DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP.

We hereby announce to our patrons and the public generally that the firm of Feild & Royster, hitherto engaged in the insurance and real estate business and the practice of law, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent by the retirement of Mr. Feild, who in the future will devote his entire time to the practice of law. Mr. Royster will continue the practice of law and the insurance and real estate business at the old office.
This step is taken in the most friendly spirit and is purely a matter of business.

ALEX. J. FEILD,
BEV. S. ROYSTER.

August 19th, 1890.

I take this opportunity of thanking my friends for their kind patronage. Having sold my entire interest in the insurance business, including the good will to Mr. Royster, I respectfully ask my friends to continue their patronage to him.

In the future I shall devote my entire time and energies to the practice of law, and for the present I will have my office in Herndon Block, No. 3, next to Dr. J. M. Hays' office.

Respectfully,
ALEX. J. FEILD.

Aug. 19, 1890.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

There will be services at the Episcopal Church tomorrow morning.

The Panacea Springs Company has taken possession of the Panacea Springs.

Capt. Rufus Amis, of Granville, was put on the Republican State executive committee.

Rev. Dr. Marsh will preach at the Baptist Church tomorrow at eleven o'clock, a. m. Subject: "Child Training."

Policeman Leach captured a big fox in the city limits today—a hundred and thirty pounder. Fox was the man's name and he was drunk and disorderly.

Prof. F. P. Hobgood is today moving his family to the Aiken residence on Main street, and R. F. Aiken is removing to the dwelling on High street where Prof. Hobgood has been residing.

We once again call the attention of the city fathers to the need of sign-boards with the names of the streets tacked on every street corner. At present it is difficult to direct a stranger to any particular part of town.

The family of Police Hogue, of Raleigh, are said to be in destitute circumstances. The policemen here are appealed to contribute to their sustenance while the bread-winner is in jail.
Hogue's trial comes off the latter part of this month.

There will be religious services at Opera House tomorrow, conducted by Elder F. W. Berry, of Kentucky, a Christian minister. The Disciples of Christ have organized a Sunday school in Oxford, and meet every Sunday morning for communion. It is said they will build a church edifice here at no distant day.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Dick Hester went to Louisburg today.

A. H. Smoot, of Henderson, is in Oxford today.

Dr. C. D. H. Fort is out of the city for a week or more.

C. W. Paxson went to Mecklenburg county, Va., this morning.

Miss Mamie Hobgood has returned home from a visit to Roxboro, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Elliott left this morning to return to their home in Norfolk, Va.

W. A. Davis left this morning to spend a few days with his family at Chase City, Va.

Miss Jennie Bethel, of Danville, Va., who was visiting Miss Jessie Lewellin, took her departure this morning.

Hugh Bryan, brother of Chas. Bryon, was in Oxford yesterday, and left on the morning northbound train.

Lawson Knott, a prominent former of Nash county, is in town today.
He raised eighty barns of fine tobacco this year.

G. F. Batchelder, of Milton, Fla., arrived in Oxford yesterday, and will remain here a while with F. N. Day to learn the jewelry business.

Misses Maud and Eliza Marshall, Miss Eliza Skinner and Miss Mildred Badger, of Raleigh, and Mr. and Mrs.
Louis Thorp, of Berea, came to Oxford yesterday afternoon and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Smith.
The Raleigh young ladies have been on a visit to Mrs. Thorp for several weeks, and the party left again this morning for Berea.

Attention, Granville Grays!

On and after September 1st, 1890, there will be regular drills of the Granville Grays as heretofore. All must attend or they will be fined.

W. A. BOBBITT, Capt.

GERMAN LAST NIGHT.

Complimentary to Visiting Ladies—Hastily Gotten up but a Success.

The german at Armory Hall last night, given complimentary to Misses Maud and Eliza Marshall, Miss Eliza Skinner and Miss Mildred Badger, of Raleigh, Miss Jennie Bethel, of Danville, Va., and Miss Hallie Young, of Henderson, visiting young ladies in the city, was a most delightful dance.
It was gotten up hastily, but the arrangements were perfect. The young men of Oxford know how to get up such an affair of short or long notice, and make a success of it every time.
The costumes of the ladies were rich and beautiful, and prettier women than those present one rarely sees. C. S.
Easton and F. J. Crews led the german.

The couples participating in the dance were: Miss Effie Gregory and C. S. Easton; Miss M. E. Gregory and W. R. Kenan, Jr.; Miss Lucy Gregory and H. D. White; Miss Annie Smith and C. V. Carrington; Miss Carrie Skinner and B. E. Parham; Miss Annie Lockhart and J. T. Thomas; Miss Hallie Landis and W. T. Clement; Miss Annie Booth and J. Y. Paris; Miss Hallie Young and O. S. Smoot; Miss Jennie Bethel and C. H. Easton; Miss Maude Marshall and Wm. Thorp; Miss Eliza Marshall and J. C. Thomas; Miss Eliza Skinner and W. E. Borden; Miss Mildred Badger and J. C.
Biggs; Miss Fannie Hughes and A. S.
Lanier; Miss Maggie Hughes and H.
L. Skinner; Mrs. C. W. Paxson and C. W. Paxson.

