NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

Another newspaper is to be started in Oxford very soon.

The Granville Grays Cornet Band will soon don gray uniforms.

The Orphans' Friend will appear this week in a handsome new dress.

Oxford Lodge, No. 103, I. O. O.
F., initiated a new member last night.

By the way of a reminder: Those street corner signboards have not been put up yet.

Chief of Police Renn requests us to ask the person who borrowed the town's well hooks to please return them at once.

There will be services at the Methodist church at 7:15 o'clock tonight.
A full meeting of the stewards is desired after services.

Miss Lollie Corbett, a former pupil of the Oxford Female Seminary, and Lucien G. Cole will be married in Durham at five o'clock this afternoon.

Make up your minds now that you are going to Ye Olde Folks Concert next Friday night, and prepare yourselves for an evening of rare enjoyment.

Owing to Ye Olde Folks Concert coming off next Friday night, the Oxford Literary Society will meet on Monday night, November 17. Members of the society will please take notice.

The warehouses of Oxford will have next Friday a special sale of eastern North Carolina tobacco. Three solid carloads for this sale arrived in the city this morning, and a number more are expected tomorrow.

THE DAY feels sure that the suggestion made by a correspondent, for a Thanksgiving Day dinner to the little children of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, will be favorably received and acted upon by the ladies of Oxford.

Write-Up of Oxford.

The New York Tobacco Leaf of last week contains entire the article on Oxford that recently appeared in the Richmond Dispatch. In addition, it gives a list of the tobacco tradesmen of our city, furnished by W. E. Dibrell, of the Southern Tobaccoist.

Oxford as a great golden leaf market and a thriving little city is thus extensively advertised, and on behalf of our citizens we make due acknowlegement of favors to Capt. T. D. Jeffress, writer of the article; Mr. D. brell for securing for it such wide circulation, and the Tobacco Leaf for placing it before its thousands of readers.

Rev. J. T. Harris Taken Suddenly Ill.

The Durham Globe of yesterday afternoon says: "In the midst of the general rejoicing everywhere displayed in the city to-day, the Globe is pained to record a sad incident which has brought trouble to many hearts. Rev.
J. T. Harris, superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, who came over this morning to take part in the exercises, was taken suddenly ill while on the grounds and his friends were made anxious for his recovery."

A handsome Bailey Copying Press can be bought at a sacrifice at the Oxford Book Store.

New line of extra wide legal cap at the Oxford Book Store.

Just In.

Handsome line of Seal Plush and Astrakan Capes just in store. See them, HART & LAWRENCE.

If you want a frame made for a crayon oil painting, or any kind of picture, go to Brinkley's Photograph Gallery.

Grapes 10 cents a lb. Couch's drugstore.

KNOTT-HOBGOOD.

Marriage of a Popular Young Couple This Morning.

This morning, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends, Geo.
W. Knott, one of our popular and successful young tobaccoists, was married to Miss Sallie Hobgood, the pretty and accomplished daughter of A. Hobgood.

The ceremony was performed precisely at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. J. S.
Hardaway in the parlor of the residence of the bride's father. A beautiful floral arch was erected in the room.

The attendants were: W. T. Lawrence and Miss Lela Routon; A. S.
Davis and Miss Lonie Currin; J. T.
Thomas and Miss Eva Currin; S. H.
Smith and Miss Luey Hobgood; C.
D. Ray and Miss Annie Bryant; H.
T. Knott and Miss Lula Currin.

Mr. and Mrs. Knott received many and valuable presents. They took the eleven o'clock train for a visit to Washington—the Mecca of the newlymarried—and other northern cities.

THE DAY tenders its congratulations and good wishes to the young couple.

Thanksgiving Dinner for the Orphans.

EDITOR OF THE DAY.—The interest
THE DAY manifests for the Oxford Orphan Asylum is highly commendable.

Please request the ladies of Oxford and Granville county to give the orphans a home dinner on Thanksgiving. It has been a long time since the children had a feast prepared, and it will be so appropriate on this day to make the little ones happy. Oxford only needs a head to advance good deeds, and with the many efficient ladies that have proved their zeal not any one more capable to preside over a thanks offering for the orphans than the wife of our honored Congressman A. H. A. Williams.

