NOTES OF THE DAY.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS SERVED IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

The Minor Events About the City as Gathered by the Alert Reporters of The Day.

Merry Christmas to you!
The outlook is for beautiful weather for Christmas.

Balloons are being sent up nightly from Hall's drugstore.

The Christmas rates on the railroads go into effect today.

The stores are crowded today and have extra salesmen employed.

Chief of Police Renn says he is going to stay with the boys tonight.

Two Oxford young men contemplate seeking their fortune in Texas.

It was at J. W. Markham's store Sharp attempted to pass the forged check.

Reserved seats for the grand concert Friday night are for sale at J. G. Hall's drugstore.

The postoffice, the banks and the railroad freight depot will be closed tomorrow.

Oxford will have theatrical and other public amusements every night of the holidays.

A small tract of land, of seven acres, was sold under mortgage at auction today, and fetched $94.

Christmas Day is brighter than THE DAY, and so our light will go out until the holiday season is over.

For the information of anyone who may be ignorant of the fact, THE DAY rises to remark that tomorrow is Christmas day.

Semi-annual election of officers of Oxford Lodge, No. 103, I. O. O. F., will take place at regular meeting next Tuesday night.

The Episcopal Church will have services tomorrow. The interior of the church has been handsomely decorated for the holidays.

The smell of powder will assail the nostrils tonight and the noise of the giant cracker and dynamite baby waker will startle nervous people.

A rare musical treat is offered the Oxford public in the concert by Madame Fry's Company at the Opera House next Friday night, December 26.

Many visitors from neighboring towns are expected to attend the german given by the Glucklich Club next Friday night. It will be a brilliant society event.

The many marriage licenses issued from the register of deeds office this week has brought a very pleased expression to Jeff Daniel's face, and made a number of loving couples very, very happy.

The large new building in South Oxford for the Modern Tobacco Barn Company is finished. The barn manufacturing plant will be removed here from High Point sometime next month.

A Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says that the new superintendent, Dr. Black, has gone to Newbern to secure a well-informed man to take charge next year of the truck farm at the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Gen. W. T. Meadows will organize a branch of the Old Batchelors Club at Tom Waller's room this evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp. All the candidates for initiation will present themselves and be prepared to ride the goat. A charter has been obtained from Col. Al Fairbrother, of the Durham Globe.

Baggage Hauled.

People who want baggage hauled will please call on the porter at the Osborn House. Will haul it anywhere in the city at all hours.

School.

I will open a school on the Kir dergarten plan for girls and boys on the first Monday in January, 1891, at the residence of Dr. J. B. Williams. MISS TEMPE WILLIAMS.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Madame Fry's Concert Company and New York Theatre Company.

The concert at the Opera House Friday night, December 26, by the Madame Fry's Concert Company, ought to draw a full house. Those who enjoy good music, vocal and instrumental, and reading and recitation by an elocutionist of reputation, should attend by all means. Such an opportunity is rarely offered in Oxford.

The Worcester (Mass.) Daily Telegram says: "The concert season, appropriate of the long, dreary nights of winter, was fairly set agoing last evening in Mechanics Hall. The Fry Concert Company, of Boston, provided the entertainment, and an excellent one it was. Perhaps the most delightful item in the whole program was the vocal quartette, 'Legends.' It is one of the most musical and catching compositions that Mohring ever wrote, and Madame Fry and her daughters did every justice. It is scarcely necessary to add that it was enthusiastically encored. Miss Lulu Fry's flute solo was one of the delights of the evening, and in response to an enthusiastic encore the fair musician gave a lively rendering of 'The Last Rose of Summer.'

A GOOD COMPANY.

The New York Theatre Company last night opened an engagement in Durham with the play, "Man and Master."

The Sun says of the troupe and performance: "The New York Theatre Company is a good one. Every member plays well. 'Man and Master' was given last evening in an enjoyable manner. The company possesses genuine merit and very general satisfaction was expressed when the end was reached. Miss Helen Minkley, as Chick, was winsome and captivated the audience. Tony Bregazzi, as Larry, is a most excellent comedian and in all other plays he will be looked for with great interest. The other characters are all worthy of special mention, which our space forbids today."

