PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY) AT HERNDON BLOCK NO. 1.

H. W. KRONHEIMER, Editor.

Subscription: 10 cents a week. Furnished to city subscribers by carriers, who will make weekly collections. 40 cents per month if paid in advance.

Our advertising rates are very low—for one week, or six insertions, about the same as charged by weekly newspapers for one time. Having a thorough city circulation, and reaching daily a number of post-offices in this and surrounding counties, it is a splendid advertising medium.

Legal advertisements, such as administrators' and executors' notices, commissioners' and trustees' sales, summonses to non-residents, etc., will be charged for at legal rates, except when they exceed a certain limit of space, in which case we reserve the right to fix our own price. All such business must be PAID FOR IN ADVANCE. The charge is very small and we cannot afford to take risks or wait the pleasure of persons to pay.

The Richmond Times explains why raising funds for the Jefferson Davis monument has ceased. An organization was effected in Richmond last December for the purpose of soliciting contributions for the fund. Enough money was quickly secured, to insure the success of the movements, from the various Southern States and from men in the North, and Mayor Ellyson "wrote to Mrs. Davis, asking her if she would agree to the monument being erected in the by-gone capital of the Confederacy, which for so long was the object of her illustrious husband's watchful solicitude. Mrs. Davis replied that she was then unable to decide where she would give her consent for the monument to be placed, as both Mississippi and Louisiana had presented urgent claims for it, and requested Mr. Ellyson to wait twelve months, by which time she would decide. This somewhat arrested the activity in Virginia in raising the money, as the contributions had been made with the view of erecting the monument here. This accounts for the seemingly abandonment of the project. It will, however, be renewed when Mrs. Davis shall have been heard from, with the usual interest, and the necessary amount will at once be raised. Southern patriotic leaders hope to have it erected by the time one to Grant is completed in the North."

HON. J. M. BROWER has instituted suit for libel against Gilliam & Oliver, proprietors of the Reidsville Review. The Review, during the recent campaign, charged Mr. Brower with having burned his tobacco factory at Mt. Airy to get the insurance money.

THE news comes from New York that Jay Gould contemplates getting control of all the railroad systems of the United States.

HON. A. H. A. WILLIAMS says he was elected to Congress to represent this district by a majority of 1,940. Mr. Brower carried only one county—Stokes by 37 majority.

THIS pension business is "peculiar." A Republican newspaper says that every dead Union soldier is represented by twenty-five widows.

THEY have about settled it in New York State that Governor Hill will succeed Mr. Evarts as United States Senator.

THE next legislature will do the State an immense service by ordering a geological survey.

OXFORD'S greatest need—most pressing need—is a system of waterworks.

THE Week in Trade Circles. Philadelphia Record.

Commercial affairs during the last week have necessarily reflected in some degrees the disturbing effect of the financial stringency and the enforced liquidation in the speculative markets. While no large mercantile or industrial interests have been directly affected by the disasters that have overtaken the Stock Exchange speculators and the promoters and backers of various schemes of investment, the monetary crisis has nevertheless had its influence on the commercial markets. The constriction of loans has promoted greater conservatism, and there has been a general and prudent shortening of sail for the financial storm to blow over. Domestic trade and industry, however, have continued on a sound basis. Export business in some lines has been hampered by the demoralization of the market for foreign exchange; but the interior movement of merchandise has been of good proportions for this late stage of the fall season, and the activity of leading industries has been unchecked by the disturbances that have temporarily halted the development of new manufacturing enterprises. The failures during the last week throughout the United States and Canada aggregated 247, an increase of 23 over the total of the preceding week.

Rev. Dr. W. S. Black, New Superintendent of the Orphan Asylum. Raleigh News-Observer.

Dr. Black was born in Cokesbury, S. C., August 31st, 1836. His father died when he was only four years old and he was reared by a pious Methodist mother. He was educated at Cokesbury Conference School. He was converted when he was fourteen years of age and was received into the South Carolina Conference in 1855. He was transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1870 and has ever since been one of its most active members. He has served on missions, circuits and stations, and for a number of years as Presiding Elder. He has been Presiding Elder in the following districts: Wilmington, Charlotte, Salisbury, Durham and Raleigh. He was about ten years ago pastor of Edenton street M. E. Church of this city. During the war he served a chaplain of the Twenty-Sixth South Carolina Regiment. He was for six years one of the editors of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, retiring from that position only to give his undivided attention to the work of the ministry. He has been a member of every General Conference since 1874, and during the last General Conference he was prominently mentioned and received a very fine vote for the book agency of the Southern Methodist Church.
