Democratic at all times.

FRIDAY - - - MAY 12, 1876.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Executive Committee of this county has appointed the 29th of May as the time for holding a mass meeting, the object of which is to appoint delegates to the State Convention, which meets in Raleigh on the 14th of June. These political gatherings should be largely attended. It is important. Every township should be well represented.

President Grant is as corrupt as any of his officials, without a doubt. He seems to have a fondness for shielding the rascals and thieves of his administration. He has ordered that no papers, no records &c., shall be carried from any office. By this means we suppose he intends to thwart the purpose of the investigating committee. But the day of retribution is fast dawning and U. S. Grant with his corrupt administration will receive their just dues. Roll on the ball until every corrupt official is removed from office. In rolling, let it roll through Granville and crush out the present board of county commissioners.

Those patriotic men, who always had the interest of the people of Granville at heart—who wouldn't take advantage of no man—who labored for the welfare of the taxpayers—who are as honest as the days are long—who wanted their transactions thoroughly investigated (if thoroughly investigated there is no telling where they would land)—now stand indicted for conspiracy to defraud the county. Bah!

We'll wager a button if the present board of county commissioners should go to Philadelphia they would flood the exhibition grounds with four page cards, and would be indicted for conspiracy to defraud the centennial.

Democratic to-day, to-morrow, forever.

Ex-speaker Blaine's fraudulent transactions have come to light. Be it remembered he is one of the Republican Presidential aspirants. He has explained, but it makes "confusion worse confounded" "One by one the roses fall."

How do the Rads like their board of county commissioners now? They ought to send it to the centennial—but make them keep their hands in their own pockets—not other peoples.
