Suggestion for Mr. McNinch.

If he will pardon the interruption we would like to suggest to Mr. McNinch, manager for Governor Kitchin, that in his political advertisements, which have been filled with quotations from strange and wonderful authorities, he has overlooked one ardent Kitchin supporter right here at home. We would suggest that he publish an advertisement something like this:

SIMMONS A D—N RASCAL!
 (Quotation from conversation between Marion Butler and friend in a Pullman smoker, returning from the Charlotte Bull Moose convention) Butler: No, I have but little interest in the Democratic fight except in one case—I do want to see my friend, Governor Kitchin, beat the d—n rascal of a Simmons!

Mr. Butler is supporting Theodore Roosevelt for President.

Mr. Butler is against Simmons.
THERE'S A REASON!

We protest that as an advertisement that would cause more of a stir than anything Mr. McNinch has published yet; if he feels any delicacy in publishing an unconfirmed story there are men who will swear that the above conversation took place, perhaps not precisely in those words, but to the same general effect. Why need Mr. McNinch go to Montana for abuse of Mr. Simmons when he can get any amount of it right here? Or is it possible that the Kitchin people are not particular anxious to advertise the fact that the odoriferous Maryann is snuggling up so close?—Lexington Dispatch.
