LOCAL & STATE SQUIBS.

Black ball-ed—the chain gang. Fireflies are now the twilight visitors.

The fire company paraded yesterday evening.

We regret to learn that Mr. A. H. A. Williams is quite sick.

At work. The ball chain black gang are now at work on the roads.

Raleigh is troubled with door-mat thieves, and that's what's the matter.

Neat. New paling now adorn the vacant lot next to Crews' store on Main street.

High. We are informed that tobacco sold very high in Henderson yesterday.

Empty. The doors of the Granville county jail stand open. Not a single occupant.

Young corn looking well, Old corn 70 cents per bushel. Distilled corn has a downward tendency.

The noble ladies of Charlotte have established a hospital where the Poor and sick can be cared for.

Killed. We learn that a youth about 13 years old was killed last Sunday evening by lightning. We did not hear his name.

Times dull. Tobacco scarce. Spring chickens 25 cents. Farmers busy. Tobacco coming in slow. Vegetables rather backward.

"Peter"—peter! Well, the idea of making a man with the name of PETER President. No, we can't possibly promise the vote of Virginia to PETER COOPER, even if he was born 250 years before Old BILL ALLEN. There never were but four PETERS that we know of—ST. PETER, PETER the Great, DOM PETER, and PETER FUNK, and that is quite enough.—Rich. Whig.

Cur-ious. We see in some of our exchanges that dogs in some localities are dying from paralysis of the under jaw. Some of our dogs come up with the lock-jaw from the hen nest.

Mr. John Syme, of this city, has been appointed receiver of the Seaboard by Judge Seymoar on the part of Evans Turner and R. Y. McAden and others.—Raleigh News.

We learn it was the editor of the Winston Republican who had the fight with Judge Cloud in that town. He attacked the Judge with a stick for uttering unbecoming language about his family.—Raleigh News.

We again call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of A. Lands, Jr., to be found in another column. Mr. Landis will sell you goods as cheap as you can buy them anywhere. He keeps on hand and is constantly receiving a first class stock. Give him a call if want to buy a bargain.

The CLARION is in demand. The merchants in town, who advertise with us, order one or two hundred extra copies every day or so to distribute among their friends, and they find it pays. It is, undoubtedly, a good advertising medium and will pay the merchants here, who do not advertise, to try it. We can boast of quite a handsome circulation now and are increasing daily.

DEBATING SOCIETY.—We notice that the colored people of this place have organized a debating society, which is very creditable. Now if the colored people can have a society of that kind, and thereby improve themselves, why is that the young men in the place cannot do the same thing? Try it boys, you will find it amusing and instructive.
