NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

If you haven't, do it now. Register, we mean.
Allen Encampment, I. O. O. F., met last night.
Eggs and chickens are scarce here, and command high prices.
The Mayor reports things distressingly quiet. This is a "fine" point of view.
Scuppernong grapes were selling on the streets today for twenty-five cents a peck.
There will be theatrical entertainments and a grand ball in Oxford the nights of October 9, 10 and 11.
Rev. Messrs. Cuninggim and Hall are working energetically to raise funds for the new M. E. station and circuit parsonages.

You can keep informed of the best stores in Oxford at which to buy goods by consulting the advertising columns of THE DAY.

The old Presbyterian church building has been torn down, and the work of erecting the handsome new edifice will be soon started.

Hon. R. B. Glenn will address the people on the issues of the campaign, at 8 o'clock, Thursday, October 2, and at Oxford that night.

The rehearsals of "A Celebrated Case" are now being held nightly in the Opera House. The amateurs are making good progress.

A South Boston, Va., firm of tinners has the contract to roof the new bonded warehouse, and the workmen arrived here last evening.

Lithographs, with a good portrait of Rev. Dr. Lafferty, advertising his lecture here October 3, are to be seen in the show windows of the stores.

Little colored boys play marbles all day long in the back lots, and to a late hour of the night under the electric lights on some of the quiet streets.

The campaign in Granville county will open next week. The Williams-Brower joint debate Tuesday and address by Hon. R. B. Glenn Thursday night.

It is claimed that the burlesque fire scene in the "Colored Aristocracy" is alone worth the price of admission. At the Opera House Wednesday night, October 1.

If you want to promote Oxford's growth build dwelling houses to rent. Many of such houses are needed immediately to accommodate people who are anxious to come here to reside.

The merchants are informed through a new advertisement in THE DAY that they can get extra fine New York cheese and butter by calling on Job Osborn, the merchandise broker.

The tobacco market today was very brisk. All the warehouses had good breaks. Granville county tobacco is coming in freely now, and heavy shipments from the eastern counties continue.

Every Democratic voter can attend the meeting in the courthouse tonight. It does not cost anything to join the club—no assessments regular, occasional or any other kind. Every good Democrat can join.

Special and important meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Oxford in the courthouse tonight. A large crowd is expected, as some interesting speeches will be made by prominent men and the campaign work will be mapped out.

For Sale.
A Gordon Setter Dog, eight months old, in fine running order. Apply at this office.

Will be Here September 29.
Barney Wertheim, representing "the Boston" Clothing house, Schwarschild & Co., proprietors, of Richmond, Va. will be in Oxford on or about Sept. 25th to solicit orders for Clothing, Hats, Furnishing, etc.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

Miss Lizzie Spencer went to Clarks-ville this morning.

Jas. Smardon, of Kittrell's X Roads, is in Oxford today.

J. F. Royster came back from Raleigh on the morning train.

R. I. Rogers, of the Durham Marble Works, is in the city today.

W. T. Clement returned from Raleigh on the freight train last night.

J. F. Woody, of the district internal revenue service, was in the city today.

Alex. Cuningham, of Cuningham, Person county, is visiting friends in Oxford.

J. W. Hunt, A. A. Hicks and Dr. A. J. Dalby went to Dabney this morning.

J. C. Hundley is better today, we are pleased to learn, and is on the road to recovery.

J. C. Caddell, the clever correspondent of the News-Observer, is in the city today.

C. B. Leach went to Durham yesterday afternoon, and returned to the city this morning.

Mrs. W. F. Rogers and Mrs. N. Hunter went to Dabney to attend a picnic given at that place today.

C. J. Gregory is still very sick. He is an Odd Fellow, and is receiving every attention from the members of the local lodge.

Miss Emma Gooch, of Durham, who was here visiting the family of W. K. Thomas, left yesterday afternoon for her home.

Hart & Lawrence.

This go-ahead firm announces in this issue of THE DAY that their immense and beautiful stock of fall and winter goods is open and ready for the inspection of the public.

They have many striking novelties to show and many real bargains to offer. Anything in the line of dry goods, clothing, men's furnishings, shoes, hats, ladies' wraps, millinery, etc., you can find at this extensive establishment in endless variety, the best makes, the most correct styles and at prices within the reach of the average purse.

The millinery department is under the management of Miss Sallie Berry, an artistic trimmer just from Baltimore. Ladies who buy their hats here are certain of complete satisfaction.

It will interest you and be money saved to give Hart & Lawrence an early call.

Help the Boys.

The business men of Oxford should come more promptly to the relief of the Granville Grays Cornet Band. The boys need immediate help. The instruments are here, and money is wanted to pay for them.

Another canvas will be made this afternoon, and it is to be hoped liberal subscription will be obtained. The members are good young men of musical talent, and they will have a first-class band.

Prof. W. S. Nelson is here ready to give instructions, and he tells us he guarantees that the band will be able to furnish all the music wanted for Oct. 9, 10 and 11.