The stags were Messrs. Mitchell and Buell, of Henderson, and L. W.
Starke, J. B. Booth and T. H. Boyd, of Oxford.

Mrs. N. A. Gregory, Mrs. R. T.
Smith, Mrs. W. T. Alston and Mrs.
W. H. Hunt, of the city, and Mrs.
Lous Thorp, of Berea, were chaperones.

Your Last Chance.

A new page advertisement of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company appears in this issue of THE DAY. The subscription books will be closed September 18th.

If you want to put some money in this great enterprise—and it is one of the best investments in the South—do so now. This is your last chance.
The daily sales are very large, and at the rate they are going the last shares may be sold in less than a week's time.

THE LATEST NEWS.

SIFTED AND ARRANGED FOR THE BUSY READER.

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere as Gathered From Today's Exchanges.

It is claimed that one million dollars has been invested in Winston-Salem by people outside of the city within the past six months.

The cornerstone of the new Methodist Church at Reidsville will be laid September 3. Dr. B. F. Dixon will deliver an oration and Dr. Peterson, of North Danville, Va., will preach a sermon.

Frank L. Bond, one of the oldest citizens of Tarboro, left his home, in his night-clothes, Tuesday morning, and his whereabouts is not known.
His mind has not been in its normal condition for some time.

The Raleigh Visitor says: "And now the directors of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad say they are going to extend the Albemarle and Raleigh Railroad either to Raleigh, or Durham, or both. Let us be on the alert."

The Richmond paper mill was almost entirely destroyed by fire Thursday night. The loss is estimated at $35,000; insurance unknown. The mill was the property of the Richmond Paper Manufacturing Company, E. D.
Christian, president. This is the third time the mill has been burned within the past eight years.

It is said to be a mistake. The Surry county Republican convention did not denounce the Winston Republican. Brower grows weaker and weaker in the western end of the district every day. It is not sure that he will carry a single county in the district.
A Winston correspondent of the State Chronicle says that Forsyth county will give C. H. Moore the whole colored strength of that county.

The Raleigh Chronicle says: Mr.
James E. Mitchell, a millionaire commission merchant of Philadelphia, who makes a specialty of cotton yarns, was here yesterday. He came here to consult with the directory of the Raleigh cotton mills, and he closed a contract to take and handle the entire product of the mills—all they can turn out.
This means a permanent and sure market for the factory, and all the mills have to do now is to run right along.

Snatched from the Grave.

In his testimonial attesting the virtues of Radam's Microbe Killer, Mr. M.
C. Battey, well and popular known from his connections with the Queen and Crescent railroad, presents a picture of the results of blood-poisoning which cannot but have its weight with evenly balanced minds. Blood poisoning comes to the sufferer in such an insidious shape that it is only discovered when, under ordinary circumstances, it is too late to combat it. According to his well-authenticated statement, Mr. Battey was veritably snatched from the grave by Radam's Microbe Killer, and hence gives to the world his faith in it as a cure for blood poisoning, while others tell of it as having cured them of consumption and kindred diseases.

Gets a Washington Appointment.

Grant Foster, a young colored man of Oxford, has been appointed to a clerkship in the Census Bureau at Washington at a salary of nine hundred dollars a year.

He was census taker for Oxford Township this year, and did his work so well that Superintendent Webb wrote him that of the two hundred enumerators appointed in this district his returns were best of all.

Hornor School.

A preparatory class will be started Monday, Sept. 1st. Boys entering this class will be taken at reduced rates. Apply for terms.

A NEW TRAIN

Between Washington and the South via the R. & D. System.
Washington Post.

The constantly increasing through travel over the Richmond & Danville system, which is popularly known as the great "Piedmont Air-Line," is to be met by the establishment of the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited" train about first of October next, to run between Washington and Atlanta, via Lynchburg, Greensboro, Salisbury, Charlotte, Spartanburg and Greenville.

The magnificent train will leave Washington City every day at 11:15 A. M., arriving in Atlanta at 6 o'clock the following morning, and returning upon a similar schedule of hours of arrival and departure.

The equipment will consist of Pullman Palace Buffet, Smoking and Library and Sleeping, Dining and Drawing Room cars, which are being built expressly for this service, and will be masterpieces of art. The entire train will be vestibuled, steam heated and gas-lighted, and in every detail equal to the best trains of this character on any line. All the comfort, convenience and luxury obtainable on railway travel will be furnished on this train, and the Southern people will be provided facilities in no way inferior to the best enjoyed by any other section.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Oct. 23, 1889.
Wm. Radam, M. K.:

Sir—I cheerfully testify as to the curative powers of your medicine.
Having been a sufferer from weak lungs, bronchial affection and indigestion, after taking three or four boxes of Microbe Killer all of the above symptoms have entirely disappeared.

Yours etc., THOS. L. DAVIS.

A Card.

I do hereby respectfully solicit the patronage of the citizens of Oxford for the Oxford Female Seminary.

I would gladly call on all who have daughters to educate, if I knew them; but being a stranger to most of them, I hardly know where to begin. I therefore hope none who would like to patronize the school will hesitate to seek an introduction in person, or indicate in some way a desire to do so, and I will cheerfully call to see you. We want your patronage, and are willing to give fair and reasonable terms. Very respectfully, N. PENICK,
President of Seminary.
