

THE MORNING CLARION.

Democratic at all times.

THURSDAY - - MAY 25, 1876.

The County Convention meets in Oxford Saturday, May 29th, 1876. A full attendance is desired.

The Press generally seems to be falling in line in favor of Tilden for President.

Lost sweetness. Two thousand tons of raw sugar were burned last Monday at Greenock, Scotland.

The old Midlothian mines at Richmond, Va., exploded Monday killing eight men. They were 700 feet under ground.

It hails from New Jersey this time. Morristown was recently visited by a hail storm that killed chickens and birds on the wing

The N. Y. Tribune says that a movement is to start in Washington to press Gen. Hancock to the front with renewed vigor.

The New York Sun says Blaine entered Congress a poor man and has served in six Congresses at salaries of three thousand and five thousand a year, and now boasts he is "only worth about four hundred thousand dollars." If all this be so Mr. Blaine is evidently not the honest man for the times the Republican party are looking for,

If we only knew or realized the great blessings many of us enjoy on this mundane sphere, how happy and contented we would be. The simple blessings of health, strength, activity of body and mind are enough to make the richest or poorest happy if he only knew it. We are all striving for happiness, wealth and honor, and oh, how few find it; how few know how to appreciate it after once gained. Let us firmly resolve that whatever be our lot, we will be contented and if we are contented how can we avoid being happy.

Mr. Moody has been preaching in Augusta, Ga., to immense audiences.

Marriage of Miss Jeannie Patterson.

Miss Jeannie Patterson a young lady well known in St. Louis fashionable circles, and universally esteemed, was married last evening at the church of the Holy Communion, Leffingwell avenue, to Dr. Ralph Walsh of Washington, D. C., Miss Patterson had recently returned from an extended tour to the South and Southwest giving in each city a selection of her popular readings in which she attained a success of no ordinary degree. Her betrothal having been announced among her numerous friends, Governor and Mrs. Hardin tendered the use and hospitalities of the executive mansion for the wedding ceremony, but the bride gracefully declined the compliment as it would have debarred many of her St. Louis friends from being present. The nuptials were conducted in a simple but impressive manner and the church was crowded with fashionable company of ladies and gentlemen.—St. Louis Times.
