NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

The man who does not enthuse over the election returns is not a good Democrat.

B. K. Hays entertained a party of gentlemen friends with a sumptuous supper at his father's residence last night.

The Oxford Literary Society will meet to-night at the residence of J. W.
Hays, Sr. "King Lear" will be discussed.

The Oxford Book Store has samples of very handsome and stylish engraved stationery, and is taking orders for these goods.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered to quite a number of candidates at the Baptist church tomorrow evening at 4 o'clock.

The West Oxford Land Company is disposing of its stock very rapidly.
The daily average is between one and two thousand dollars' worth.

It was against the city ordinances to set off fireworks last night, and although the policemen kept a sharp lookout, they didn't catch many of the boys who violated the law.

The Public Ledger will change back to weekly. This is done at the request of its farmer subscribers, the majority of whom only go to the postoffice once a week for their mail.

Ten thousand dollars' worth of stock in the cotton factory of the Oxford Land Improvement and Manufacturing Company has been sold to people in the city in the past week. Good sales have been made elsewhere. It will not take many weeks to place all the shares.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

R. I. Rogers, of Durham, is in the city today.

Miss Eva Whitfield went to Warren county today.

A. G. Gump, of Baltimore, Md., is in Oxford today.

Fred. J. Crews and L. Thomas came from Raleigh this morning.

J. B. Roller returned yesterday afternoon from a visit to Chase City, Va.

Col. John Wimbish, of Halifax county, Va., is in the city visiting his son, F. B. Wimbish.

B. F. Taylor left this morning to see his family, who are staying at Franklinton until his new residence is completed.

Williams' Majority.

Capt. A. H. A. Williams' majority is increasing. It is learned officially that he carried Forsyth by 472, Guilford by 414 and Caswell by 12. At this rate of gain over the figures heretofore reported, his majority will reach 2,500.

Brower, with all his boasting and sharp political tricks, couldn't carry a single county in the district.

A Mad Cat.

A cat, supposed to have been mad, was killed near the Meadows Warehouse this morning. The animal attempted to bite every person it came across, and in its frenzy even bit savagely at the wooden fences along the street. It succeeded in getting its teeth into a colored child before a bullet from a pistol put it to eternal rest.

For Rent.

Two rooms on first floor. Suitable for dressmakers. Apply to this office.

Just In.

Handsome line of Seal Plush and Astrakan Capes just in store. See them.

SERENADING THE VICTORS.

Music, Fireworks and Enthusiasm-- Speeches by Williams and Winston.

The Democrats had something of a jubilee over their great victory, in Oxford last night. The Granville Grays' Cornet Band headed a procession of enthusiastic citizens and marched to the residence of Capt. A. H. A. Williams, Democratic Congressman-elect.

When his beautiful lawn was reached, the band struck up a patriotic tune; the boys sent up sky-rockets, fired roman candles, and exploded giantcrackers, and the men broke into wild yells and cheers. After several pieces of music were rendered, there was a great cry for "Williams," and the gallant Captain appeared on the front porch.

He made a brief, graceful speech, expressing his appreciation of the honor conferred upon him. He said it was not a gang of revenue officers and marshals, such as would have visited his competitor if successful, he saw before him, but patriotic, liberty-loving people. He congratulated them upon carrying the county, and gloried in the party's success, State and national.
"In 1892," he said, amid shouts of applause, "we will put Grover Cleveland in the White House again!"

Dr. E. T. White, Chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee, S. W. Cooper, Treasurer elect, Capt. John A. Williams and B. S.
Royster, were called upon for speeches, and each responded briefly and happily.

Then there was more music, and the band and people marched over to the other end of the city to pay their respects to Hon. R. W. Winston, next Superior Court Judge from the Fifth Judicial District.

Again fire works illuminated the skies and hearty hurrahs awoke the echoes of the night. Judge Winston came out in obedience to the invitation of the crowd. Of course, he said, being elected to a judicial office he could not make them a political speech. He spoke pleasantly a few minutes and retired.

This ended the demonstration. The procession returned down town and dispersed.

SUMMING IT UP.