THE LATEST NEWS.

SIFTED AND ARRANGED FOR THE BUSY READER.

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere as Gathered from Today's Exchanges.

The coinage of $1 and $3 gold-pieces and the 3 cent piece will be suspended at once.

A pavilion has been erected for the exclusive use of North Carolina at the coming Boston Exhibit.

Rev. Sam Jones is again preaching on North Carolina soil. He began a ten days' series of meetings at Wilmington yesterday.

W. G. Elliott, Esq., president of the W. & W. Railroad, has moved his family to Wilmington, and will make that place his residence hereafter.

J. F. Epps, of Nottoway county, was yesterday nominated for Congress by the Democratic convention of the Fourth Virginia District. This is the Venable-Langston district.

Grand Sire C. M. Busbee, of the National Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, returned home yesterday on the 1 o'clock train and was given a grand reception by the two lodges of this city who met him at the depot about seventy-five strong, headed by the Durham Cornet Band, says the News and Observer of this morning.

It is stated that over 6,000,000 pieces of mail matter are sent to the Dead Letter Office annually, or over 20,000 pieces a day. This enormous number of miscarriages is almost wholly due to the carelessness or forgetfulness of the senders, being caused mainly by incorrect, illegible or deficient address, insufficient postage and insecure inclosure.

The Halifax (N. C.) Democratic County Convention yesterday adopted a compromise agreed upon by the executive committees of the two political parties, and nominated W. E. Bowers for the Senate; W. W. Hall, recommended by the Alliance, and A. B. Hill, for the House; B. I. Alsbrook, Sheriff; W. T. Parker, Treasurer; leaving Register of Deeds, Clerk of the Superior court, Coroner, and Surveyor to be nominated by the Republicans.

A Clarksville, Va., correspondent of the Richmond Times says that last Saturday night some person or persons succeeded in entering the store of W. P. Webb, and got off with over $90 in money. One $20 bill was dropped on the floor and found in the morning. It is supposed that the thief managed to secrete himself in the store before closing, as there was no appearance of violence in entering. They simply opened the door, evidently from the inside, and walked out. No clue as yet to perpetrators of this, the boldest robbery on record in our town.

A Montgomery, Ala., telegram of yesterday says: Under instructions from Chief Inspector Sharp, Inspector Booth today seized all the issue of the Birmingham Age-Herald of this date, and the issue of the weekly Atlanta Constitution of this week, and all other papers coming here for this place and for distribution in this section which, upon examination, were found to contain lottery advertisements. The officers of the Advertiser Company, of this city, were also required to give bond for their appearance at the November term of the United States Court for publishing last Sunday lottery advertisements, although they announced in their next issue that having learned that the law became operative at once, lottery advertisements would not be again inserted in their columns.

Ladies Phaetons, Surries and Jump seats, Carload of wagons, one and two horse, heavy and light. Prices to suit the closest buyers. Come in and see them.
OWEN, BARBOUR & SMITH.

Lemons, Oranges, Cocoanuts, Bananas received today at Oxford Drug Store.
JOHN P. STEDMAN.

REV. DR. LAFFERTY.

Will Lecture Here Oct. 3--Henry Grady's Opinions of Him.

Henry W. Grady said last year of Dr. Lafferty's lecture at the Georgia Chautauqua: "Everybody who heard him will make affidavit that there is nothing funnier in Cervantes, Mark Twain, Bill Nye, or any humorist living or dead. A more amused and interested audience never heard a more original man. When they were not laughing, they were applauding, and when they were not applauding, they were listening as if their lives were depending on what was said."

Dr. Lafferty will lecture at the Opera House on Friday night of next week. His subject will be, "Progress of a Century." Of this lecture, Dr. Lafferty says: "This is a twin brother of the lecture delivered in Oxford three years ago, but without repeating that lecture."

State Fair.

The time for holding the State Fair is rapidly drawing near. Also the work of preparation is as rapidly going forward. Words of good cheer and encouragement reached the managers from all parts of the State. Everything combined promises a large attendance, and a large and good exhibition to satisfy and instruct all who go.

Amusements of a big character are being provided, and all who desire entertainments or fun can have a large amount for little money.

An Accident on the L. & D. Road.

Durham Globe.

Last night about 8 o'clock, while the material train was passing through a cut near Eno river, six or seven miles from this place, for some reason, not yet explained, the foremost part of the shanty car jumped the track. George Cooper, the colored cook, leaped from the car and the rear end swung around and mashed him against the embankment. His death was almost instantaneous. Mr. R. E. Lee, a white man, leaped from the car at the same time, and was quite painfully injured, though not seriously. A darkey was fast asleep in the next car when the accident occurred and knew nothing of it. The screams and yells half awoke him, and he rushed to the door and jumped head foremost into a big pile of rocks. His head and face were badly bruised.

John P. Stedman's stock of drugs, medicines, spices, toilet and fancy articles is complete. Give him a call. New goods received every day.
