

OXFORD ADVERTISEMENTS

T. D. CRAWFORD & CO.,
Druggists.

Have on hand the largest and most carefully selected Stock of ever brought to this market. For purity, freshness and genuineness of medicines, they cannot be surpassed. For low prices they can compete with any first-class Drug house South of Richmond. Every package carefully prepared and properly labelled before leaving the house. Thankful for past liberal patronage and hoping to merit a continuance of the same they are yours,

DRUGS

PRESCRIPTIONS CAREFULLY COMPOUNDED.

T. D. CRAWFORD & CO.

111 1/2 So. 4th St. [t 1 mar 14-3m]

New Goods!

Having opened a First-class CONFECTIONERY

In connection with the Post Office, I am prepared to sell everything in that line, cheaper than they ever were offered to the public before.

Canned Goods from 10 to 20 cents.

SARDINES 30 CENTS.

PICKLES, GAL. JARS, 75 CENTS.

FRENCH CANDIES 35 TO 50 CENTS.

Cakes,

Crackers,
Jellies.

EGG CRACKERS, &c. &c.

The ladies are especially invited to call and examine them.

C. A. TAYLOR.

OUR COLUMN.

The Morning Clarion.

PUBLISHED DAILY IN OXFORD, N. C.

JAS. A. ROBINSON, JAS. C. WILLIAMS,
Editors and Publishers.

Democratic to the Backbone.

All persons wishing a neat, newsy little morning paper—giving all the latest town and county news, with important foreign items—would do well to give the CLARION a trial.

The coming Campaign will be an important one to our People. Every man should keep posted. To do this he ought to take a live paper—“THE CLARION” for instance.

Its slogan will be—Reform--Retrenchment--Home Rule--Honest and capable men for office. It will cry aloud and spare not, giving forth no “uncertain sound” in these times of Political crime.

We trust our friends throughout the County will exert themselves in our behalf, and run us up a handsome subscription list. We promise to give them a live, wide-awake paper.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE !!

A LARGE assortment of Boots and Shoes. Be sure to call. We are closing out some styles of Boots and Shoes at reduced prices. Call before the bargains are all gone. Ziegler's Shoes and Gaiters always on hand. Cooper & Williams.

WILD OATS.

THE CHAMPION COMIC PAPER OF AMERICA.

Prospectus for 1876.

This sparkling and brightly illustrated weekly, humorous and satirical paper has entered upon the seventh year of its joyful existence, and this being the Centennial year of our national independence, the publishers take pride in saying that it will not be, as it never has yet been, a whit behind the times in holding up the humorous or satirical side of everything American. The merry side of this great and glorious Centennial year will receive special attention in the bright columns of America's favorite humorous paper.

The publishers of WILD OATS point with pride to the wholly unexampled success of their paper, and, pledging themselves that it shall be in the future even better than in the past, they ask a continuation of that kind patronage which has placed it at the head and front of American humorous papers.

We have made arrangements which will enable us to present WILD OATS in a brighter and better shape than heretofore, having recently taken possession of our new publication office, and had fine copper-faced type cast especially for us, together with all the vast paraphernalia required in the production of such a paper as we give the public at the low price of ten cent per copy.

We have also made arrangements with some new artists, and shall at the same time retain such old favorites as Thos. Worth, Frank Bellew, Hopkins, Woolf, Wales, Frank Beard, Bisbee, Opper, Stoekhardt, Rothengatter, Ben Day, Kettles, Palmer Cox, Mann, Kingsbury, Stull, White, Sperry, Eaton, Seldon, etc while the editorial department will still remain in the hands of its founder, the vivacious Bricktop, of whom enough is known without more being said.

As an additional inducement to subscribe for the Centennial year, we have at great expense prepared a comic chromo the crowning effort of that graphic genius, Hopkins. It is a work of art, worthy of an elegant frame, and is worth at least one-half the price asked for the subscription. It is a “horse piece” being a burlesque of Mazeppa tied to the back of the fiery, untamed steed. A copy will be sent to each subscriber during the year.

Advertisers are beginning to find out that the WILD OATS reaches a greater number of live men than any other illustrated paper in America, and therefore it is a first class medium of advertising.

To those who know WILD OATS we need not say that it has not, does not, and will not contain a word or an illustration which may not be taken into every family in the land. Fun we give in various sized doses, but never vulgarity in any shape. It is thoroughly American in sentiment, wholly original, sharp and incisive, and right to the point in dealing with men and events of the day. One copy at any time will convince you of this. Subscription price—post-paid. 1 year $1.00; 6 months $2.00; single numbers 10 cts. Address:

COLLIN & SMALL,
59 Beekman street, N. Y.