POLITICAL ADVERSISING.

OPINIONS OF WM. J. BRYAN AS TO SENATORIAL CANDIDATES.

WHAT BRYAN THINKS OF WALTER CLARK.
"The name of Chief Justice Walter Clark is brought forward by Mr. Bryan in an editorial in the Commoner as available for the Presidency," said Hon. Thomas J. Pence in the summer of 1911, and continues: "Mr. Bryan gives a list of those he deems fitted for the honor, and Judge Clark is prominent in the list." It will also be recalled that Hon. William Jennings Bryan strongly endorsed Judge Clark for the Presidency of the United States in 1904.

WHAT BRYAN THINKS OF F. M. SIMMONS.
"The Commoner does not take part in contests between Democrats excepting where a PRINCIPLE is involved. In North Carolina WHERE Senator Simmons is a candidate for re-election a principle IS involved HE (F. M. Simmons) IS NOT A PROGRESSIVE and it is a mystery to the outside world why a state like North Carolina has tolerated him so long."—W. J. BRYAN, Aug. 30, 1912.

Senator Smith, of New Jersey, was shorn of his power by the voters, in which Woodrow Wilson took a hand, by reason of his non-progressive ideas. WHAT BRYAN THINKS OF W. W. KITCHIN.

A Five Dollar Bill to the First Man who discovers anything Bryan has said in favor of Mr. Kitchin.

HOW WOULD BRYAN VOTE FOR SENATOR?
