

Salem Sayings.

A large crowd greeted Rev. L. H. Joyner at Salem church last Sunday. The singing of the old hymns and tunes, and the old-time preaching without the new form of worship, far surpassed the new fashion worship of this age.

Monday morning at 9 o'clock we noticed N. G. Crews, near Salem cross roads, with four two horse wagons all loading tobacco at one time.

Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Ernest Parham are having a family reunion at their lovely home on Horner Heights. They have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parham and two children Annie Jordan and Julia Hunter, of Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Reams and children, Julia Howard and Master Marion, of Dunn; Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Priddy and Misses Julia and Dorothy Priddy, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dorsey and children, Loyd, Edward, Cynthia, Elizabeth and Katherine. There was present also "Black Many," Sallie Parham, who has served the family most faithfully for more than fifty years.

Famous Old School.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch of Sunday last contains the following: "Among the oldest and most famous of the colleges for women in North Carolina, or, for that matter, in the entire South, is Oxford College. It was founded in 1850, and was one of the few to keep its doors open for the reception of scholars throughout the Civil War.

Oxford is noted also for its health record, ranked as one of the healthiest town in the State. During the administration of President Hobgood of thirty-one years, the school has had but one case of typhoid fever, and that was brought to the school.

The old buildings having been destroyed by fire in 1904, President Hobgood planned the new buildings out of an experience of thirty-five years in conducting schools for girls. The plan is unique—four two-story buildings standing thirty-feet apart are connected by corner verandahs; all sleeping rooms on second floor, all classrooms, music rooms, library, etc., on first floor.

FREE BARBECUE—Royal good time guaranteed to all. Have employed an expert barbecuer from South Carolina to cook the pigs. If you are a patron or a close friend of old W. H. Moore meet him in Oxford July 31st and join the happy band. Time for dinner 2 o'clock.

FOR RENT—The home place of the late Capt. A. S. Peace on Raleigh street, Oxford, N. C., with or without the land, twenty acres or more. House ten rooms, all necessary out buildings in good repair, poultry yards, electric lights. Apply to W. L. PEACE.

Coming and Going.

Rev. Fred N. Day, of Winston-Salem, was on our streets Monday.

Misses Edna and Myrtle Crews of Route 5, was in Oxford last Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Critcher, who is in Richmond for treatment, is getting better.

S. R. Harris, a prominent citizen of Henderson, was in Oxford Monday.

Misses Malissa and Leonora Aikin, of Durham, are on a visit to Miss Myrtle Crews near Salem.

Mrs. Junius P. Hunt, Miss Helen, and Master George Hunt, left Sunday to visit relatives at Mila, Va.

Miss Lucy Hart, of Route 4, spent the week end with her sister Mrs. G. F. Downey, on Broad street.

W. J. Currin and family, of Route 7, spent last Saturday with their daughter, Mrs. O. Sear Puckett, near Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Biggs and daughter, of Scotland Neck, spent Monday night at Exchange Hotel enroute to Buffalo Springs.

Help Me Along.

Lord when the witnesses approach along the twilight hill, Help me to gather with my own that Thou hast kept from ill, And in fullness of my hope take strength from this Thy love To be a better man each day, trust on and look above!

Will Send Public Ledger Free

If the Secretary of any Local Farmer's Union in the county knows of any member of his union who is not able to take the Public Ledger, or of any widow who is not also able to take the paper, we ask him to kindly send us their names, and we will send them the Public Ledger one year free of charge. Will thank the Secretaries to send in the names of all such at once, so that they may get the paper.

A Puzzling Plural

"What is the plural of adze, the implement carpenters use?" Capt. S. H. Green walked into The Enquirer office last Saturday morning and sprung the question. The answer was, "The same that it is in axe," but that answer was not satisfactory to Capt. Green, and he is of the opinion that it has no plural form no more than sheep or deer has. As a matter of compromise it was agreed that if we ever had occasion to "order on" for more than one adze that we would order one of them and then add while you are sending that one send another one just like it, or a dozen just like it, as the case might be.—Monroe Enquirer.

The Season for Blood Boils.

A well-known citizen of Raleigh, who knows that there is misery with boils, has found a remedy for them and in a communication to this paper says:

"Boils can be prevented if proper attention is given to them in their early stage. They are caused by an insect or germ that works into the skin from the outside, the same as a bedbug or chigger. As soon as you feel the pimple, bathe it two or three times with tincture of arnica. The insect will be destroyed, the inflammation will cease and the result will be that the boil will not mature. If this insect is not destroyed the impurities in the blood concentrate at the point of attack, inflammation increases and the result is a painful boil.

"I have used this remedy for many years, and know that it will prevent boils if applied in apt time."

ICE Honest Now, Are You Not Always Glad to See our Wagon You may fret when it is late and may be tempted to think unkind things about us, but when the wagon turns the corner does not the sense of relief which you experience show how truly welcome the coming of the wagon is. In most cases when the wagon is late in reaching your door it is because some customers on your route have held it back, and their thoughtlessness, while unintentional, makes you suffer. We are quite sure that you would not knowingly delay the ice wagon on its way to homes where sickness and suffering prevail. On the contrary, if you could speed it along, you would. There is scarcely a day in which the wagon on your route does not go to homes where anxious mothers are watch for it with heavy hearts. You can speed the wagon by answering the call promptly, by having the road clear to the refrigerator, by having the change or the coupon in hand, and in other ways which your own intelligence will suggest. We know you are going to act on this hint now and hereafter. Thank you! Oxford Ice Co. PHONE 132 :: :: :: OXFORD, N. C.
