK,
President of Seminary.

To Manufacturers.

Parties wishing to locate Factories on the lands of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company can learn something to their advantage by communicating with
H. C. HERNDON,
President Bank of Oxford.

Parties wishing to purchase Iron Safes will save money by calling on J. F. Edwards. He is agent for Macneal & Urband's Iron Safes.

Large stock Waggon and Buggy material for sale at J. F. Edwards'.

Large stock of Lanterns, Tobacco Knives and Thermometers for sale at J. F. Edwards'.

Bring your orders for tobacco tubes to J. F. Edwards.

THE LATEST NEWS.

SIFTED AND ARRANGED FOR THE BUSY READER.

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere as Gathered From Today's Exchanges.

Mr. James H. Pou, of Johnston county, who was nominated last week for Democratic State Senator, has announced that he declined to run on the ground of his brother having been nominated for Solicitor.

The Danville and New River Railroad (narrow gauge) was sold yesterday at public auction. J. Wilcox Brown, of Baltimore, was the purchaser, and it is said the road was purchased for the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company.

The latest news from South Carolina is that the straightout Democratic conference at Columbia adjourned at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Senator Butler came down from Washington, and it is said smoothed over things. All danger of a split is now passed, and Tillman will be the next Governor of South Carolina.

A. Woodruff fell in love with a charming young country girl of Grand Rapids township, Mich., but she would have none of him. Saturday he made a final appeal, and being flatly refused, he whipped out a revolver and fired twice at the object of his affections. She fell, but through fright. Thinking he had killed her, he turned the pistol on himself and lodged a bullet just below the heart. He cannot recover.

A Knoxville, Tenn., special says: John P. Smith, the eleven-year old son of State Superintendent of Public Instruction, F. M. Smith, and a boy named Hutchins, died yesterday from a dose of morphine. Three other children of Smith, who had unfortunately taken an overdose, were made very sick by the same drug, which was administered for a cold in mistake for quinine. The mistake was made by the druggist in filling the bottle.

An Asheville, N. C., special of yesterday to the News-Observer says: News reached here this evening of sudden death at the Haywood White Sulphur Springs hotel at Waynesville, of ex-Governor Bonham, of South Carolina. After leaving the parlor last night apparently as well as usual, he was seized this morning with a violent hemorrhage, caused by the bursting of a blood vessel, and died soon afterwards without the knowledge of any one.

A Card.

OXFORD, N. C., August 27.—I take pleasure in declaring myself a candidate, and in doing so I most earnestly solicit the support of every one whether white or black, rich or poor, young or old; whether Democrat or Republican, Prohibitionist or independent; whether in favor of waterworks or what not.

I assure you that if I am honored with your vote, I will work for the interest of every such one. In other words, I will prove to you that I am the right man in the right place.

NOW TO THE POINT. If you are in need of a Wagon, Platform, Dray or even a Buggy, you cannot do better than call on me. And if you want any kind of repairing done, whether wood work, blacksmithing, painting or trimming, I am confident that it will be decided to your interest to come to see me.

I use material unsurpassed by any one in this place, if not superior. Any work entrusted to me will receive prompt attention.

Satisfaction guaranteed both as to work and price.

Thankful for past favors and soliciting a continuance, I am, yours ready to serve,
B. F. TAYLOR.

P. S.—My shop is next to the new Alliance Warehouse, in the rear of Messrs. Owen, Barbour & Smith's and J. F. Edwards' hardware stores.

Buy the Excelsior Cook Stove. The best use, at J. F. Edwards'.

A REPUBLICAN BRAWL.

Members of Congress Use Rough Language and Blows Exchanged.

The following is from the telegraphic report of the proceedings of the lower House of Congress yesterday—the debate was on the Compound Lard bill:

Mr. McAdoo, of New Jersey, heaped denunciation and ridicule upon Mr. Cannon's statesmanship and historical knowledge and his love for the farmer. Then ensued the stormiest scene of the session. Mr. Cannon rose to reply. He admitted that he was not a great statesman, and also admitted the superiority of the gentleman from New Jersey in that respect. He concluded with a coarse remark.

There was instantly great confusion and disorder in the hall. Mr. McAdoo shouted out that he wanted the words to go upon the record as a specimen of Mr. Cannon's vulgarity.

Mr. Caruth, of Kentucky, suggested the propriety of clearing the galleries of ladies.

While Mr. Enloe was clamoring for recognition on the question of order, again Mr. McAdoo shouted out to Mr. Cannon; "If you can afford to let that go on the record as a specimen of your stable jockey wit, I cannot afford to have it there. I cannot indulge in blackguardism with you. You ought to argue with a stable jockey. That is your size."

Finally Mr. Enloe was recognized on his point of order and demanded that the words be taken down.

Mr. Cannon—Oh, if it annoys you I will withdraw it.

After a brief discussion the Speaker overruled the point of order on the ground that Mr. Enloe's proper course would have been to call the gentleman to order and not to raise a point of order.

Mr. Enloe appealed from the decision and the clerk proceeded to call the roll on sustaining the decision of the Speaker. But a storm was brewing. Its mutterings were heard when Mr. Mason (Republican from Illinois) coming down the aisle near which Mr. Cannon (Republican from Illinois) was sitting, in a tone audible only to those who were in the immediate vicinity, began to denounce that gentleman in no measured words. He declared that if Mr. Cannon's family were in the gallery he would not have uttered the words he had. His (Mason's) family was in the gallery and he would not sit tamely by and hear them insulted. Some of the gentlemen in the vicinity say the lie was passed, but before anything more serious occurred the storm broke out in another quarter.

Mr. Wilson, (Rep.), of Washington, taking occasion to defend Mr. Cannon aroused the ire of Mr. Beckwith, (Rep. from New Jersey). Hot words were exchanged, the lie was passed and a blow was given. Friends seized both men, and finally quieted them, while every Democrat was on his feet thoroughly enjoying the spectacle of the family quarrel.

Mr. Enloe, (Dem. from Tennessee) suggested that the House should adopt the London prize ring rules.

It was many minutes before order was restored, and it required a vigorous wielding of the Speaker's gavel before the clerk could proceed with the roll call.

The decision of the chair was sustained—yeas 103, nays 78.

Mr. Cannon then rose and briefly apologized for the remark which he had made.

Dining Room Suit.

Antique Oak. Sideboard, extension table and six chairs for $25.00 at
JOS. A. WEBB'S.

Horner School.

A preparatory class will be started Monday, Sept. 1st. Boys entering this class will be taken at reduced rates. Apply for terms.

Rubber Belting and Packing at J. F. Edwards'.

Bicycle for Sale.

Columbia standard make. Good as new, sold at a bargain. Apply to this office.