NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

Work has been started on B. F.
Taylor's new residence.

Chief of Police Renn is wearing his new and handsome uniform.

The Democratic county canvas will begin next Monday at Clay.

It is probable that Prof. Sherwood, the noted pianist, will give a concert in Oxford sometime during the month of November.

A new and large line of Johann Faber's imported pencils, of superior make and all colors, can be found at the Oxford Book Store. See new advertisement.

Two or three Sundays ago Rev. W.
L. Cuninggim was to have preached a special sermon to the ladies, but it was postponed on account of inclement weather. This sermon will be delivered tomorrow morning.

The case of Commissioners of Granville vs Commissioners of Vance was argued in the State Supreme Court yesterday by Graham & Winston for the plaintiffs and C. M. Cooke, T. M.
Pittman and Fuller & Snow for the defendants.

First-class theatrical performances at popular prices at the Opera House next Monday and Tuesday night.
The Minnie Seward Company is highly praised by the papers in North Carolina towns where they have appeared. They give clean, number one, enjoyable entertainments.

There was a small attendance at the meeting of the Oxford Literary Society last evening, many of the members being absent from the city. Splendid essays on Shakspeare's "Timon of Athens" were read by Miss Nina Horner and A. S. Grandy. W. T.
Lyon and C. J. Cooper read selections from the bard of Avon, and Miss Hyde and Miss Lizzie Hobgood entertained the Society with well rendered music.

The editor of the Boydton (Va.) News, W. C. Curtis, was in the city last week, and he writes in his paper: "Oxford has more than doubled its population and quadrupled its wealth in the past five years, and from present indications it will have a population of 15,000 or 20,000 when the next census is taken in 1900. New warehouses, stores, factories and dwellings are going up in every direction. Everybody seems to be moving and there are no loafers."

"Flossie" Monday Night.

Miss Minnie Seward appeared before a Durham audience Thursday night, and the Star of that city, says:

"Flossie" is a comedy drama with quite a mixture of situations. A good deal of humor runs through the play too.

Minnie Seward is a very attractive little actress full of energy and vigor, and throws a naturalness into her characters which wins for her the applause of her audience. We haven't space to go into detail with every character. The company is an entertaining one. They play well. The comedy characters were too laughable to describe, and kept the house in a roar of laughter.

This Company give as refined plays as you will find upon the stage.
There is nothing vulgar or objectionable said or done. All is on a high order.

Will be at Oxford Opera House next Monday and Tuesday nights, October 20 and 21. Popular prices—25, 35 and 50 cents, the latter for reserved seats. Box sheet at J. G. Hall's drugstore.

Be sure to call and see the Mantel Bedstead at
J. A. WEBB'S,
The Furniture Dealer.

at the Armory this morning to devise means of raising money for the Granville Grays Cornet Band. Mrs. H.
M. Lanier was called upon to preside.

It was decided to give an entertainment in the Opera House next Thursday night. The program will include a sale of old maids, songs, recitations, etc. Ice cream and cakes will be offered for sale. Admission ten cents.

The ladies will assemble again in the Armory at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon to complete arrangements.

Did Brower Up.

At Madison, the Greensboro Democrat says, Brower charged Williams with having hired the negro Moore to run and said if the force bill was a law he would have substantial evidence enough to put Williams in the penitentiary for it. Williams denounced the charge as a falsehood, and stated that he had positive evidence enough to put Brower in the penitentiary without the aid of the infamous force bill.

At Maniste, Mich., the R. G. Peters Salt and Lumber Company failed with liabilities undoubtedly in the millions. No statement of assets or liabilities can be given as yet, but the former are about $3,000,000 and the latter about $1,000,000. It is the biggest crash in the State for many years and comes from a source least expected.

Primus Jones, colored, was killed Sunday morning at Sumpter, S. C.
A protracted meeting was being held by the negroes at Beulah church, and the greatest excitement prevailed.
Deputy coroner S. A. Norris held the inquest at the church. The testimony showed that, in a perfect frenzy of fanaticism, Jones was killed by Rev.
A. H. Durant, the negro pastor, and one Richard Campbell, a prominent member of the church, because the deceased had expressed his doubts about the supernatural power of Durant to kill and restore to life, and that was a test case, but the experiment failed.
A large number of Durant's congregation believed that he possessed supernatural power until he failed in this case. The finding was that Jones was murdered by Richard Campbell and A. H. Durant. The jury was composed of intelligent colored men, and the coroner complimented them on their verdict. The prisoners are in jail.

OPERA HOUSE.

To the Amusement Loving Public of Oxford.

In a few days, a young actress, Minnie Seward, will appear in your city.
She is not "the greatest actress" upon the stage, but a bright, intelligent little lady who has by her natural talents and much work achieved the right to be called a true artist. Judged by the ordinary standard, she has what some critics call faults, but these same faults, (if faults they are) are so gracefully committed that they seem at the worst weeds in blossom. She is the impersonation of unconscious grace—as natural as heaven's blue. You should see her—you will not feel that an evening has been lost. Miss Seward will present a brilliant repertoire of plays, chief among which are her own successful "Flossie," and "A Life for a Life."

The supporting company will consist of first-class artists, all selected from the principal metropolitan companies, and headed by the popular leading actor, Mr. Frederic Seward, each an artist of acknowledged reputation. The costuming will be appropriate, the stage settings elaborate, and no expense or labor spared by the management to present a strictly first class attraction, one worthy of its charming little star, and meriting the confidence and liberal patronage of an intelligent public.

It has been my sole aim to present the very best, and feeling sure that honest endeavors will ever win the approbation and esteem of the people, I have the honor to subscribe myself, the public's very obedient servant,
H. C. WITWER,
Business Manager of Miss Minnie Seward.

At the Opera House Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 20 and 21. Get tickets reserved at J. G. Hall's drugstore.

GALVESTON, TEX., March 10, 1888.

A. Behrends, Agent for Wm. Radam's Microbe Killer:

Dear Sir:—I have been suffering for years with a complication of disease which originated from a diseased liver. I had dysentery, bloody flux and internal tumors.
I consulted some of the most eminent physicians in the city and used their medicines for a long time without getting any relief. I was finally given up to die, when a friend advised me to try the Microbe Killer. As the last resort I gave it a trial, and the relief it gave me was wonderful. When I commenced to take the Microbe Killer I only weighed 86 pounds; my present weight is one hundred and forty six pounds, and I am restored to my usual good health.
