NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

The registration books are open at Furman & Hays' drugstore.

Some important real estate transactions will be announced in a few days.

If rumors are to be trusted there will be several marriages in Oxford in the near future.

Strause & Raab shipped seven car loads of hogshead tobacco to Richmond yesterday.

THE DAY will publish tomorrow a fine essay on "Romeo," written by a young lady of Oxford.

Mayor Smith tried several small cases yesterday and helped the town treasury a few dollars worth.

W. Z. Mitchell will build a handsome dwelling on Broad street. The contract has been let to a Henderson firm.

L. M. King, who was section master on the Oxford & Henderson Railroad for some years, this morning resigned his position.

W. W. Jones, proprietor of the Oxford Book Store, is putting sixty handsome "Victor" desks in one of the Orphan Asylum school rooms.

W. S. Hundley is removing his hogshead shop nearer to his foundry.
He has recently completed a very pretty cottage on McClannahan street.

The Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company expects in the next day or two to close contracts for several valuable enterprises to be located on their property.

The singing chapter from the Oxford Orphan Asylum, which gave concerts at various places in the State, under the charge of Miss Mary Walker, returned to the city on the freight from Durham last night.

Capt. Jno. A. Williams has just sold to a very large capitalist some real estate in our city. This is a good omen of Oxford's future prospects. Capt.
Williams sold a vacant lot near the corporate limits to J. M. Sikes.

John W. Hays has an interesting account of "Hunting Antelopes East of the Rockies" in Outing magazine for September. Our young townsmen is winning fame as a magazine writer, and certainly possesses literary talent of a high order.

J. F. Woody, deputy revenue collector for this district, was here yesterday, and offered at public auction about thirty barrels whiskey which he seized from neighboring distilleries a few weeks ago. The prices bid were extremely low and they were taken in.

The canvassers for the Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company are making large sales. The nearer the day announced for closing, the books approaches the more rapid stock is being sold. Virginia is investing now very liberally in this great enterprise.

The first number of the Oxford Times, a weekly newspaper edited by two young colored men of the city, E.
W. Cannady and J. H. Parham, made its appearance to day. It declares against the rule of the white bosses and demands a share of public offices for the negroes. It is a neat sheet, spicy and a credit to the editors.

Democratic Meeting.
There will be a meeting at the court house in Oxford, Monday evening, Sept. 15, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of reorganizing the Young Men's Democratic Club. At this meeting there will be an election of delegates to the meeting of the State Convention of Democratic Clubs to be held in Raleigh the 24th Sept A. A. HICKS,
Chr'm Township Ex. Com.
Sept. 10, 1890.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Mrs. J. A. White is visiting friends in Durham.

Miss Eva Minor owns a tricycle, the first in town.

Mrs. W. S. Overbey, went to Henderson this morning.

Maj. C. H. Scott returned to Oxford yesterday afternoon.

N. P. Strause, of Henderson, is spending the day in Oxford.

Miss Nannie Philpot, left this morning on the northbound train.

Walter P. Stradley will soon go to Raleigh to read law under Judge Strong.

A. W. Graham is off for a trip to Birmingham, Ala., to look after his mining interest at that place.

Mrs. L. F. Pierce and child, who were here for several weeks on a visit, left this morning for their home at Windsor, N. C.

Mrs. J. S. Hall came back to the city yesterday afternoon after an absence of several weeks spent with relatives at Norfolk, Va.

The gallant standard-bearer of the Democracy of the Fifth Congressional District, Capt. A. H. A. Williams, returned to the city yesterday afternoon.

Oxford Female Seminary.

The first session of this sterling school under new management opened this morning with eighty or more pupils. This is a splendid start, and it is very likely that the roll will show a hundred and fifty names in less than a week from now.

The Seminary has always enjoyed a liberal patronage, and it promises to be more prosperous than ever with such an able and experienced educator and progressive business man as Prof. N. Penick in charge.

The trains yesterday and this morning brought many young ladies for this school.

Rev. E. L. Pell.

The Rev. E. L. Pell, who has been preaching at the Methodist Church for more than ten days, is a preacher of unusual excellence, giving expression to thought in an original way, and is a man of intense earnestness. The Bible readings he is giving during this week at the afternoon services are unusually interesting. Those who are attending them are deriving great benefit from them. The meetings are accomplishing great good, especially among the membership of the church. Do not fail to hear this learned and devout gentleman during the remainder of his stay in Oxford. Mr. Pell, we understand, will remain all this week.

