PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY) AT HERNDON BLOCK NO. 1.

H. W. KRONHEIMER, Editor.

Subscription: 10 cents a week. Furnished to city subscribers by carriers, who will make weekly collections. 40 cents per month if paid in advance.

Our advertising rates are very low—for one week, or six insertions, about the same as charged by weekly newspapers for one time. Having a thorough city circulation, and reaching daily a number of post-offices in this and surrounding counties, it is a splendid advertising medium.

Legal advertisements, such as administrators' and executors' notices, commissioners' and trustees' sales, summons to non-residents, etc., will be charged for at legal rates, except when they exceed a certain limit of space, in which case we reserve the right to fix our own price. All such business must be PAID FOR IN ADVANCE. The charge is very small and we cannot afford to take risks or wait the pleasure of persons to pay.

OXFORD, N. C.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1890.

The Richmond Times says that Senator J. W. Daniel, of Virginia, in a masterly speech in the Senate Tuesday on the force bill, "sounded the note of general alarm when he showed that if it ever becomes a law it will strike a vital blow at the very foundation of the Republic. At first, under the specious pretence of securing honesty and fair votes in elections, it promises to take charge of the election of the State representatives; then the next step would be Federal supervision of United States Senators, since Senators are as much members of Congress and Federal officers as are Representatives. This would mean nothing more nor less than Federal supervision of the State Legislature who elect United States Senators, and finally the control of the election of the members of the Legislature themselves." Speaker Reed and his confederates are capable of wrecking the Republic and building an Empire upon the ruins.

The financier of the Raleigh News and Observer explains it in this way: "One of the conundrums of the hour is what has become of all the money which the United States government has paid out of the Treasury in recent months, and the answer is easy. The people have it. They have made good crops, and having sold such a part of their products as they pleased, have paid their debts and the residue they have put in their pockets. In bad crop years, or when the people are largely in debt, they quickly pay out all the money they receive and it goes right back into the channels of trade; but this year, after the farmers had paid their debts, they put their surplus money in their pockets, and there it remains."

The New York World puts in a good word for Senator Zeb Vance. It says that "he is too able a man and too experienced a legislator and debater to be spared from Congress. He may not agree with the farmers at all points, but he will do them more good in the Senate than any new man whom they can elect." The majority of white North Carolinians agree fully with the World, and there is no doubt about Senator Vance succeeding himself. Many think he will be re-elected by acclamation.

The Republican Senators have had a caucus, the practical result of which is that the force bill will be shelved and some financial measure—probably Senator Plumb's free silver coinage bill—will be taken up.

BOSTON had a municipal election this week, and elected Mathews, Democrat, over Republican and Prohibition candidates, by a plurality of 12,319.

SENATOR WADE HAMPTON is seventy two years of age. When he saved his State from the Republican cormorants in 1876 a grateful people sang: "Shout the glad tidings from mountain to sea; Hampton has triumphed, Carolina is free!" Now an ungrateful people turn their backs upon the old hero.

The richest man in Europe is worth $50,000,000. There are a half dozen men in the United States worth more than that sum. Rockafellow's wealth is estimated at $125,000,000 and Jay Gould's pile reaches in the vicinity of $100,000,000.

THERE is some chance of a bill passing this Congress granting copyright to foreign authors.
