PROSPECTUS OF THE

Granville Democrat,

PUBLISHED AT

Henderson, N. C.,

S. J. SKINNER, Editor.

JONES & HAWKINS, PUBLISHERS.

WE would respectfully announce to the public that the GRANVILLE DEMOCRAT, heretofore published at Oxford, has been moved to Henderson, where it will be issued on the same terms and will be devoted to the same objects as previously announced in its columns. Politically as its name indicates the Democrat will lend its aid and influence towards the furtherance of the interest of the great Democratic-Conservative party of the County. Its Literature will be such as to render it of interest to the residue, and its agricultural department will render it both desirable and attractive to the farmer.

LOCAL & STATE SQUIBS.

IN THE CITY.—Mr. Henry Bryan and Lady arrived in town yesterday, and have been receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends.

MATRIMONIAL.—Mr. Jasper York, formerly of this place, was married a few days ago to Miss Lowery. They passed through this place last Thursday evening en route to his father's, about 2½ miles from this place.

Corn meal at 80 cts per bushel at WILLIAMS & BRYAN'S.

DIED.—Little Lottie Currin, aged about two years, daughter of Mr. James C. Currin, living near Oxford, died on yesterday.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Edward Dorsey, formerly of Oxford, but now of Halifax C. H., is on a visit to his sister, Mrs. R. J. Mitchell.

SETTLED UP.—The Sheriff of Granville county, R. G. Sneed, has settled up in full with the Treasurer. That's the way to do business.

IMPROVEMENT.—Our town authorities will soon commence work upon the streets—putting them in apple order. Constable Crabtree will prove equal to the emergency.

ON A VISIT.—Mr. H. M. Lanier and Lady, of Baltimore, arrived yesterday on a visit to their relatives in this place. We wish them a pleasant sojourn in our midst.

QUERY NO. 1.—Wonder if the so-called U. S. Detectives for the last fortnight operating in this section, discovered much from the negro employees enticed into their room on Wednesday night last?

ATTRACTIONS.—The readers of the CLARION are specially called to the great attractions now being daily displayed at the Book Store of Capt. Wm. Biggs. Everything one can need in the Book and Stationary line is to be found there.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, near Young's X Roads Mr. Wm. Ward, of Franklinton, N. C., to Miss Fannie Overby. The happy pair passed through Oxford last Thursday for their home, where they will be greeted by a score of friends.

N. C. cut Herrings at 15 cts per dozen at WILLIAMS & BRYAN'S.

QUERY NO. 3.—The CLARION would like to know what could be meaner than to steal the support of a poor insane woman? See statement elsewhere.

FOR SHAME.—On yesterday more than twenty-five wagons loaded with tobacco passed through town en route for Henderson. What are our capitalists and tobacco men thinking of, to allow such a flood of money to give us the go-by, when a little enterprise on their part would stop it in our market? Where are the Warehouse gentlemen, that they do not offer inducements and buyers sufficient to arrest the trade?

GLOOMY.—We are informed from authority which cannot be doubted, that Mr. Jack Critcher, living 4 miles from this place, paid $100 a few days for one bed of tobacco plants. Mr. E. R. Averett, about 3 miles from here, paid $50 for another. These plants are small and the purchasers have to run the risk of flies and other diseases to them before they are ready for setting out. This shows that the prospects of a tobacco crop in this county are exceedingly gloomy.

WAVERLEY HOTEL.—We desire to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of this first class hotel which appears in another column. It is kept by the Morrow Brothers, Culpeper, Va., assisted by that affable and polite gentleman, Jno. Tayloe, formerly editor of the N. C. Central, who will be pleased to see his North Carolina friends. Persons going to the Centennial, by way of Culpeper, will have twenty minutes for dinner, and should they desire to stop longer they will find this the best hotel in the place. Board $2.50 per day.
