Democratic Conservative Meeting.

The Democratic Conservative voters of Granville are requested to meet in mass convention, at Oxford, Monday May 29th, to appoint delegates to the State and Congressional district Convention, to be held in Raleigh the 13th and 14th days of June next, and to transact such business as may be deemed necessary.

By order of Co. Ex. Committee.

J. S. AMIS, Ch'm.

April 20th 1875.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Convention of the Democratic Conservative voters of the Fourth Congressional District will be held in the city of Raleigh on Tuesday the 13th day of June next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress and a Presidential Elector, and selecting two delegates to the St. Louis Convention. A full attendance is earnestly desired. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty given for Merrimon in 1872.

By order of the District Executive Com.

H. A. LONDON, JR., Chairman.

March 31st. 1876.

LOCAL & STATE SQUIBS.

Marrriages continue with many miss-givings.

Crawford's soda water is very refreshing this warm weather. If you don't believe us, just go and try it.

We are glad to state that Charlie Landis is improving. We hope to see him out soon.

N. C. cut Herrings at 15 cts per dozen at WILLIAMS & BRYAN'S.

An exchange says: "If there is a place for everything, where is the place for a boil?" In the boiler, of course.

Our people who fail to visit the Oxford Book Store and Stationery Depot, kept by Capt. Biggs, miss a treat. Be sure to go and see him.

We were glad to see in town last week, Mr. Henry Cooper, son of our esteemed townsman, J. C. Cooper, Esq. It is probable that Mr. Cooper may be induced to change his residence from Alabama to his native town and State. Who knows?

Corn meal at 80 cts per bushel at WILLIAMS & BRYAN'S.

The general public will consult their interests by calling at the Book Store of Wm. Biggs, just opposite the Hotel. We know "whereof we speak" when we say it is the most attractive place of business in that line in this section. The attractions for Ladies are irresistible.

QUERY No. 4.—What has become of that extra fifty dollars, due Mrs. Kinton, the insane lady, and sent to her in greenbacks from Raleigh?

NORTH CAROLINA FARMER.—The CLARION welcomes to its exchange list the above named Journal, devoted to the interests of "Agriculture, Horticulture and Domestic Economy." The appearance of the first number shows an evidence of taste and judgment which speaks well for the enterprise.

James Enniss & Co., Publishers. One dollar per annum.

Specimen copies will be found at the Drug store of Messrs. T. D. Crawford & Co.

Mr. James A. Robinson, of this paper, and Mr. W. A. Davis, of the Torchlight, will leave this morning to attend the Press Convention. We trust our brothers of the quill will treat our Jeems well.

QUERY No. 5.—Judge Tourgee came all the way from Wake to defend the Commissioners of Granville County in their stealing operations. He was paid one hundred dollars for his services. Can that be the one hundred dollars intended by the State for poor insane Mrs. Kinton.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

ORANGE C. H., VA., May 11, 1876.

After a delightful rain on Monday, we are now having delightful weather and all vegetable matter is growing finely. The hop came off on Friday night last and was a perfect success as is the case with everything that our ladies undertake. The re-union of the old 13th Va Regiment came off yesterday at Gordonsville and turned out to be a grand affair. In a few days you will see published full proceedings. The writer of this being previously engaged could not attend as was his wish, or else he would give you a full account of what was done and said on the interesting occasion.

CRAMPTON.

BATTLEBORO, N. C., May 11, 1875.

I regret exceedingly to report the death of Miss Lindsey E. Harper, the young, amiable, and beautiful daughter of Mr. J. K. Harper, near this place. She died of pneumonia, after an illness of several weeks, at the residence of Sheriff Lewis, where she was on a visit.

Mr. K. C. Pope is building a neat residence on the outskirts of town which adds much to the looks of that portion.

Mr. J. H. Mills was in town last week, and gave us an exhibition of his talented children. No doubt the Orphan Asylum is doing as much real good as any other institution in the State. May the good work still grow in magnitude till not a single s'fering one exists in North Carolina.

Mr. W. R. has taken charge of the Hotel recently vacated by J. F. Stewart, Esq., who has made his home in Virginia.

Mr. H. F. Badger, our excellent photographer, executed a splendid picture of Capt. Carpet's manoeuvre yesterday, in the presence of many by-standers.

Fine growing weather. A. J. H.
