Some people may fool part of the people some time, but cannot fool them all the time.
If you want your Carrier to be a prize winner get him every vote you can as he deserves it.

Hon. Josephus Daniels has made editor Howard A. Banks, of the Hickory Democrat, to be his private secretary. He is a man of ability and an experienced newspaper man.

North Carolina lands another juicy slice of patronage in the appointment of Col. Will H. Osborn, of Greensboro, and an old Oxford man, as Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The salary is $6,000 a year.

The Board of Trustees of the Henderson Graded School last week filled a vacancy on the board by unanimously electing Mrs. Junius Daniel, and our sister town has the honor of electing the first woman to serve on a North Carolina school board.

The Mississippian who locked himself in a room and got away with ten quarts of whiskey in four days, didn't do much more for the whiskey than it did for him. He did not leave any of the whiskey but it left enough of him for the coroner to hold an inquest.

They say that the parcels post is proving to be such a good thing that even the express companies are sending many of their small packages by that route. If the express people can save money by patronizing it, it must be apparent that the people can save even more.

There seems to be a well founded rumor in the tobacco trade that M. C. Patterson, of Richmond, Va., will re-enter the tobacco manufacturing field the coming fall. He was President of the R. A. Patterson Co. at the time of its purchase by the American Tobacco Company.

Speaker George W. Connor, of Wilson, and son of Judge Connor of United States Court, has been appointed by Gov. Craig Judge of the Superior Court of the new Second Judicial District composed of Washington, Edgecombe, Martin, Nash and Wilson counties, and has an allotment of thirty-seven courts.

How is this for raising cattle? Haywood county alone has shipped $250,000 worth of cattle this season, and it is stated that Western North Carolina has shipped more than 160 car loads of cattle, breaking the record of 1911. Probably Western North Carolina shipments will bring nearly a million dollars into that country.

It is a genuine pleasure to us to see the name of our able townsman, Gen B. S. Royster, prominently mentioned in connection with the nomination for Congress from this District next time. He would make the best Representative we have had in years and would be found doing something to advance the interest of his people.

Senator Overman was appointed chairman of the committee of five instructed to investigate the matter of patronage in the Senate, and he showed such a grasp of the efficiency side of the question, as well as the political side, that he and his committee were finally intrusted with the entire patronage question.

The Legislative Committee to pass on proposed Constitutional amendments has been called by Governor Craig to meet at Raleigh April 21st. The report of the commission is to be made to the General Assembly next September, and it is one of the most important public matters that has been before the people of North Carolina in many years.

The police of New Orleans have been instructed to enforce rigidly the new "hatpin ordinance" and arrest any woman violating it. The ordinance provides that no hatpins shall protrude beyond the hat unless the point is covered. The penalty is a fine of from one to ten dollars or imprisonment from six to ten days.

Called out of church an usher while attending divine services at Waynesville Sunday Henry Sorrells walked into a fusillade of bullets, fired by his cousin, Harry Sorrells. The victim died almost instantly in front of the church. It is reported the killing was the aftermath of a violent quarrel between the two men several weeks ago. The slayer is in jail.

It is announced from Greensboro that Mr. E. J. Justice will oppose Senator Lee S. Overman for re-election to the United States Senate. He is one of the ablest, popular and hardest workers in the Senate, and is worth more to North Carolina than five Justice's would be, and we are for the brilliant Overman against the field. We do not believe that the State could be better represented in the Senate than it is now.

The South, according to the conception of former Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, and by reason of its general adaptabilities, is the portion of this country upon which it must depend for its further meat supply. Just now the country is looking to South America, Mexico, Canada and Australia to solve its meat problem, when right in the South we have the opportunity to solve it by engaging in the stock-raising industry.

The Mississippians seem to be in earnest about the matter of a banking law that will enable the farmers to secure loans on an equitable basis. As Congress will sooner or later take up the matter of currency reform the bankers, merchants, business men and farmers of Mississippi are going to make a determined effort to wield some influence in shaping Congressional action so it may be of benefit to the great agricultural interests of the country.

How to Talk Over Phone.

We have all kinds of schools for teaching all kinds of things, but according to the telephone companies another is needed to teach people how to talk over the phone. Some have an idea that the louder you talk the better, when as a matter of fact it is not the loud talking, but the steady, distinct voice that is heard. Talking fast or very loud is not the thing. There are cases when the wind is very high when one must talk a little louder than usual to overcome the noise made by the vibration of the wire, but even when this is necessary, one should speak slowly and distinctly. A little time is required for the transmission of sound. Stand off some distance and see the smoke from a gun and note how long it is before you hear the sound. This is a good illustration. Talking fast causes the words to run together making a jumble of sounds.

Tells Consumptives How He Got Well
Tuberculosis is said to be curable by simply living in the open air and taking an abundance of fresh eggs and milk. Undoubtedly, some persons are benefited in this way; but the appropriate remedy in this case is Eckman's Alternative. Do all you possibly can to add to strength, live living, eat wholesome, nourishing food, and breathe the clearest and purest air—then, to the sensible things of right living, add the tonic and curative effects of Eckman's Alternative. Read what it did in this case:
"Gentlemen: In January, 1908, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, one of the leading practitioners, said that it was lung trouble. I took eggs and milk in quantities, but I got very weak, and I kept on working in the store. The doctors said I would not gain weight as long as I stayed in the store. I kept on working and prayed each day that I might get well. I believe my prayers were answered, for Mr. C. A. Lippincott, my employer (Lippincott & Lippincott, Department Store, 304 to 314 Market Street, Wilmington, Del.), had learned of a remedy called Eckman's Alternative that had done great good, and upon his recommendation I began taking it at once. This was about June, 1908. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs, which appeared to be old chunks of blood coming up. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life. I sent my spit to the State Board of Health to be examined for tuberculous bacilli, and none were found.
"My mother died from Consumption when I was about two years old. I make this statement so that others may learn of the wonderful merits of Eckman's Alternative. I regard my recovery as being miraculous."
(Signed) ALFVAHIT JAS. SQUIRES.
