NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

This weather keeps the coal dealers busy.

In an industrial way Oxford is industriously hustling.

The Granville Grays Cornet Band was out serenading last night.

Regular meeting of Oxford Lodge, No. 103, I. O. O. F., tonight.

The Democratic legislative and county candidates are at Midway today.

Election one week from today and the nearer it approaches the greater the interest in politics.

The tobacco market today is lively.
Many farmers from this and neighboring counties in the city.

Chrysanthemum shows are the rage.
Oxford, to be in style, ought to show what it can do in the way of a chrysanthemum show.

Oxford's future is a roseate one.
The Queen of the Golden Belt is going to be a Queen among Southern towns indeed.

The typos got it badly mixed yesterday—that item about the Five B's.
It should have read this way: "Brower Badly Beaten By Baldy."

Rev. J. L. White had a large congregation to hear him preach at the Baptist church last night. Services every night this week at 7:30 o'clock.

Smith's "Tourists in a Pullman Palace Car" was booked for the Opera House for next Thursday night, October 30, but the indications are they will not keep the engagement.

The Granville Grays held a business meeting in the Armory last night, and instructed the treasurer to pay Prof.
Nelson one hundred dollars, money advanced by him for instruments for the Granville Grays Cornet Band.

The Republican leaders of the county are thoroughly alarmed at the prospects of defeat, and are putting their heads together and scheming as only radicals know how to scheme.
But it won't do them any good. A vigilant Democracy has its eyes in them.

THE DAY would respectfully suggest to the directors of the West Oxford Land Company that it would be a good idea to build two large wings to the Cherry Hill Mansion and convert it into a hotel. The situation is a beautiful one, and it would be a most attractive place for summer visitors from the South and winter visitors from the North.

Collision on the O. & C. Road.

The mail train from Raleigh this morning was about an hour late, and when it did put in an appearance the locomotive was badly smashed in front and minus its cowcatcher.

It appears that the mail collided with a freight at Durham. How it happened we could not learn, but from what we could gather the freight engineer was in fault. His engine was almost completely wrecked.

Fortunately no one was hurt by the accident.

Chewing Tobacco.

"Matinee"—You all know the brand.
Five boxes received today at The Oxford Drug Store.

JOHN P. STEDMAN.

Stoves For Sale.

Prof. Hobgood has a large lot of second-hand coal and wood stoves for sale. Apply wards. He is agent for Macneal & Ur-band's Iron Safes.

ing for Baltimore.

United States, was on the tobacco market today.

WATER WORKS.

A Representative of the Stanwix Engineering Co. Before the City Fathers.

The city commissioners held a special meeting last night and met again this morning.

J. W. Kitrell, representing the Stanwix Engineering Company, of Rome, N. Y., appeared before the board in reference to furnishing Oxford with a system of waterworks.
He received sufficient encouragement to warrant him to make a survey of the town and ascertain accurate cost of works, after which he will make a definite proposition to the city fathers.

Mr. Kittrell started immediately upon the work of surveying. He has already examined the neighboring streams, and says that the creek on which the old Gregory Mill was located will furnish sufficient water, suitable for domestic as well as other purposes, to supply a city the size of Richmond, Va.

The board last night instructed Chief of Police Renn to at once have signboards painted and put up on the street corners.

SOUTH OXFORD.

A HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLAR COTTON FACTORY.

Another Great Move of the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Co.—Reorganization.

South Oxford is to have a Hundred Thousand Dollar Cotton Factory!

The Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company held a meeting a few days ago, at which this important enterprise was determined upon.

The company, after distributing to each of its stockholders a lot, now owns one thousand lots 25x200 feet, and 900 lots 50x100 feet, and, in order to enhance the value of the company's lots as well as the lots heretofore distributed to the stockholders, the company proposes to build in addition to the factories already built upon the property, a cotton factory to cost one hundred thousand dollars. For that purpose it will issue fifty thousand dollars of the stock of the company, and will offer it first to the present stockholders, and the shares not taken by them will be sold to parties who are ready to take it.

