To create an entirely new American brette character, and to throw und that character a new plot, en-ly free from the old stage conventionalities is indeed a most difficult
; but in "Uncle's Darling" the hor has succeeded in both beyond most sanguine expectation.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

Capt. A. H. A. Williams has bought a fast trotting horse for the campaign.

Hundley Bros. & Co. began today laying brick on R. W. Winston's prizehouse.

"Uncle's Darling," a charming comedy drama, at the Opera House tomorrow night.

The boys have got ahead of the old fogies now. They stand amazed, and don't know what is coming next.

The Oxford leaf dealers have nearly all unloaded their stock of old tobacco, and are in a fine condition to handle the new crop.

The Oxford Literary Society will meet tonight at the residence of Capt. A. Landis, and will discuss Shakespeare's "Cymbeline."

If you would tell some of the former Doubting Thomases that they are going to run a steamboat line through Oxford they would believe you.

F. W. Jackson & Co. open up the fruit season today with a fine assortment of oranges, bananas, grapes, apples, etc. Give them a call.

Go to see "Uncle's Darling" at the Opera House tomorrow night. A sparkling, musical, mirthful play by a first class company. Be sure to go.

Over twenty thousand dollars worth of real estate has changed hands this week on the quiet in Oxford. And it is not a good week to sell property either.

Some good Granville tobacco is coming on the market now, and holds its old-time place at the head of the list. Granville cannot be downed on bright tobacco.

The Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company is negotiating with a prominent wagon manufacturer of Virginia to remove his plant to South Oxford.

A new Campbell power press has just been put in the Orphan Asylum printing office. The Orphans' Friend will appear in eight-page form and with a new dress of type within the next few weeks.

Kit Hester sold at the Centre Warehouse yesterday tobacco off of three-quarters of an acre, and that too, last cuttings, for $181. He was more than pleased, and would have been well satisfied with much less.

B. F. Taylor, buggy and wagon maker, is showing on the streets today a handsome dray made in his shop for R. H. Hayes, of Winston, N. C. The workmanship is first class, and the vehicle is generally admired.

Chief of Police Renn will make great improvements on Williamsboro street, in the neighborhood of the old depot. He will cut off part of the hill in front of Maj. T. B. Venable's and fill up the bottom, bringing it almost on a level.

The subscription books of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company were closed yesterday evening, as announced. Now for the allotment of lots October 8, 9 and 10. Excursion rates on all the trains, and the biggest sort of a time ahead.

The posters and lithographs for "Uncle's Darling" are up, and make a handsome show. The first play of the season will attract a large audience. Miss Hettie Bernard Chase is a comedy actress of wide reputation, and she will be warmly welcomed in Oxford.

The singing class of the Oxford Orphan Asylum left yesterday afternoon under the charge of Miss Katie W. Marsh, and last night gave a concert at Henderson. They will make a tour of eastern North Carolina, and will be away for five or six weeks.

OXFORD SMOKING TOBACCO at Furman & Hays'.

"UNCLE'S DARLING."

At the Opera House Tomorrow Night --Opening of the Season.

A rattling good play by a first class company at the Opera House tomorrow night.

"Uncle's Darling" is the title of the play, and it is a comedy-drama, with plenty of good music.

Miss Hettie Bernard Chase is pronounced by the State press the best, brightest and most charming soubrette ever in North Carolina. She appeared last season in the "Little Coquette," and the most lavish praise was bestowed upon her acting. There isn't a dull moment for the audience while she is on the stage.

Her support is a strong one, and includes specialty performers of high talent. The troupe carries its own scenery.

"Uncle's Darling" merits a crowded house, and no doubt will get it. Everybody ought to see it. It is worth going a long distance to see.

Reserved seats are now on sale at J. P. Stedman's drugstore. Usual prices of admission.

Granville Grays Cornet Band.

The Granville Grays Cornet Band was organized at a meeting in the courthouse last night.

