SHORT LOCAL PICK UPS.

September is doing mighty well and if the following months maintain the same speed we should have some zero weather along about Christmas.

The cold wave that is on is calling for the straw hats, and will say that Long Co. has a choice line of winter hats that will keep your head warm.

Some of our streets are piled up with limbs of trees from the effects of the recent storm. The question now arises whose duty it is to remove them, the town or citizens?

Miss Norfleet Hunter, who has been teaching several years, has entered the State University. She is a very bright young woman, and is among the few who has successfully stood the State High School examination.

FARMS FOR RENT OR SALE.

I have several tobacco farms for rent or sale within four miles of the town of Wendell. There is no wilt in this section; a fine graded school at Wendell, and one of the best tobacco markets in the State. For further information, address M. A. GRIFFIN, sept. 6-8t. Wendell, N. C.

Sale of Valuable House and Lot.

Under authority of an order of re-sale duly made by the superior court of Granville county in the special proceeding entitled "G. C. Shaw, adm'r. vs. Wm. Bryan and others" (a re-sale having been ordered for the reason that an advance bid of ten per cent has been placed on the amount at which same was bid off at the last sale.) we will on WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24th, 1913 sell to the highest bidder for cash at the court house door in Oxford, the following described lot or parcel of land: The home place of the late Rowan F. Kingsbury, at the intersection of Cherry and Farmer and Mechanic street, in the town of Oxford, adjoining the lands of Z. W. Lyon prize house lot. L. J. Hicks and perhaps others, containing half an acre more or less, being same lot conveyed by J. M. Currin, Tr., to John M. Kingsbury and wife. See deed book 55 page 384. Time of sale about the hour of noon. Terms Cash. This September 9th, 1913. A. A. HICKS, W. A. DEVIN, Commissioners.

Clothing! Clothing!! Clothing!!!

You have no doubt heard a great deal about the Styleplus Clothes, $17.00, during the past year, we have them, and we are the only store in town that carries this celebrated line. They are the greatest values we have ever seen. Come in and investigate before you buy your fall suit. You can spend from $3 to $8 more in actual cash elsewhere without getting so much real worth in style fabric and every quality that makes good clothes.

Millinery! Millinery!!

We are fortunate in having our same polite and accomplished force in our millinery department this season that we have had for several seasons, and we specially invite you to look at our line before you buy

To the Ladies of Granville County.

Knowing that you often come to town alone, we want to invite you to drive to our stores and let us take charge of your horse, we will be glad to attend to any outside business we can for you, whether you do any shopping in our line or not.
