PROSPECTUS OF THE
Granville Democrat,
PUBLISHED AT
Henderson, N. C.,
S. J. SKINNER, Editor.

JONES & HAWKINS, PUBLISHERS.

WE would respectfully announce to the public that the GRANVILLE DEMOCRAT, heretofore published at Oxford, has been moved to Henderson, where it will be issued on the same terms and will be devoted to the same objects as previously announced in its columns. Politically as its name indicates the Democrat will lend its aid and influence towards the furtherance of the interest of the great Democratic-Conservative party of the County. Its Literature will be such as to render it of interest to the fireside, and its agricultural department will render it both desirable and attractive to the farmer.

Yesterday was as pretty a day as we ever saw. It had every bit the appearance of the 11th of May.

If everybody would paint or white-wash their houses and fences, our town would be lovely.

The young men who go courting, or visiting, either you choose to call it, are beginning to wear button-hole boquets. Do keep some of the little beauties for us ladies.

This is the season of the year for house-cleaning and a man can get in the house the best way he can. And he has to "get up and dust" before he sits down.

One thing we are pleased to note and that is the large amount of new fencing that has been put up in Oxford. New paling neatly painted adds a great deal to any place.

It strikes us that it is nearly time to have mutton in our market. Why don't some of our country friends bring in a lamb or two, they would find ready sale for them.

Mr. Chas. Traylor left here yesterday for Windsor, Bertie county, to look after his son John, who is incarcerated in Bertie jail for having in his possession a stolen horse. We have never heard anything detrimental to the young man's character, and trust he may prove himself innocent.

The advertisement of the Waverly Hotel, Culpeper Va., will appear tomorrow. Thanks Thomas and Samuel and may the Morrow in your bones never grow thin.

Will some one be kind enough to tell us the real emblem of the bloom of the Mock-orange? Harrell, of the Henderson Tribune says it means "Mock-Modesty." Strange emblem, that.

WANTED.—If any one in town have on hand a copy of the play of Tooldles, and would like to loan it to the Orphan Relief Troupe, will please inform any member of the troupe, or leave it at this office.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The many friends of Mr. R. H. Graves in this Community will be pained to learn that he died in Hillsboro very suddenly last Wednesday. We have not heard the cause of his death.

HELP US.—To make a paper live and interesting, as a local paper, the people of the town and county must feel and take an interest in it. We ask our friends to inform us of all items of interest. There are many things happening constantly, that if gathered, would go far to make a paper newsy and interesting which are never known outside the locality where they occur. We shall feel thankful to have you tell us, when convenient, or write us of every item of interest. Do so please, all of you.
