THE TALK OF THE TOWN.

WARM DISH OF LACONIC LOCALS.

The Ingredients are Fresh and Clean and Palatable—Spiced but not Highly Spiced.

—Tuesday was the longest day in the year.

—The street committee has decided not to buy a road roller for the present.

—A number of young ladies and gentlemen are picnicing to-day at Minor's Mill.

—Bullock & Mitchell have about finished prizing up their big stock of leaf tobacco, and are busy shipping.

—D. N. Hunt, General Secretary of the Oxford Y. M. C. A., conducted religious services at Salem Church Sunday nights.

—Why is it that Uncle Loge Meadows has not been fishing lately? Did that last round with the water moccasins do him up?

—Usual prayer meeting at Presbyterian church at 8:30. A full attendance is desired as matters of importance will be considered.

—We understand that Mrs. R. R. Best will have charge of the public school in the eastern part of town next session. Mrs. Best is recognized as a most excellent teacher.

—Rev. J. E. Schoolfield, the merchant evangelist of Danville, Va., has been invited to Oxford, and will be here this autumn. Mr. Schoolfield is doing a great work, and receives no pay for his services.

—There will be a called communication of Oxford Lodge, No. 396, A. F. & A. M., Thursday at 8:30 p. m., sharp, to arrange for the Grand Lodge meeting the 24th. All brethren in good standing are invited.

—People who are able to subscribe to THE DAY and won't subscribe continue to borrow and read the paper regularly. This is a practice entirely unworthy of them. Instead of sponging on their friends and treating us unfairly they ought to walk up and pass over their forty cents like men.

—Those persons who do not subscribe to THE DAY and who stand around and wait for those who do take the paper to get through so they can read it, are again invited to pass in their forty cents; or send their names (if they cannot afford to subscribe) and we will put them on the free list.

DON'T MISS THE OPPORTUNITY.

Campbell & Co., the Richmond photographers who have a wide reputation, are now at work at Oxford in the Roger's building on Main street, and are fully prepared to make first-class work in this city. We hope our people will not miss this opportunity. We cannot tell how long these noted artists will remain here. They are making first-class work at moderate prices.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

The Coming and Going of Oxonians and Some Others.

—J. P. Stedman is on a visit to Fayetteville, N. C.

—Deputy Revenue Collector J. F. Wooly, of Roxboro, was here today.

—M. F. Hart is back again at his store after a week's absence at Weldon.

—Capt. W. T. Clement returned yesterday afternoon from a visit to Richmond.

—Mrs. C. P. Powell gave a pleasant little party Tuesday afternoon to the pupils of her school.

—Mrs. W. S. Black, Mrs. Marion Hester and Mrs. Joe Breedlove returned from Goldsboro last night. They attended the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society and Bright Jewels.

Delegates to Morehead.
