NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

Heavy tobacco breaks are looked for this week.

City commissioners will meet in the mayor's office tonight.

The Granville Grays resume their weekly drills this evening at 7:30.

More perfect autumnal days than these we are now enjoying were never seen.

Regular meeting of the Tobacco Board of Trade at the Opera House tonight.

Christmas isn't so dreadfully far off, boys. In the language of the Durham Globe, wait for it!

There will be a called meeting of Oxford Lodge, No. 396, A. F. & A.
M., tonight. Work in the third degree.

Oxonians, as well as sportsmen from the north, are having a fine time killing partridges in the neighborhood of Stovall.

In the presence of a large congregation, Saturday afternoon, twenty-six persons were baptised by immersion at the Baptist church.

The excitement over the election is subsiding somewhat. The Democratic victory is not now the sole and only topic of conversation.

The agents of the West Oxford Land Company are making big daily returns of sales. Virginians are investing largely in this enterprise.

Ye Olde Folks Concert will present the people of a hundred years ago in their songs, music and costumes. It will be well worth seeing.

It is reported that a prominent lawyer in eastern North Carolina, formerly solicitor of his district, contemplates moving to Oxford at an early day.

Judge R. W. Winston will preside at the term of Wake County Superior Court in January. Hogue, the policeman indicted for murder, will be tried then.

Turkeys—and fine ones, too—are being brought to the city for sale.
The toothsome birds are seasonable.
Thanksgiving Day is a little over two weeks off.

Remember THE DAY is the best medium for advertisers to reach the Oxford people. About everybody in the city reads it. Its circulation has increased one fourth within the last month.

The election is over. Now altogether, fellow citizens, to build up Oxford!
The same energy and unanimity exhibited at the polls will make our little city grow and prosper most wonderfully.

There is a saying, as the November winds blow so will those of January.
If Old Boreas sleeps as soundly in January as he is sleeping today the coal man will be the only one who will make peppery remarks about him.

The Republicans in Granville county in the late campaign, wanted to know "who tied the pig?" From the result of the election we should say it was Brower. And he couldn't save his political bacon with a stout rope around the porker.

Those who do not read newspapers often get left and deserve their fate.
The Dallas Eagle says: "We understand that some people, who do not take any newspapers, thought that the election came off Thursday instead of Tuesday, and consequently lost their votes."

The newspapers of the State are calling upon the people to come to the immediate relief of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. The little fatherless ones need help and need it at once, for the hard, cold winter is coming on and the money on hand is insufficient to carry them through.

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Doings and Whereabouts of Some People You Know.

C. D. Osborn is back from a visit to Raleigh.

W. H. Osborn, of Durham, was in the city yesterday.

Willie Lunsford, of Durham, spent yesterday in Oxford.

We regret to learn that Jas. B.
Meadows is very sick.

Rev. Dr. R. H. Marsh left this morning on the northbound train.

J. T. Strayhorn left yesterday for Hillsboro, to be absent several days.

R. E. Couch, of Roxboro, is in town on a visit to his father's family.

Ed. Ward, of Franklinton, is in the Oxford visiting his brother, C. J.
Ward.

J. G. Hall left this morning for New York to buy a big stock of Christmas goods for his store.

Alex. Satterwhite, of Vance county, is spending a few days with his friends here. Everybody knows "Sat" and he has the freedom of the city.

Miss Phoebe Pegram, who was here visiting Mrs. G. L. W. Pegram, left this morning for her home in Warren county.

Supt. R. R. Bridgers, of the N. C. division of the R. & D. R. R., came to the city this morning to see about the construction of the track to South Oxford.

Our young townsman, W. A. Devin, who has been at Lexington, Ky., several months taking the commercial course in the University of Kentucky, passed a successful examination last week and obtained his diploma. He will remain there some time longer perfecting himself in stenography.

A. S. Grandy took his departure this morning to take up his residence in the West. Mr. Grandy is a young lawyer of culture, talent and promise, and THE DAY'S best wishes go with him. While we are sorry to lose him as a citizen of Oxford, we trust he will find fame and fortune in his new home.

Improvement Notes.

The Oxford Knitting Mills are starting off finely. The new hands are learning rapidly.

It is understood that the Oxford Land, Improvement and Manufacturing Company's new $100,000 cotton factory will be located in about the centre of South Oxford. This will make all the lots over there valuable.

Work on the new track to South Oxford will be commenced tomorrow.
The force of hands is already organized ready to start with the rising of the sun. Supt. Bridgers and an engineer are going over the route today.

Ye Olde Folks Concert.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will give a very fine entertainment at the Opera House next Friday night.

It is something out of the usual order and will carry one back to the days long ago. The best amateur musical talent in the city will take part in it.

Ye Olde Folks Concert will amuse you and delight your ears with good music.

Large stock sporting goods at J. F. Edwards.

