THE TALK OF THE TOWN.

WARM DISH OF LACONIC LOCALS.

The Ingredients are Fresh and Clean and Palatable—Spiced but not Highly Spiced.

—A Georgia watermelon was seen here a day or two ago.

—Good rains yesterday on the Southside are reported.

—The Granville Grays will have their usual drill tonight.

—St. John's Day celebration Friday. A large crowd expected.

—This is the last day to list taxes. The books will be closed at sundown.

—Miss Cora Taylor rendered very sweetly two solos at St. Stephen's church last evening.

—The Granville Iron Mining Company has filed for registration a number of leases on land in Walnut Grove township.

—There will be a meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the World's Fair held at the residence of Mrs. Dr. G. A. Coggeshall at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow.

—It is thought that as the R. & D. system got into trouble because it was not earning sufficient to meet its obligations, that the receivers will raise the freight rates.

—John Boone, a colored lunatic, left today in charge of Constable Crews for the Insane Asylum at Goldsboro. John lost his mental balance trying to solve great religious problems.

—T. T. Thaine is making plans and estimates for a new Episcopal church to be built on the corner lot just above the present building. It is hoped that work on the new building will be commenced this summer.

—Those who go on the Bonanza Excursion No. 6 to Norfolk on June 27, will have a chance to see the launching of the warship Texas at the Portsmouth Navy Yard June 28. The fare from Dickerson's crossing on the D. & N. for round trip will be $2.25.

—A small cottage on Sycamore street, immediately in the rear of the Methodist church, was sold under the hammer at noon today. It was held by L. C. Crator and wife, colored, and was under mortgage. Messrs. Parham & Dorsey, mortgagees, were the purchasers at $500.

—Now then, it is off again! The rock-crusher was started to work this morning, after a rest of nearly six months. Sufficient stone has been hauled to last several weeks. The part of Penn avenue, between Broad street and the passenger station, will be the first to receive a dressing of macadam this season. Later the business portion of the town will receive attention.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

The Coming and Going of Oxonians and Some Others.

—R. Broughton went to Virginia last night.

—A. S. Thomas, of Durham, spent yesterday in Oxford.

—J. W. Harris, of Wilton, was in Oxford today on a business trip.

—A. Max came over from Durham to spend Sunday with his family.

—Capt. W. T. Clement left last night for a visit to Richmond, Va.

—Rev. W. W. Walker will be at the Convocation at Louisburg from tomorrow until Friday.

—Miss Page Morton, who was here some months the guest of Mrs. W. J. Boykin, left last night for her home in Virginia.

—Mrs. T. T. Bobbitt and children, of Baltimore, arrived in Oxford Saturday night and are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Hunt.

Sunday School Convention.

R. E. White, of Durham, who was on a visit to Oxford in the interest of the State Sunday school work, called a meeting of the pastors and Sunday school superintendents of Oxford, at the Presbyterian church Saturday. The object of this meeting was to awaken an interest in the Sunday school work throughout the county, and to revive the Granville county Sunday school association.

Arrangements were made for a convention of delegates from all the Sunday schools in the county of all denominations, to be held in Oxford in October next, the day to be hereafter announced.

An executive committee, consisting of all the Sunday school superintendents of Oxford, was appointed; also a committee on program consisting of all the pastors and Sunday school superintendents of Oxford.

D. N. Hunt and F. P. Hobgood were appointed a committee on advertising.

It is intended to arrange for a large and interesting convention in October, and to establish a permanent and active organization for Granville county that shall facilitate and increase the Sunday school work in the county and bring it into co-operation with the State Sunday School Association.

Talk to the Children.

Rev. W. W. Walker talked to the children at the Oxford Orphan Asylum yesterday afternoon on the subject of "Hands," taking as his text the 24 Psalm, part of 4th verse. Beginning with the idea that hands indicated character he gave them advice about mischievous hands, idle hands, cruel hands and dishonest hands, and urged them to have clean hands in the Bible sense of that term.