This stock will be offered on the following basis, to wit:

Two shares of Land Company stock, par value fifty dollars each, $100.00; one share cotton factory stock par value fifty dollars, and one lot 25x200 feet, for one hundred and fifty dollars, payable as follows:

Twelve dollars ($12.50) and fifty cents cash; balance when called for by the company in $12.50 payments, not to be oftener than once a month, the the stock to be full payable and non-assessable.

When the stock is all placed there will remain in the hands of the company as assets two hundred lots valued at $64,500 and five hundred lots valued at $100,000; cotton factory stock $51,000; other stocks, dwellings, &c., $20,000; making the total assets $235,500.

If the company had no other source from which to derive revenue than from the factories located and proposed in South Oxford, there is no reason why these factories should not earn sufficient money to pay a fair dividend on the capital stock of $150,- 000, as it is well known that cotton factories pay from twelve to twenty-five per cent. per annum. But, in addition to the revenue expected from factories, it has nine hundred lots which will be disposed of for the benefit of stockholders at an amount, it is believed, larger than stated above.

The company's intention is not only to enhance the value of its own lots, in which every stockholder is interested, but also the lots now owned by its stockholders, and to bring this about, the factories will be scattered through the property so that every lot holder will receive an equal benefit from the building of the factories.

A re-election of officers took place at the recent meeting, with the following result:

President, H. C. Herndon.
Vice Presidents, C. M. Hawkins, N. A. Gregory, R. R. Roberts.
Treasurer, W. H. Hunt.
Secretary, W. C. Reed.
Directors, H. C. Herndon, W. C.
Reed, W. H. Hunt, J. B. Booth, M.
J. Hawkins, N. A. Gregory, C. M.
Hawkins, W. E. Owen.
Executive Committee, W. A. Davis, H. C. Herndon, W. C. Reed.

This is a stronger organization than before. Dr. Herndon, as president, is a tower of strength. M. J. Hawkins is an addition indeed to the directory. All of those holding offices are experienced, successful, trustworthy and energetic business men.

The work of developing South Oxford has but just started. Already many miles of broad streets have been graded, and factories and houses built; but we repeat what we said not long since, that that magnificent property will in the no distant future be dotted with factories, pierced by railroads and filled with dwellings.

A number of live canvassers will be started on the road tomorrow to sell the cotton factory stock. The investment is one of the best and safest ever offered.

FRESH FROM THE PRESS.

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere from Today's Papers.

Speaker Reed's Chicago audience numbered 16,000 persons.

Brooklyn police began a new census of that city yesterday morning.

Ellendale, North Dakota, people send word that they are in want. Crop failure two seasons running.

Ex-Pres. Cleveland made an argument in the U. S. Supreme Court yesterday, in the case of Peake vs. city of New Orleans. It is understood Mr. Cleveland will get a $50,000 fee out of the case.

At New Orleans yesterday, R. E.
Betts made 25 and 50 miles record on a safety bicycle. The 25 miles was covered in 1 hour, 32 minutes, 11 seconds, and the fifty miles in 3 hours, 12 minutes and 46 seconds.

A Wilson telegram, dated yesterday, says: Nine counties were represented here today at the meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Second District. J. M. Mewborne, of Lenoir, was nominated for Congress.

Peter Vickers is the wealthiest negro in Coffee county, Ga. He owns between 5,000 and 6,000 acres of land, and is a No. 1 farmer. His cotton is magnificent, perhaps the best in the county, and his corn crop is in good proportion. He will make $2,000 worth of produce this year.

A projected combine of Western cattlemen is for the ostensible purpose, as one of those interested in the deal puts it, of saving $6,000,000 a year by the association handling cattle with its own employees instead of paying 75 cents a head to broker and stock-yard company; also with the object of advancing prices for live cattle 30 per cent.

A desperate duel to the death was fought near Danielsville, Madison county, Ga., Saturday afternoon, in which William Saunders, a prominent planter, was killed, and William Martin, his neighbor, was fatally wounded.
For some time there had been bad blood between them. Each appeared at court as witnesses against the other, and several times serious difficulties have taken place between them.