Apples 10 cents a dozen. Couch's drugstore.

Guns, rifles and pistols at J. F. Edwards.

Samples of Carpet.

I will have on exhibit for ten days a large and beautiful assortment of samples of carpet, from one of the largest manufacturers.
Prices way down. Buy now, for carpets will be higher. Jos. A. WEBB.

For Sale.

I will sell on reasonable terms, my cottage residence situated on Lanier street.
It is nearly new.
J. A. LEWIS, Oxford, N. C.

Grapes 10 cents a lb. Couch's drugstore.

Shannon's Standard File and Pen Ex-tractor combined—25 cents—at Oxford Book Store.

Oranges 25 cts. a dozen. Couch's drugstore.

THE LATEST NEWS.

SIFTED AND ARRANGED FOR THE BUSY READER.

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere as Gathered from Today's Exchanges.

Raleigh has just organized a West Side Land Company.

The election was quiet, orderly, fair all over North Carolina.

The Seaboard Air Line contemplates putting on Sunday passenger trains.

Chas. A. Dana, of the New York Sun, is spoken of as successor to Senator Evarts.

The Knights of Labor order is growing in eastern North Carolina, principally among the negroes.

Cheatham, Rep., is elected to Congress from the Second North Carolina District by a majority of 1,220.

Rev. Dr. Taylor, president, is trying to raise an additional $75,000 endowment for Wake Forest College.

It was rumored Friday that John Wanamaker, the merchant prince, had failed. The truth of the rumor is denied.

Every house in Jeffersonville, Ind., a town of four hundred inhabitants, was destroyed by fire one day last week.

McKinley was burned in effigy in London last week. The French people, too, are expressing their hatred of the arch-protectionist.

The Baptist State Convention meets next Tuesday at Shelby. Col. L. L.
Polk is its president, but he will not be able to attend. Rev. G. W. San-derlin, the first vice president, will call the body to order.

The great scheme of laying bare the bed of Feather river, the large-est mining operation ever undertaken in California, is now assured, as within two days samples of gravel have yielded richly, and the manager confidently expects to gather in from $10-000,000 to $15,000,000.

A Warrenton, N. C., special of the 8th to the Raleigh State Chronicle says: While walking up Main street last night, Alfred Plummer, of Middleburg, was assaulted and robbed by George Jones, colored, who has been in the penitentiary for five years. Jones was arrested this morning and all the stolen articles found upon his person. Our whole population is much incensed at the outrage.

The Philadelphia Record says: It now looks as if New York, New Hampshire, Illinois, Kansas, South Dakota and Wisconsin would send Democratic Senators in place of Republicans to the Fifty-Second Congress. Even the majority of two in the upper House thus left to the Republicans is a most uncertain quantity, for there is information from Colorado which cast at least a shade of doubt on Senator Teller's chances of return.
If that doubt should materialize the Senate would be tied.

The Richmond Times' New York correspondent writes: The election is over and everybody is glad that the bitter war that has been raging in the city for the past two months has ended.
Now, according to law, every candidate must, within ten days, file with the county clerk an itemized statement showing in detail all the moneys contributed or expended by him, directly or indirectly, by himself or through any other persons, in aid of his election. If this law is complied with, there will be some tall swearing, and a good deal of perjuring.

Couch's drugstore. Best in the World.

RICHMOND TOBACCO MARKET.

Sales Dull--Offset of Deliveries and Receipts.

[Correspondence of THE DAY.]

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 8.—The market continues very dull with only an occasional sale of a package or two of bright tobacco. Holders do not appear to be at all weak kneed, but there is scarcely any demand and the only thing left for them to do is to wait.

Some large sales of dark tobacco have been made recently. So far very little West Virginia bright tobacco has been offered, but in a short time it will begin to come in quite freely, as will also loose dark raised in the counties near the city. This is all taken very readily by our manufacturers.

Receipts and shipments for several days have about offset each other.

Thursday, November Twenty-Seventh, Set for Thanksgiving Day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The following was issued today:

By the President of the United States. A proclamation.

By the grace and favor of Almighty God the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of the passing year, which has been full of blessings, of peace, of comforts and of plenty, and bountiful compensation has come to us for the work of our minds and our hands, in every department of human industry. Now therefore, I Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Thursday, 27th day of the present month of November, to be observed as a day of prayer and thanksgiving; and I do invite people upon that day to come from their labors to meet in their accustomed houses of worship, and to join in rendering gratitude and praise to our beneficent Creator for the rich blessings he has given to us as a nation, and in invoking a continuance of his protection and grace for the future. I commend to my fellow-citizens the privilege of remembering the poor, homeless and sorrowful. Let us endeavor to merit the promised recompense of charity and gracious acceptance of our praise. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this eighth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and of the independence of the United States one hundred and fiftieth.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

JAMES G. BLAINE,
Secretary of State.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had children, she gave them Castoria.