The following members were enrolled: J. T. Thomas, H. D. White, J. F. Collins, F. J. Crews, W. T. Clement, J. C. Larkins, J. W. White, O. O. White, W. C. Thaxton, W. H. White, P. R. White, Thos. White, Jr., C. A. Daniel, J. Y. Paris, P. H. Thomas, M. F. Loonam.

A fine set of brass instruments have been ordered, and will be here either Wednesday or Thursday night of next week.

W. S. Nelson has been engaged to teach the band for two months or more, and will start immediately after the arrival of the instruments. He is recommended as a musician of high attainments. He has had an experience of ten years as teacher, and was leader of the Cornet Band of Monroe when it won the prize at the Exposition.

A fine band is much needed and will infuse new life in the town. The talent in here. Our citizens should help the boys buy the instrument and pay salary of the instructor. H. D. White, W. A. Bobbitt, W. T. Meadows and W. T. Clement were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions.

Go to Paris.

Not to the gay capital of France, we mean, but go to Paris Bros., of Oxford, for anything you want in the way of dry goods, clothing, shoes, hats, men's furnishings and house furnishings, etc.

Their new and seasonable stock is just in, and they announce in THE DAY's advertising columns that they are ready to show you what they have to sell and sell you the best goods for the least money. They are ready to do all they say, and a call will convince you of their entire and hearty readiness. Ready is characteristic of this live, progressive firm. If you do not find Ready in the store when you go there, why you are sure to see "Ready's" brother.

Brewster, Soule, King, Rice Coil, Spiral, Thomas Coil and Boughton spring buggies, prices from $35 to $135 each, at OWEN, BARBOUR & SMITH.

Boarders Wanted.

Prof. Hobgood at the Aiken house offers table board at $12.50, and with room, $15.

THE LATEST NEWS.

SIFTED AND ARRANGED FOR THE BUSY READER.

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere as Gathered from Today's Exchanges.

Nashville, Tenn., will have a million dollar hog and cattle packing house.

At Rocky Mount, while a train hand was coupling cars on the Norfolk-Carolina railroad, he was caught between two cars and mashed to death. He was only eighteen years old.

The Republican Congressional convention for the eighth district met at Lenoir yesterday and made no nomination. Cowles' stock is booming, and the Democracy is wide awake.

Gustav A. Tuchel, 60 years old, a rich miser, died of starvation in a squalid room in New York last night. He had bank books showing deposits of over $10,000 and title deeds to three tenement houses. He had lived on two quarts of milk and four quarts of potatoes a week. He was a book-cannasser.

A Vienna correspondent says the prospect arising from the passage of the McKinley tariff bill combined with the fall in gold has lowered the price of mother-of-pearl 13 per cent. Mother-of-pearl manufacturers have closed their factories to avoid working at a loss, and thirty thousand persons are thrown out of employment.

The merchants of Belfast are making every endeavor to place as much linen as possible in the United States before the McKinley tariff bill goes into effect. The White Star Liner steamer, Majestic, which sailed from Liverpool for New York yesterday, has one of the largest cargoes of linen ever known to have been shipped. Many shippers are unable to secure freight space.

The Raleigh Chronicle says there is a concerted movement, which began two years ago, for the establishment by the State for a training school for women. It receives the hearty endorsement of "The King's Daughters," who are taking an active interest in it and will memorialize the next Legislature to establish one on a broad and liberal plan.

There was danger of a financial panic in New York last week, but the United States Treasury came to the relief. Yesterday the amount paid out on the account of bond purchases alone was $11,668,000, and in addition to this there were large prepayments of interest on fours and sixes and heavy payments for silver and on pension account. Fully five million was paid out over the counter.

The Durham Globe says: The free distribution of mail will go into effect in this city on the first of November, provided, of course, that the city fathers make the necessary arrangements for the operation of the system. Yesterday, an official of the postoffice department went over the city with Col. W. A. Albright, postmaster, and divided it into three carriers' districts. All that is necessary now to get ready to put the system in operation is to number the houses.