GREAT DEMOCRATIC GAINS ALL OVER THE COUNTRY.

The Triumph is Not a Sectional One --It is a Tidal Wave, Sure--Seven Senators Probably Gained.

The Raleigh News-Observer this morning sums up the result of the election as follows:

New Hampshire—Democratic on popular vote. Democrats gain Governor, both congressmen, and elect the legislature, securing a Democratic Senator in place of Blair.

Massachusetts—Democratic on popular vote. Democrats gain Governor and four congressmen.

Rhode Island—Democratic on popular vote, gain both congressmen.

Connecticut—Democratic on popular vote, gain two congressmen.

New York—Gain five congressmen, and the Legislature, securing a United States Senator in place of Evarts.

New Jersey—Gain two congressmen.

Pennsylvania—Democratic Governor and gain three congressmen.

Ohio—Gain nine congressmen, and beat McKinley and Foster.

Illinois—Gain five congressmen, elect the legislature, which secures a Democratic successor to Senator Farwell.

Indiana—Gain one congressman.

Michigan—Gain Governor and six congressmen.

Wisconsin—Elect Peck Governor, four congressmen and a legislature, securing Vilas as successor to Senator Spooner.

Minnesota—Gains Governor and four Congressmen.

Iowa—Elect Democratic Governor and gain four Congressmen.

Kansas—Farmers' Alliance elect a Governor, gain six opposition Congressmen and legislature, which will elect some good man successor to Ingalls.

Nebraska—Gain Governor and two Congressmen.

In South Dakota the Farmers' Alliance have the legislature, which elects a successor to Senator Moody.

In Colorado, the Democrats claim the legislature, which elects a successor to Senator Teller.

Our count makes the House stand 96 Republicans; Democrats, including the Farmers' Alliance, 235. One vacancy in Rhode Island, where the election did not count. The Democrats have 139 majority.

The Republicans lose seven United States Senators apparently, with California yet to hear from.

FRESH FROM THE PRESS.

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere From Today's Papers.

Chicago is building a Masonic temple eighteen stories high.

J. B. Suttle, a student at Wake Forest, attempted suicide last week.

A grain elevator at Buffalo, N. Y., was burned yesterday. Loss $250,000.

The Teutonic, with Henry M. Stanley and party on board, arrived yesterday morning in New York.

Two of the leading hotels in San Francisco, Cal., were destroyed by fire Monday. Loss, $1,500,000.

Headman Clarkson is at Asheville, N. C. He blames bitterly the administration for the Republican defeat.

It is expected that the Governor's Mansion at Raleigh will be completed and ready for occupancy by January 1.

The Greensboro Daily Patriot will suspend tomorrow for want of sufficient patronage to sustain it. It is a good paper, and a valuable one to Greensboro.

The Philadelphia Record put the Democratic majority in the next Congress at 141. Such another victory never occurred in the political history of the United States.

The annual consumption of timber on railways in this country is computed at 500,000,000 cubic feet, requiring the cutting of the best timber from over 1,000,000 acres of forest land a year. The most significant point about this is that 20 per cent of the total annual consumption is taken from the young growth, and that 60 per cent of all railroad ties are oak, most valuable of all our timber.

The new sewerage system of the city of Worcester, Mass., is said to have been demonstrated to be an unqualified success. The sewerage is collected in large tanks, and when the work of chemical precipitation has been accomplished the effluent, which is discharged into the Blackstone River, is so pure that chemists say it might be drunk with safety. The system is in use in European cities, and the general verdict there is that its efficiency is unquestioned and its administration economical.

A special from Greensboro to the Charlotte Chronicle, Nov. 6, says: At half-past five this evening, as the crowd from the circus was entering the city, Sergeant Whittington attempted to arrest a negro woman in front of the Benbow House. A lively fight ensued, the policeman coming out the winner.
This enraged the large crowd of blacks that had come up to witness the fight.
Several negroes joined in the fight, and as many whites; and for a time it looked as if there would be a serious riot, as pistols, knives and sticks were brought into service, but coolness on the part of the police to some extent quieted the crowd.