Start the move and success will crown the efforts under her wise and skillful management. In the words of Holy Writ it can be truly written of her: "She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy."

THE LATEST NEWS.

SIFTED AND ARRANGED FOR THE BUSY READER.

Happenings in North Carolina and Elsewhere as Gathered from Today's Exchanges.

The Pennsylvania railroad desires to purchase the Seaboard Air Line and is making propositions looking to that end. This was learned upon high authority.

The Philadelphia Democratic city committee expelled Peter Monroe and Wm. McMillen, leaders in the third and fourth wards, for alleged treach-ery to the party at the recent election.

China is a country where disasters involving the loss of hundreds of lives are common. Last week, at Tai Ping Fu, where are located the government powder mills, an explosion occurred killing three hundred men, besides wounding many others.

A contract has been awarded for safety bicycles for the use of the Washington letter-carriers. The machines are provided with pouches in front for the mail collection. As the streets of Buffalo are likewise paved with asphalt, it is likely that the bicycle will next be used by the carriers of that city.

Greensboro special to the Raleigh News-Observer: Bartine's Circus, a small wagon show, which has been traveling through the State for some time, made an assignment today to E.
D. Steele, mayor of High Point, where it exhibited last night. The elephant, camels and other paraphernalia were shipped here today and quartered pending the sale.

A dispatch from Graham, Texas, says: Every peace officer in this county is in jail, having been indicted by the United States grand jury for participation, either actively or passively, in the famous mob which assaulted the jail to hang three murderers. The trial of three members of the mob is going on. Twenty-five special United States deputies guard the jail, but the town is full of determined citizens armed with Winchester's who say the United States Court may convict but their neighbors shall not suffer the penalty. A riot will be precipitated by conviction.

There were heavy financial crashes in New York yesterday. C. M. Whitney, a prominent member of the Stock Exchange, suspended. His liabilities are not given. He was connected with a New Orleans bank and other enterprises, which are not effected by the failure. Decker, Howell & Co., and David Richmond, members of same exchange, also went under. The liabilities of Decker & Co. is about ten millions; assets at present market prices exceed that sum. J. T. Walker & Co., importers of silks and furs, of New York, made an assignment. Liabilities, $1,100,000.

A Wake Forest correspondent of the Raleigh Chronicle writes: Saturday night the house of S. R. Gill, an old gentleman who lives about six miles from here, out towards the Falls of Neuse, was entered and Mr. Gill knocked down, robbed of a hundred and fifty dollars and left for dead. The parties, however, failed to accomplish their dastardly design for Mr. Gill was not killed, but recognized, as he said, all the persons, and identified them afterwards as Sam Daniels, Fon.
Jones, Joe Davis and Joe Martin.
Search was immediately made and resulted in the finding of the first three; who are now here under arrest, but Joe Martin has not been found.

son and J. Eli Gregg, prominent farmers of South Carolina, are in the city today with tobacco to sell.

Nickle in North Carolina.

Wilmington Star.

The demand for nickle to be used in plating our war ships has led to the inquiry whether it could be found in any considerable quantities in this country. Heretofore our supplies of nickle have been imported from Canada. It was reported a couple of weeks ago that extensive deposits were discovered in Southwest Virginia, but the place for the time being was kept a secret. The New York Sun quotes Major E. Willis as saying that this is probably a mistake, and that reference was made to North Carolina, where he is reliably informed that the ore is found equaling in quality that found in Canada. The deposit, which he says is inexhaustible, is located in Jackson county, near Webster, and within four miles of the Western N. C. railroad.
The ore analyzes from 11 to 32 per cent. metallic nickle. The United States wants a million pounds of nickle ore for the Navy, and he sees no reason why it can't be got there.
That's another mineral which we didn't know that North Carolina had, which reminds us of the fact, which we have observed heretofore, that North Carolina is very much in need of a first class geological survey.