Notice.

Having employed Robert Watkins, colored, for one year, and his time not being out until January 1st, 1891, and the said Watkins having left me without just cause, I hereby forewarn all persons from employing him under penalty of the law.

A GRAND RALLY

OF THE YOUNG DEMOCRACY AT RALEIGH, SEPTEMBER 24.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland and Senators Carlisle, Breckenridge, Ransom and Vance will be Present.

Chairman Smith writes us that on Wednesday, 24th Sept., 1890, in Raleigh, a grand Democratic Rally will be held. Every Congressman in this State is expected, and Senator Vance has not only consented to speak but to fetch along some big guns to assist him. Among others who are invited are President Cleveland and Senators Breckenridge and Carlisle.

The affair will be under the auspices of the Young Men's Democratic Clubs and Col. Jule Carr, the master of ceremonies, is now in New York on a special trip to visit President Cleveland.

Cheapest railroad fare on record, 1¼ cents a mile, and reduced rates at the Yarboro. A glorious time is expected, and we predict that Oxford and Granville county will be on hand 'til you can't rest.

Read Chairman Hicks' call for a meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club on Monday night, 15 Sept., 1890, at the courthouse.

OXFORD LITERARY SOCIETY.

Programs for the Next Three Meetings of the Society.

The following, furnished by the Secretary B. K. Hays, are the programs for the next three meetings of the Oxford Literary Society:

Mercantile and Manufacturers' Display of the State Fair.

Everybody wishes to see a handsome display of dry goods, hardware, saddlers goods, boots and shoes, machinery, agricultural implements, etc., but more hundreds will go the whole length of the State to see a display of goods in their special line of business. It is important that the business men of the State make up their minds as to what these displays will be, and give notice to the managers of the State Fair, October 13th to 18th, of the space wanted. If not they may be left out. Raleigh business men are rapidly giving notice and taking up space. More space will be given to exhibitors than ever before, but it will all be needed at the present rate of applications for space to exhibit.

FRESH FROM THE PRESS.

State and General Items of Interest from Today's Papers.

At Hamersville, Ohio, yesterday, during the trial of a will case John Hiller, in open court, shot Constable Allen dead, and shot Geo. Barngrover fatally. Hiler escaped.

The old elevator of the Ogdensburg and Lake Chaplain Railroad company at Ogdon, N. Y., was burned yesterday morning with 500,000 bushels of corn and oats. It was well insured.

The executive board of Knights of Labor has secured writs of habeas corpus, demanding the production in open court of Reed, Kiernan and Cordial, the three Knights charged with wrecking the train on the New York Central road last Friday night.

A Winston special to Raleigh Chronicle of today says: Five hundred people witnessed the most exciting game of ball today ever played here. Winston won by a score of 7 to 6 through the fine batting of Farrell and Lanier.
This makes two victories out of the three games against Richmond for the championship of the South.

A Shelby, N. C., special to the News-Observer says: During a heavy storm, which passed over a part of this county late yesterday, A. M. Lovelace, while driving to his barn, was struck by lightning and knocked unconscious. Two mules, which he was driving, were killed. At last accounts Mr. Lovelace was out of his mind, and not expected to live.

Through travel over the Richmond & Danville railroad, interrupted last week by the carrying away of the bridge over the Yadkin river south of Salisbury, goes now from Greensboro to Sanford via the C. F. & Y. V. railroad, thence to Hamlet via the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line, and from Hamlet to Charlotte via the Carolina Central, says the Wilmington Star.

A special from Richmond, Va., says: It is learned from a high semi-official source, that if the Olcott committee and the legislature fail to settle the State debt this winter, the Farmers' Alliance and anti-debt paying people will start a vigorous out and out repudiation party. It is understood that the Governor will convene the legislature in extra session in January.

Samuel John Dixon, a photographer of Toronto, Canada, aged 38 years, on Saturday walked across a cable seven-eighths of an inch in diameter stretched across the Niagara Falls, between the cantilever and the suspension bridges. He used a balance pole weighing thirty pounds, and twenty-two feet six inches long. He executed a number of manœuvres. At the center he stretched himself at full length on his back on the wire, crossing his feet and folding his arms.
Eight thousand people saw him do it.