The New York Theatre Company will be in Oxford three nights next week, beginning Monday night, December 29. Popular prices—15, 25 and 35 cents—will obtain. It is composed of ten good actors, and is highly spoken of by the Raleigh and Wilmington press.

A Few Christmas Don't's.

Don't shoot roman candles at people and houses. You may set the houses on fire; at any rate, you will deface them. You may hurt somebody and somebody in return may hurt you with a club. Shoot either very low or very high.

Don't stick to the old stone jug until your brains are muddled and your legs tangled.

Don't forget the orphans and the poor of the city.

Marriage this Evening.

John H. Bullock, one of our most successful young warehousemen, left this morning for Stem, accompanied by Rev. W. L. Cuninggim and a party of friends, and will be married this evening to Miss Sallie Bragg, a charming and accomplished young lady. THE DAY tenders its congratulations and best wishes in advance.

PARLOR CONCERT.

A DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT AT THE GRANVILLE INSTITUTE.

Closing Exercises of the Fall Session of this Popular and Prosperous School Last Evening—The Program.

The Granville Institute, one of the most popular and prosperous of Oxford's fine institutions of learning closed its fall session last evening, with a highly successful and very entertaining parlor concert.

Comment upon each and every number of the program is a job the reporter, whose knowledge of music is limited, would not dare undertake. All of the performers did well—notably well, and were warmly complimented by the cultivated audience. The young ladies acquitted themselves with great credit, and conferred honor upon their talented music instructor, Miss Hyde. The following in the program:

PART FIRST.

1. Chorus—"We've Been Friends."—Donizetti.
2. "At Night"—L. Schytte—Miss M. Darden.
3. Duett—"O, Beautiful Violet."—Reinecke.—Misses D. DaVega and M. Darden.
4. "Polish Dance," (Op. 52.)—R. Thoma.—Miss N. Gupton.
5. "Stork, Stork, Stander."—Reinecke.—Miss M. Hundley.
6. Recitation—"Santa Claus' Marriage."—Miss R. Crews.
7. "Polka Grazieuse."—Misses H. Thomas and E. Usry.

PART SECOND.

8. Chorus—"Carol, Sweetly Carol."—A. P. Howard.
9. "Il Travatore" (4 hands)—Verdi (Cramer).—Misses M. Wyche and N. Gupton.
10. "I Once had a Sweet Little Doll, Dears."—Nevin.—Miss M. H. Gregory.
11. "The Mill."—Adolf Jensen.—Miss D. DaVega.
12. "Loves' Old Sweet Song."—J. L. Malloy.—Miss M. Wyche.
13. "Songs Without Words."—Mendelssohn.—Miss N. Gregory.
14. "Ave Maria." (trio)—Marchetti.—Misses N. Gregory, E. Finlator and M. Wyche.
15. "Chorus—"I Come, I Come."—Donizetti.

There was a reception, with dancing, after the concert, and a few hours were pleasantly spent by the pupils of the Institute and their friends.

Tobacco Board of Trade.

The Tobacco Board of Trade of Oxford met in the courthouse last night, President E. G. Currin was in the chair, and there was a good attendance.

A committee, composed of Maj. N. A. Gregory, Dr. E. T. White and John Meadows, was appointed to revise the by-laws.

It was decided to suspend sales at the warehouses for a week beginning tomorrow. The warehouse doors will be opened promptly as usual January 1, 1891, for business.

Arrangements will be made to fit up room on second floor of the new bonded storage warehouse for use as Exchange and meetings of the board.

Christmas Fireworks.

The boys have three nights and two days in which to let off their Christmas enthusiasm in fireworks. Mayor Smith has issued the following:

Notice is hereby given that fireworks (but no fire-arms or weapons of any kind) may be shot and displayed within the corporate limits of Oxford from 5 o'clock, p. m., 24th December, 1890, to 6 o'clock, a. m., Dec. 27th, 1890, under section 13 of the charter of Oxford. Provided, that any persons doing or causing any injury or damage shall not be released from liability for the same. The Mayor reserves the right to revoke this license at will. L. G. SMITH, Mayor.
